The Board of Directors (BOD) respectfully submits the amendments and supplements to the Charter of Vietcredit General Finance Joint Stock Company to the General Meeting of Shareholders for approval as follows:

I. Basis for submission

To meet its corporate governance needs, the Company proposes to designate the Chairman of the Board of Directors as its legal representative in place of the Chief Executive Officer.

The relevant provisions of the Company's Charter therefore need to be amended and supplemented to reflect this change and ensure compliance with applicable law. The BOD also proposes amendments and supplements to certain other provisions of the Charter, as detailed in the Appendix to this Proposal, to address those matters more specifically in accordance with applicable law.

II. Matters submitted for approval

On that basis, the BOD respectfully submits the following matters to the General Meeting of Shareholders for approval:

1) Approval of the amendments and supplements to the Charter of Vietcredit General Finance Joint Stock Company, as detailed in the Appendix and the full text of the draft attached to this Proposal;
2) Assign the BOD to carry out or direct the necessary procedures to issue the Charter of Vietcredit General Finance Joint Stock Company as amended and supplemented above.

1. The Company's charter capital is VND 911,783,310,000 (in words: nine hundred and eleven billion seven hundred and eighty-three million three hundred and ten thousand Vietnamese dong).

2. The charter capital of the Company is divided into a total of 91,178,331 shares.

3. The Company must ensure that its actual charter capital is not less than the statutory capital prescribed by law.

4. Change of charter capital:

   a. The Company may increase or decrease its charter capital by decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with this Charter and applicable law. An increase or decrease in charter capital may be implemented only with the approval of the State Bank of Vietnam;

b. Forms of charter capital increase:

(i) Offering shares to raise capital, including the case of paying dividends in shares.

(ii) Conversion of convertible bonds into shares

(iii) Capitalization of share premium to increase charter capital in accordance with law.

(iv) Other forms as prescribed by relevant laws.

c. Forms of charter capital reduction:

(i) The Company revokes and cancels a number of shares of shareholders with a total par value corresponding to the expected downward adjustment of charter capital.

(ii) Other forms as prescribed by relevant laws.

d. The procedures, formalities and application documents for approval of a change in charter capital shall comply with the State Bank of Vietnam's regulations;

e. Upon receiving written approval from the State Bank of Vietnam for the change in charter capital, the Company must:

(i) Amend and supplement the Company Charter to reflect the approved change;

(ii) Disclose the change in charter capital within 07 working days from the date of the State Bank of Vietnam's approval through one of the State Bank of Vietnam's media outlets and in 03 consecutive issues of one print newspaper or in one Vietnamese online newspaper.

Article 8. Shares

1. Each share of the Company has a par value of VND 10,000 (ten thousand Vietnamese dong).
2. At the time of adoption of this Charter, all shares of the Company are ordinary shares. The rights and obligations of shareholders holding each type of shares are specified in Articles 20 and 21 of this Charter. The issuance of other types of preference shares must comply with the decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders, and the provisions of law and must be approved by the State Bank of Vietnam.
3. The Company may issue other securities if the General Meeting of Shareholders unanimously approves the issuance in writing and the issuance complies with applicable law.

Article 9. Share Ownership Ratios

1. An individual shareholder may not own more than 05% of the Company's charter capital.
2. An institutional shareholder may not own more than 10% of the Company's charter capital.
3. A shareholder and its affiliated persons may not own shares in excess of 15% of the Company's charter capital. A major shareholder of the Company and its affiliated persons may not own shares representing 05% or more of the charter capital of another credit institution.
4. The provisions of Clauses 2 and 3 of this Article do not apply to the following cases:
   a. State share ownership in equitized credit institutions.
   b. Share ownership by foreign investors specified in Clause 7 of this Article.

5. The share ownership limits specified in Clauses 1 and 2 of this Article include shares held indirectly. The share ownership limit specified in Clause 3 of this Article includes shares purchased by other organizations or individuals on trust for a shareholder but excludes shares owned by affiliated persons that are subsidiaries of that shareholder as specified in Point (i), Clause y, Article 1 of this Charter.

6. Within 05 years from the date of issuance of the License, the founding shareholders must hold at least 50% of the Company's charter capital; founding shareholders being legal entities must hold at least 50% of the total number of shares held by the founding shareholders.

7. Foreign investors may purchase shares in Vietnamese credit institutions. The Government shall prescribe the aggregate maximum ownership by foreign investors, the maximum ownership percentage for a foreign institutional investor, and the maximum combined ownership percentage for a foreign investor and its affiliated persons in a Vietnamese credit institution; the conditions and procedures for foreign investors to purchase shares in Vietnamese credit institutions; and the conditions for Vietnamese credit institutions to sell shares to foreign investors.

Article 10. Shareholder Register

1. The Company shall establish the Shareholder Register from the date it is granted the License of Establishment and Operation and maintain it as a legal record of each shareholder's ownership of shares. The Shareholder Register may be maintained in writing, as an electronic dataset, or both. It shall contain the following information:

   a. Name and address of the Company's head office;

   b. The total number of shares entitled to be offered for sale, the types of shares entitled to be offered for sale and the number of shares entitled to be offered for sale of each type;

   c. Total number of shares sold in each class and the amount of share capital contributed;

   d. For an individual shareholder: full name, contact address, nationality and personal legal document number. For an organizational shareholder: name, enterprise identification number or legal document number, and head office address;

   e. Number of shares of each class held by each shareholder and date of registration of the shares.

2. The Shareholder Register shall be kept at the Company's head office or by another organization that provides shareholder-register services. The Board of Directors is responsible for maintaining and updating the Shareholder Register and ensuring the accuracy of all information it contains. Shareholders may inspect, look up, obtain extracts of and copy the shareholders' names and contact addresses recorded in the Shareholder Register.

3. Not later than fifteen (15) days after the Company receives the full payment for the shares issued by the Company, the Board of Directors shall record the relevant details of the shareholders in the Register.

4. Shareholders must notify the Company's Board of Directors in writing of changes to their contact addresses. All notices or other information will be sent to the last address recorded in the Shareholder Register. In case the shareholder changes his or her contact address, he or she must promptly notify the Company to update it in the Shareholder Register. The Company is not responsible for the failure to contact shareholders due to not being notified of the change of address of shareholders.

Article 11. Offering of Shares

1. Existing holders of ordinary shares must be offered ordinary shares on a pre-emptive basis in proportion to their respective holdings of ordinary shares in the Company.

2. Once the General Meeting of Shareholders has approved the proposed share offering, the Board of Directors shall determine the timing, method and price for offering shares authorized to be offered. The offering price must not be below the market price at the time of the offering or the most recent book value of the shares, except in the following cases:

   a. Shares offered for the first time to persons who are not founding shareholders;

   b. Shares offered for sale to all shareholders in proportion to their existing shares in the Company;

   c. Shares offered to a broker or underwriter. In this case, the discount amount or rate must be approved by shareholders representing at least 75% of the total voting shares.

3. In case the Company issues additional ordinary shares and offers such shares to all ordinary shareholders in proportion to their existing shares in the Company, the following provisions must be complied with:

   a. The Company must send written notice to the shareholders by a method that ensures delivery to their contact addresses in the Shareholder Register no later than 15 days before the deadline to subscribe for the shares;

   b. The notice must state, for each individual shareholder, the shareholder's full name, contact address, nationality and citizen identity card, identity card, passport or other lawful personal identification document number; for each organizational shareholder, its name, enterprise identification number or establishment decision number, and head office address. The notice must also specify the number and percentage of shares already held by the shareholder in the Company, the total number of shares proposed to be offered and the number the shareholder is entitled to purchase, the offering price, the subscription deadline, and the full name and signature of the Company's legal representative. The Company must enclose its share subscription form. A shareholder who does not return the subscription form to the Company by the deadline stated in the notice shall be deemed not to have exercised the pre-emptive right;

   c. Shareholders may transfer their pre-emptive rights to purchase shares to other persons in accordance with law;

   d. If shareholders and transferees of pre-emptive rights do not subscribe for all the shares proposed to be offered, the Board of Directors shall determine how and on what terms the remaining shares will be offered. The terms may not be more favorable than those offered to the shareholders, unless otherwise approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders or provided by securities law.

4. Shares are deemed sold once they are fully paid up and all information on the buyer required under Clause 1, Article 10 of this Charter has been entered in the Shareholder Register. The buyer becomes a shareholder of the Company at that time.

5. Once the shares are fully paid up, the Company must issue and deliver the share certificates to the buyer. The Company may sell shares without delivering share certificates. In that case, entry of the shareholder information specified in Clause 1, Article 10 of this Charter in the Shareholder Register is sufficient to establish that shareholder's ownership of the shares.

6. Conditions, methods and procedures for public offering of shares shall comply with the provisions of the law on securities.

Article 12. Issuance, Sale, Distribution, Award, Recall and Repurchase of Shares and Other Securities under Selection Programs for the Company's Officers and Employees

1. The Company may issue, sell, distribute, award, recall or repurchase shares and other securities issued or sold by it under a selection program for its officers, employees and other persons working for the Company, in accordance with applicable law.

2. Types of securities, standards and conditions for selling/distributing/awarding shares and other securities will comply with detailed regulations issued by the Board of Directors.

Article 13. Repurchase of Shares

1. The Company must meet the following conditions to repurchase its own shares:

   a. The General Meeting of Shareholders has approved the repurchase of shares to reduce charter capital and the repurchase plan, which specifies the number of shares, the timing and the pricing principles;

   b. Sufficient funds are available to repurchase shares from share premium, the development investment fund, undistributed after-tax profit or other equity funds that may be used to supplement charter capital under applicable law;

   c. A securities company has been appointed to execute the transactions;

   d. If the Company operates in a line of business subject to investment and business conditions, it meets the conditions prescribed by law;

   e. None of the following circumstances applies:

      (i) The Company has overdue liabilities according to its most recent audited annual financial statements. If the proposed date of the share repurchase is more than 06 months after the end of the financial year, overdue liabilities shall be determined based on the latest audited or reviewed six-month financial statements;

      (ii) The Company is in the process of offering or issuing shares to raise additional capital;

      (iii) The Company's shares are subject to a public tender offer;

      (iv) The Company has repurchased its own shares and less than 06 months have elapsed since it reported the results of that repurchase, or no more than 06 months have elapsed since it completed an offering or issuance of shares to raise capital.

   f. The Company may not repurchase shares from any of the following persons, except where the repurchase is made in proportion to ownership in the Company, pursuant to a legally effective court judgment or Decision or an arbitral award, or through order-matching transactions:

      (i) Internal persons and their affiliated persons as defined in the Law on Securities;

      (ii) Holders of shares subject to transfer restrictions under applicable law and the Company Charter;

(iii) Major shareholders of the Company.

2. Cases in which the Company may repurchase shares:

a. Repurchase of shares at the Company's request:

(i) The Company may repurchase no more than 30% of all ordinary shares sold, or some or all of the dividend preference shares sold, in accordance with law. The Board of Directors may decide to repurchase no more than 10% of all shares sold in each class over a 12-month period. In other cases, the General Meeting of Shareholders shall decide on the repurchase;

(ii) If a repurchase of the Company's own shares reduces its charter capital, the Company must obtain the State Bank of Vietnam's written approval before making the change.

b. Repurchase of shares at a shareholder's request:

(i) Shareholders who have voted not to approve the resolution on the reorganization of the Company or change the rights and obligations of shareholders specified in this Charter have the right to request the Company to repurchase their shares. The request must be in writing, clearly stating the name and address of the shareholders, the number of shares of each type, the intended price of sale, and the reason for requesting the Company to repurchase. The request must be sent to the Company within 10 days from the date the General Meeting of Shareholders adopt the resolution on the above matters;

(ii) The Company must repurchase shares at the request of the shareholders specified at Point (i) of this Clause at the market price or the price calculated according to the principles specified in the Company Charter within 90 days from the date of receipt of the request. In case of failure to reach an agreement on the price, the parties may request a price appraisal organization to assess the price. The Company introduces at least 03 valuation organizations for shareholders to choose and that choice is the final decision.

c. Repurchase of employee shares under the Company's regulations on share issuance to employees, or repurchase of fractional shares under a plan for the issuance of shares as dividends or from owners' equity:

(i) The total number of employee shares repurchased by the Company to reduce its charter capital must be reported at the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders;

(ii) The Company must carry out the procedures to reduce its charter capital by the aggregate par value of the shares repurchased within 10 days from the date of the report to the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders under this Point.

3. Repurchases under Points b and c, Clause 2 of this Article are exempt from the conditions in Points a, b, c and d, Clause 1 of this Article.

4. Conditions for payment and disposal of repurchased shares:

a. The Company may repurchase a shareholder's shares only if, after paying in full for the repurchased shares, it still meets the prudential ratios applicable to its banking operations, the actual value of its charter capital is not less than its statutory capital, and it can pay all its debts and other property obligations in full.

b. Shares repurchased under the provisions of this Article shall be sold immediately after repurchase in the following cases:

(i) The Company repurchases fractional shares under a plan for issuance of shares as dividends or a plan for issuance of shares from owners' equity;

(ii) The Company repurchases fractional shares at the request of a shareholder.

c. For shares repurchased under Points a and b, Clause 2 of this Article, the Company must complete the procedures to reduce its charter capital by the aggregate par value of the repurchased shares within 10 days after the repurchase price is paid in full, unless otherwise provided by securities law.

d. Share certificates evidencing ownership of the repurchased shares, if any, must be destroyed immediately after the corresponding shares have been paid for in full. The Chairman and Chief Executive Officer shall be jointly liable for any loss arising from a failure to destroy, or delay in destroying, such share certificates.

e. After paying off all the repurchased shares, if the total value of assets recorded in the Company's accounting books decreases by more than 10%, the Company must notify all creditors within 15 days from the date of full payment of the repurchased shares.

5. Reporting, disclosure and execution of share repurchases shall comply with applicable law and the regulations issued by the competent authority of the Company from time to time.

Article 14. Transfer of Shares

1. All shares are freely transferable unless otherwise provided for by this Charter and law; stocks listed and registered for trading on the Stock Exchange shall be transferred in accordance with the provisions of the law on securities and securities market.

2. Individual shareholders and organizational shareholders whose representatives are members of the Board of Directors, members of the Board of Supervisors or the Chief Executive Officer of the Company may not transfer their shares while the relevant persons hold those positions. The term representative in this Clause does not include a representative of the State's contributed capital in the Company.

3. Members of the Board of Directors, members of the Board of Supervisors and the Chief Executive Officer may not transfer shares while the consequences for which they are personally responsible are being addressed pursuant to a Resolution or Decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders or a Decision of the State Bank of Vietnam, except in the following cases:

a. The member of the Board of Directors, member of the Board of Supervisors or Chief Executive Officer is an authorized representative of an organizational shareholder undergoing merger, consolidation, division, separation, dissolution or bankruptcy in accordance with law;

b. The member of the Board of Directors, member of the Board of Supervisors or Chief Executive Officer is required to transfer shares under a legally effective court judgment or Decision;

c. The member of the Board of Directors, member of the Board of Supervisors or Chief Executive Officer transfers shares to other investors to implement an approved recovery plan, plan to transfer all contributed capital, or compulsory transfer plan.

4. Shares that are not fully paid up may not be transferred and confer no related benefits, such as the right to receive dividends, the right to receive shares issued to increase share capital from owners' equity, the right to purchase newly offered shares, and other rights under applicable law.
5. Cases related to the inheritance of shares of shareholders in the Company shall comply with current laws.
6. A shareholder may give some or all of its shares in the Company to another person or use them to discharge a debt. The recipient of the gift or of repayment in shares shall become a shareholder of the Company.
7. Any purchase, sale or transfer of shares that results in a person becoming a major shareholder requires the State Bank of Vietnam's written approval and is subject to disclosure and other applicable legal requirements. Shareholders, buyers and transferees of Company shares shall cooperate with the Company in applying for approval as prescribed in this Point.
8. Recipients of shares in the cases specified in this Article shall only become shareholders of the Company from the time their information specified in Clause 2, Article 122 of the Law on Enterprises is fully recorded in the Shareholder Register.

Article 15. Share Certificates

1. A Company share certificate is a security certifying the holder's lawful rights and interests in a portion of the Company's share capital. Share certificates may take the form of book entries or electronic data.
2. The Company's share certificates must contain all information required by law.
3. The Company's shareholders are issued share certificates corresponding to the number and class of shares they hold.
    a. One share certificate may represent only one class of shares.
    b. Where share certificates are issued in documentary form in connection with an increase in charter capital, the Company must issue the certificates to shareholders within 30 days from the date they pay in full for the shares they have subscribed for.
4. If only some of the shares represented by a share certificate are transferred, the old certificate shall be cancelled and a new certificate for the remaining shares shall be issued free of charge.
5. If a share certificate is lost, damaged or otherwise destroyed, the Company shall issue a replacement at the shareholder's request. The shareholder must provide satisfactory evidence of ownership of the shares and pay all costs incurred by the Company. The shareholder's request must contain the following:
    a. Details of the share certificate that was lost, damaged or otherwise destroyed.
    b. A statement that the share certificate was in fact lost, burned or otherwise destroyed; if it was lost, a further undertaking that a thorough search was conducted and that the certificate will be returned to the Company for destruction if found.
    c. An undertaking to accept liability for disputes arising from the issuance of a replacement share certificate.

Article 16. Other Securities Certificates

Bond certificates or other securities certificates of the Company are issued bearing the signature of the Legal Representative and the Company's seal.

Article 17. Variation of Rights

1. Any variation or cancellation of special rights attached to a class of preference shares shall take effect if approved by shareholders representing 65% or more of all votes of the shareholders attending the meeting. A Resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders that adversely alters the rights and obligations of preference shareholders may be adopted only if approved by holders of 75% or more of all preference shares of the affected class who attend the meeting or, in the case of solicitation of written opinions, by holders of 75% or more of all preference shares of that class.
2. A separate meeting of holders of a class of preference shares to approve the variation of rights referred to above shall be valid only if attended by at least 02 shareholders, in person or by authorized representative, holding shares representing at least one third of the aggregate par value of all issued shares of that class. If that quorum is not met, the meeting shall be reconvened within 30 days. The holders of shares of that class who then attend in person or by authorized representative shall constitute a quorum, irrespective of the number of holders or shares. At such a meeting, any holder of shares of the relevant class attending in person or by representative may request a secret ballot. Each share of the same class carries equal voting rights at such meetings.
3. The procedure for conducting such separate meetings shall be carried out in the same manner as the provisions of Articles 25, 26 and 27 of this Charter.
4. Unless otherwise provided by the terms of the issuance of shares, the special rights attached to the types of shares with preferential rights over some or all matters relating to the distribution of the Company's profits or assets are not altered when the Company issues additional shares of the same type.

CHAPTER V: ORGANIZATIONAL, GOVERNANCE AND SUPERVISORY STRUCTURE

Article 18. Organizational, Governance and Supervisory Structure

The Company's organizational, governance and supervisory structure consists of:

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders;
2. The Board of Directors;
3. The Board of Supervisors;
4. The Chief Executive Officer.

3. The level of share ownership of shareholders being organizations and individuals shall comply with the provisions of law.
4. The Company may purchase shares issued by the Company in the manner provided for in this Charter and applicable laws.

Article 20. Rights of Shareholders

1. Shareholders are the owners of shares in the Company and have the rights and obligations corresponding to the number and class of shares they hold.
2. A shareholder is formally recognized only upon paying in full for the shares and being entered in the Company's Shareholder Register.
3. Ordinary shareholders of the Company are entitled to the following rights:
   a. Attend and speak at meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders and exercise voting rights in person or through an authorized representative. Each ordinary share carries one vote;
   b. Receive dividends according to the resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders;
   c. To be given priority to purchase newly offered shares corresponding to the proportion of ordinary shares of each shareholder in the Company;
   d. Transfer of shares or the right to purchase shares to other shareholders of the Company or other organizations and individuals in accordance with the provisions of this Charter and Law on Credit Institutions;
   e. Inspect, look up and obtain extracts of names and contact addresses in the list of shareholders entitled to vote and request correction of any inaccurate information relating to themselves;

f. Inspect, look up, obtain extracts of and copy the Company Charter, the book of minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders and its Resolutions and Decisions;

g. Receive a portion of the remaining assets in proportion to the number of shares held in the Company upon its dissolution or bankruptcy;

h. Authorize another person in writing to exercise their rights and perform their obligations; the authorized person may not stand for election in their own capacity;

i. Stand for election or nominate candidates to the Board of Directors or Board of Supervisors as provided in the Company Charter or, if the Charter is silent, as provided by law. The list of candidates must be sent to the Board of Directors by the deadline it sets.

j. Request the Company to repurchase shares in the cases specified in Article 132 of the Law on Enterprises;

k. Receive equal treatment. Each share of the same class confers equal rights, obligations and benefits on its holder. If the Company has preference shares, the rights and obligations attached to those classes must be approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders and fully disclosed to shareholders;

l. Have full access to periodic and extraordinary disclosures made by the Company in accordance with law;

m. To have their legitimate rights and interests protected; to propose the suspension or cancellation of resolutions and decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders and the Board of Directors in accordance with the provisions of the Law on Enterprises;

n. Shareholders or groups of shareholders owning 5% or more of the total ordinary shares of the Company also have the following rights:

   (i) Nominate candidates to the Board of Directors and the Board of Supervisors;

   (ii) Inspect, look up and obtain extracts of the minute book, Resolutions and Decisions of the Board of Directors; the interim and annual financial statements; reports of the Board of Supervisors; contracts and transactions subject to approval by the Board of Directors; and other documents, except documents relating to the Company's trade or business secrets;

   (iii) Request a meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders if the Board of Directors seriously infringes shareholder rights or breaches managers' obligations, makes a Decision outside its delegated authority, or in another case specified in the Company Charter. The request must be in writing and include the following: for each individual shareholder, full name, contact address, nationality and personal legal document number; for each organizational shareholder, name, enterprise identification number or legal document number, and head office address; the number of shares held by each shareholder and the date of their registration, the total number of shares held by the group and its percentage of all shares in the Company; and the grounds for and reasons for requesting the meeting. The request must be accompanied by documents and evidence of the Board of Directors' violations and their severity or of the Decision exceeding its authority. The requesting shareholder or group of shareholders is fully liable under the law for the accuracy and truthfulness of the documents and evidence provided to the competent authority when requesting the meeting;

(iv) Request the Board of Supervisors to inspect each specific issue related to the management and administration of the Company's activities when deeming it necessary. The request must be in writing and must include the following contents: full name, contact address, nationality, number of legal papers of the individual for individual shareholders; name, enterprise code or number of legal papers of the organization, address of the head office for shareholders being organizations; the number of shares and the time of registration of shares of each shareholder, the total number of shares of the whole group of shareholders and the percentage of ownership in the total number of shares of the Company; matters to be inspected, the purpose of inspection;

(v) Proposing the issue to be included in the agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders. The proposal must be in writing and sent to the Company at least 03 working days before the opening date. The petition must clearly state the name of the shareholder, the number of each type of shares of the shareholder, and the issue proposed to be included in the meeting agenda.

o. A shareholder or group of shareholders holding more than 10% of all ordinary shares may request that the Board of Directors convene an Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders.

p. Other rights as prescribed by law and this Charter.

4. The nomination of persons to the Board of Directors and the Board of Supervisors mentioned at Point i, Clause 3 of this Article shall be carried out as follows:

a. Ordinary shareholders who form a group to nominate candidates to the Board of Directors and Board of Supervisors must notify shareholders in attendance of the formation of the group before the General Meeting of Shareholders opens;

b. Based on the number of members of the Board of Directors and the Board of Supervisors, shareholders or groups of shareholders specified in this Clause may nominate one or several persons under the General Meeting of Shareholders' decision as candidates for the Board of Directors and the Board of Supervisors. In case the number of candidates nominated by shareholders or groups of shareholders is lower than the number of candidates they are entitled to nominate under the decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders, the remaining number of candidates shall be nominated by the Board of Directors, the Board of Supervisors and other shareholders.

Article 21. Obligations of Shareholders

Ordinary shareholders of the Company have the following obligations:

1. Pay the full amount corresponding to the number of shares committed to buy within the time limit prescribed by the Company; take responsibility for debts and other property obligations of the Company within the scope of the share capital contributed to the Company.

2. Shareholders may not withdraw their contributed share capital from the Company in any manner that reduces its charter capital, except through a repurchase by the Company if, after paying in full for the repurchased shares, the Company continues to meet the prudential ratios applicable to its banking operations and the actual value of its charter capital is not less than the statutory capital.

3. Be liable under law for the lawfulness of the funds used to make capital contributions or purchase or acquire shares by transfer in a credit institution. Do not use funds borrowed from a credit institution or foreign bank branch, or proceeds of a corporate bond issuance, to purchase or acquire shares in the Company. Do not contribute capital to or purchase shares in the Company in the name of any other individual or legal entity in any form, except under a trust arrangement permitted by law.
4. Comply with the Company Charter and internal regulations.
5. To abide by the resolutions and decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders and the Board of Directors.
6. Be liable when acting in any capacity on behalf of the Company to commit an unlawful act or conduct business or other transactions for their own benefit or for the benefit of another organization or individual.
7. Keep confidential the information provided by the Company under the Company Charter and applicable law. Use that information solely to exercise and protect their lawful rights and interests. Dissemination, copying or transmission of the information provided by the Company to any other organization or individual is strictly prohibited.
8. A shareholder entrusted by another organization or individual to make an investment must provide the Company with information on the beneficial owner of the shares held on trust in the Company. The Company may suspend the shareholder's rights in respect of those shares if the shareholder fails to provide information on the beneficial owner or provides incomplete or inaccurate information.
9. Attend meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders and exercise voting rights by any of the following means:
    a. Attend and vote in person at the meeting;
    b. Authorize another individual or organization to attend and vote at the meeting;
    c. Attend and vote by videoconference, electronic voting or other electronic means;
    d. Send a Voting Ballot to the meeting by mail, fax or email;
    e. Submit a Voting Ballot by other electronic means as provided in this Charter.
10. Take personal responsibility when performing one of the following acts on behalf of the Company in any form:
    a. Violation of law;
    b. Conducting business and other transactions for self-interest or serving the interests of other organizations and individuals;
    c. Pay debts not yet due in the face of financial risks to the Company.
11. Shareholders owning 01% or more of the Company's charter capital must provide the Company with the following information:
    a. Full name; personal identification number; nationality, passport number, date of issue, place of issuance of foreign shareholders; the number of the Enterprise Registration Certificate or equivalent legal documents of the shareholder being an organization; date of issuance and place of issuance of this paper;

b. Information on affiliated persons as specified in Points c and d, Clause 1, Article 49 of the Law on Credit Institutions;

c. The number and proportion of shares they hold in the Company;

d. The number and proportion of shares their affiliated persons hold in the Company.

12. Shareholders must submit the information specified in Clause 11 of this Article to the Company in writing, both initially and when that information changes, within 07 working days from the date the information arises or changes. For information under Points c and d, Clause 11 of this Article, shareholders are required to submit information only when their own shareholding percentage or the combined shareholding percentage of the shareholder and its affiliated persons changes by 01% or more of the Company's charter capital compared with the most recent disclosure.

13. Other obligations as prescribed by law and this Charter.

Article 22. General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders comprises all shareholders entitled to vote and is the Company's highest decision-making body. An Annual General Meeting of Shareholders shall be held once a year within four (04) months after the end of the financial year. Apart from the annual meeting, the General Meeting of Shareholders may hold extraordinary meetings. The venue is the place from which the Chairperson attends the meeting and must be within the territory of Vietnam.

2. The Board of Directors shall convene the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders and select its venue in light of the circumstances. The Annual General Meeting of Shareholders shall decide matters prescribed by law and this Charter and, in particular, approve the audited annual financial statements. If the audit report on the Company's annual financial statements contains material qualifications, an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion, the Company must invite a representative of the approved audit organization that audited its financial statements to attend its Annual General Meeting of Shareholders, and that representative is required to attend.

3. The Board of Directors must convene an Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders in the following cases:

a. The Board of Directors considers a meeting necessary in the Company's interests;

b. The number of remaining members of the Board of Directors, independent members of the Board of Directors or members of the Board of Supervisors is below the minimum prescribed by law or the Company Charter;

c. At the request of shareholders or groups of shareholders owning 05% or more of the total ordinary shares of the Company according to Article 20 of this Charter. The request for the convening of the general meeting shall be made in a single document, clearly stating the reason and purpose of the meeting, with sufficient signatures of relevant shareholders or a written request made in many copies and sufficient signatures of relevant shareholders;

d. At the request of the Board of Supervisors;

e. To decide on matters at the State Bank of Vietnam's request when an event affects the safety of the Company's operations;

f. Other cases as prescribed by law and this Charter.

4. Convening an Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders:

   a. The Board of Directors must convene a meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders within thirty (30) days after the event specified in Point b, Clause 3 of this Article occurs or after receiving a request specified in Point c, d or e, Clause 3 of this Article;

   b. If the Board of Directors fails to convene a meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders as required under Point a of this Clause, the Board of Supervisors shall convene the meeting in its place within the following 30 days in accordance with applicable law. If the Board of Supervisors fails to convene the meeting as required, it must compensate the Company for the resulting loss;

   c. If the Board of Supervisors fails to convene the meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders under Point b of this Clause, a shareholder or group of shareholders holding 5% or more of all ordinary shares may request that the Company's representative convene the meeting in accordance with law;

   d. In this case, the shareholder or group of shareholders convening the meeting may, if necessary, request that the Business Registration Authority supervise the procedures for convening and conducting the meeting and adopting Decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

5. All expenses for convening and conducting meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with the provisions of this Article shall be paid by the Company, for a clear purpose. These expenses shall not include expenses incurred by shareholders when attending the General Meeting of Shareholders, including accommodation and travel expenses and other related expenses.

6. The convener of the General Meeting of Shareholders must perform the following tasks:

   a. Make a list of shareholders entitled to attend the meeting;

   b. Provide information and resolve complaints concerning the list of shareholders;

   c. Prepare the meeting agenda and matters to be considered;

   d. Prepare documents for the meeting;

   e. Prepare draft Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders on the proposed agenda items and, in the case of an election, a list of candidates for the Board of Directors or the Board of Supervisors and their particulars;

   f. Determine the time and place of the meeting;

   g. Send a notice of invitation to the meeting to each shareholder who has the right to attend the meeting in accordance with relevant laws;

   h. Perform any other tasks necessary for the meeting.

Article 23. Rights and Obligations of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders has the following powers and obligations:

   a. Approve the Company's development direction;

   b. To adopt regulations on the organization and operation of the Board of Directors and the Board of Supervisors, including the number of members of the Board of Directors and the Board of Supervisors;

c. Approve the plan to change charter capital and the share offering plan, including the classes and number of new shares to be offered; determine the annual dividend for each class of shares;

d. Determine the number of members of the Board of Directors and the Board of Supervisors for each term; elect, relieve from duty, remove, elect additional members to, or replace members of either board in accordance with the standards and conditions prescribed by the Law on Credit Institutions and the Company Charter;

e. Adopt the Company Charter and approve amendments and supplements to it;

f. Approve the Company's annual financial statements and annual business plan;

g. Decide on the establishment or change of legal form of the Company's overseas commercial presences and subsidiaries;

h. Review and address, within its authority, violations by the Board of Directors or the Board of Supervisors that cause damage to shareholders and the Company;

i. Decide on the division, separation, consolidation, merger, conversion of legal form or dissolution of the Company, or petition the court to commence bankruptcy proceedings against the Company;

j. Determine the remuneration, bonuses and other benefits of members of the Board of Directors and the Board of Supervisors and the operating budgets of both boards;

k. Determine the Company's management structure;

l. Approve the Internal Corporate Governance Regulations and the operating regulations of the Board of Directors and the Board of Supervisors;

m. Approve plans to repurchase shares sold and decide on repurchases of more than 10% of all shares sold in each class;

n. Approve the plan for issuance of convertible bonds;

o. Approve the list of independent audit firms; select an independent audit firm to review the Company's operations and remove an independent auditor where necessary; and assign the Board of Directors to select an independent auditor to audit the Company's annual financial statements;

p. Approve the profit distribution plan after fulfilling the Company's tax obligations and other financial obligations;

q. Approve the reports of the Board of Directors and the Board of Supervisors on the exercise of their assigned duties and powers;

r. Approve plans for capital contributions and purchases or sales of shares or equity interests in other enterprises or credit institutions where the value of the capital contribution, the proposed purchase price or, in the case of a sale, the carrying amount of the shares or equity interests is at least 20% of the Company's charter capital recorded in its latest audited financial statements;

s. Approve decisions on the Company's investment in, purchase or sale of fixed assets where the investment amount, proposed purchase price or, in the case of a sale, the original cost of the fixed assets is at least 20% of the Company's charter capital recorded in its latest audited financial statements;

t. Approve contracts and other transactions valued at 20% or more of the Company's charter capital recorded in its latest audited financial statements between the Company and any of the following: members of the Board of Directors, members of the Board of Supervisors, the Chief Executive Officer or major shareholders of the Company; affiliated persons of the Company's managers, members of the Board of Supervisors or major shareholders; the Company's subsidiaries or associates;

u. Decide on measures to address major changes in the Company's financial position;

v. Approving the transactions specified in Clause 4, Article 293 of the Government's Decree No. 155/2020/ND-CP dated December 31, 2020 detailing the implementation of a number of articles of the Law on Securities;

w. Other matters as prescribed by law and this Charter.

2. All resolutions and issues that have been included in the meeting agenda must be discussed and voted on at the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 24. Authorization to Attend the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Shareholders and authorized representatives of organizational shareholders may attend in person, authorize one or more other individuals or organizations in writing to attend, or attend by any other means specified in Clause 9, Article 21 of this Charter. If more than one authorized representative is appointed, the number of shares represented and the number of votes allocated to each representative must be specified.

2. An individual or organization may be authorized to represent a shareholder at a meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders under Clause 1 of this Article only in writing. The written authorization shall be drawn up in accordance with civil law and must contain all the following particulars:

   a. If the shareholder is an individual, the instrument of authorization must state the authorizing person's full name, contact address and personal legal document number; the number and classes of shares held; the scope and purpose of the authorization; the number of shares and votes covered by the authorization; the term of the authorization; and the authorized person's full name, contact address and personal legal document number. The instrument must be signed by the shareholder granting the authorization and by the authorized person attending the meeting.

   b. If the shareholder is a legal entity, the instrument of authorization must state the legal entity's name, address and legal document number; particulars of its legal representative; the number and classes of shares held; the scope and purpose of the authorization; the number of shares and votes covered by the authorization; the term of the authorization; and the authorized person's full name, contact address and personal legal document number. The instrument must be signed by the shareholder and by the authorized person attending the meeting.

3. Persons authorized to attend meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders must submit a written authorization when registering to attend the meeting before entering the meeting room. In case of re-authorization, the meeting participants must additionally present the original authorization document of the shareholder, authorized representative of the shareholder being an organization (if not previously registered with the Company).

4. A Voting Ballot cast within the scope of the authorization by a person authorized to attend the meeting remains valid in any of the following cases:

   a. The person granting the authorization has died, had their civil act capacity restricted or lost their civil act capacity;

   b. The person granting the authorization has revoked the appointment;

   c. The person granting the authorization has revoked the authority of the person who made the appointment.

   This clause does not apply in the event that the Company receives notice of one of the above events before the opening time of the General Meeting of Shareholders or before the meeting is reconvened.

Article 25. Convening, Agenda and Notice of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The Board of Directors shall convene Annual and Extraordinary General Meetings of Shareholders. The Board of Directors shall convene an Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders in the circumstances specified in Clause 3, Article 22 of this Charter.

2. The convener of the General Meeting of Shareholders must perform the following tasks:

   a. Prepare a list of shareholders entitled to attend and vote at the General Meeting of Shareholders. The list of shareholders entitled to attend the meeting must be prepared no more than 10 days before the notice of meeting is sent. The Company must disclose information on the preparation of that list at least 20 days before the record date;

   b. Provide information and resolve complaints concerning the list of shareholders;

   c. Prepare the meeting agenda and matters to be considered;

   d. Prepare the meeting materials;

   e. Prepare draft Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders on the proposed agenda items and, in the case of an election, a list of candidates for the Board of Directors or the Board of Supervisors and their particulars;

   f. Determine the time and venue of the meeting;

   g. Announce and send a notice of meeting to all shareholders eligible to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders;

   h. Carry out other tasks necessary for the General Meeting of Shareholders.

3. The notice of meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be sent to all shareholders by a method that ensures delivery to their contact addresses and shall also be published on the electronic information channels of the Company, the State Securities Commission of Vietnam and the stock exchange on which the Company's shares are registered for trading or listed. The convener must send the notice of meeting to every shareholder on the list of shareholders eligible to attend no later than 21 days before the meeting opens, calculated from the date the notice is duly sent or transmitted. The agenda and documents concerning matters to be voted on shall be sent to shareholders or posted on the Company's website, or both. If the documents are not sent with the notice of meeting, the notice must specify links enabling shareholders to access all meeting materials, including:

   a. The meeting agenda and meeting materials;

b. List and particulars of candidates where members of the Board of Directors or the Board of Supervisors are to be elected;

c. Voting Ballot;

d. Draft resolutions for each issue on the meeting agenda.

4. A shareholder or group of shareholders holding 5% or more of all ordinary shares may propose matters for inclusion in the agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders under Point v, Clause 3.n, Article 20 of this Charter.

5. The convener of a General Meeting of Shareholders may reject the proposal specified in Clause 4 of this Article in one of the following cases:

a. The proposal was not submitted in accordance with Clause 4 of this Article;

b. At the time of submission, the proposing shareholder or group of shareholders did not hold 5% or more of ordinary shares as required under this Charter;

c. The proposed matter is outside the decision-making authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders;

d. Other cases as prescribed by law and this Charter.

6. The convener of the General Meeting of Shareholders must accept and include the proposals specified in Clause 4 of this Article in the proposed agenda and contents of the meeting, except for the case specified in Clause 5 of this Article; the proposal shall be officially added to the agenda and contents of the meeting if approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 26. Conditions for Conducting a General Meeting of Shareholders

1. A meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders may be held if the shareholders attending the meeting represent more than 50% of all voting shares.

2. If the first meeting does not meet the quorum requirement in Clause 1 of this Article within thirty minutes after its scheduled opening, a second meeting may be convened within thirty (30) days from the date scheduled for the first meeting. The second meeting may be held if the shareholders attending the meeting represent at least 33% of all voting shares.

3. If the second meeting does not meet the quorum requirement in Clause 2 of this Article within thirty minutes after its scheduled opening, notice of a third meeting must be sent within twenty (20) days from the date scheduled for the second meeting. The third meeting may be held regardless of the total votes represented by the shareholders attending. Only the General Meeting of Shareholders may decide to change the agenda sent with the notice of meeting under Article 25 of this Charter.

Article 27. Procedures for Conducting and Voting at a General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Before a meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders opens, the Company must register shareholders and continue registration until all eligible shareholders present have registered, as follows:

a. At shareholder registration, the Company shall issue a Voting Card to each shareholder or authorized representative entitled to vote. The Voting Card shall show the registration number, the full name of the shareholder, the full name of the authorized representative and the number of votes held by that shareholder. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall discuss and vote on each agenda item. Votes shall be cast for, against or without opinion. When a vote is taken, the cards in favor of the Resolution are collected first, followed by the cards against; the totals for and against are then counted to determine the outcome. The total number of votes for, against and in abstention on each matter shall be announced by the Chairperson before the meeting closes. At the Chairperson's proposal, the General Meeting of Shareholders shall elect one or more persons to the Vote Counting Committee. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall determine the number of members of the Vote Counting Committee based on the Chairperson's proposal;

b. A shareholder, an authorized representative of an organizational shareholder, or a person appointed by proxy who arrives after the meeting opens may register immediately and participate and vote once registered. The Chairperson is not required to suspend the meeting to register late arrivals, and the validity of matters previously voted on is unaffected.

2. The Chairperson, secretary and Vote Counting Committee shall be elected as follows:

   a. The Chairman shall chair meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders convened by the Board of Directors or authorize another member of the Board of Directors to do so. If the Chairman is absent or temporarily unable to work, the remaining members of the Board of Directors shall elect one of their number by majority vote to chair the meeting. If no Chairperson is elected, the Head of the Board of Supervisors shall preside over the election of a Chairperson by the General Meeting of Shareholders, and the person receiving the highest number of votes shall chair the meeting;

   b. Except as provided in Point a of this Clause, the person who signed the notice convening the General Meeting of Shareholders shall preside over the election of a meeting Chairperson by the General Meeting of Shareholders. The candidate receiving the highest number of votes shall chair the meeting;

   c. The Chairperson shall appoint one or more persons as secretaries to prepare the minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders;

   d. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall elect one or more persons to the Vote Counting Committee at the proposal of the Chairperson.

3. The agenda and matters to be considered must be approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders during the opening session. The agenda shall specify in detail the time allotted to each matter.

4. The Chairperson may take such necessary and reasonable measures as are required to conduct the meeting in an orderly manner, in accordance with the approved agenda and in a manner that reflects the wishes of the majority of those attending.

   a. Arrange seating at the meeting venue of the General Meeting of Shareholders;

   b. Ensure the safety of everyone present at the meeting venue;

   c. Facilitate shareholders' attendance or continued attendance at the meeting. The convener has full authority to modify the above measures and take all necessary measures, which may include issuing admission passes or using other means of selection.

5. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall discuss and vote on each agenda item. Votes shall be cast for, against or without opinion. The Chairperson shall announce the vote count immediately before the meeting closes.

6. A shareholder or person appointed by proxy who arrives after the meeting opens may still register and vote immediately after registration. The validity of matters already voted on is unaffected.

7. The convener or the Chairperson of a meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders may:

   a. Require all attendees to submit to inspections or other reasonable and lawful security measures;

   b. Request the competent authority to maintain order at the meeting; remove from the meeting anyone who disobeys the Chairperson's authority to conduct the meeting, deliberately disrupts order, obstructs the normal course of the meeting or fails to comply with security screening requirements.

8. The Chairperson may postpone a meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders for which enough attendees have registered for no more than 03 working days from the date on which the meeting was scheduled to open. The Chairperson may postpone the meeting or change its venue only in the following cases:

   a. The meeting venue lacks sufficient suitable seating for all attendees;

   b. The facilities for communication at the meeting venue do not enable attending shareholders to participate, discuss matters and vote;

   c. An attendee obstructs or disrupts the meeting, creating a risk that it cannot be conducted fairly and lawfully.

9. If the Chairperson postpones or suspends a meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders contrary to this Charter, the General Meeting of Shareholders shall elect another attendee to replace the Chairperson and conduct the meeting to its conclusion. All Resolutions adopted at that meeting shall be effective and enforceable.

10. Where the Company uses modern technology to hold the General Meeting of Shareholders online, the Company shall ensure that shareholders are able to attend and vote by electronic voting or other electronic means in accordance with Article 144 of the Law on Enterprises and Clause 3, Article 273 of Government Decree No. 155/ND-CP dated December 31, 2020, detailing the implementation of a number of articles of the Law on Securities.

Article 28. Conditions for Adoption of Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall adopt decisions on matters within its authority by voting at a meeting or by soliciting written opinions.

2. Except as provided in Clauses 3, 4 and 5 of this Article, a Decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be adopted if approved by shareholders representing more than 50% of all votes of the shareholders attending the meeting or, in the case of solicitation of written opinions, by shareholders representing more than 50% of the votes of all shareholders.

3. Decisions on the following matters must be approved by shareholders representing more than 65% of all votes of the shareholders attending the meeting or, in the case of solicitation of written opinions, by shareholders representing more than 65% of the votes of all shareholders:

   a. Approval of the plan to change charter capital and the plan for offering shares, including the classes and number of new shares to be offered;

b. Approval of decisions on the Company's investment in, purchase or sale of fixed assets where the investment amount, proposed purchase price or, in the case of a sale, the original cost of the fixed assets is at least 20% of the Company's charter capital recorded in its latest audited financial statements.

4. A Decision on the division, separation, consolidation, merger, conversion of legal form or dissolution of the Company, or on petitioning the court to commence bankruptcy proceedings against the Company, must be approved by shareholders representing more than 65% of all votes of the shareholders attending the meeting.

5. Members of the Board of Directors and of the Board of Supervisors shall be elected by cumulative voting. Each shareholder has votes equal to the total number of shares held multiplied by the number of seats to be filled on the Board of Directors or the Board of Supervisors and may allocate all such votes to one or more candidates. Candidates shall be elected in descending order of votes received, starting with the candidate receiving the most votes, until the number of seats approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders is filled. If two or more candidates receive the same number of votes for the final seat on either board, a further vote shall be held among the tied candidates.

6. Decisions on the following matters must be adopted by voting at a meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders:

   a. Approval of the Company's development direction;

   b. Determining the number of members of the Board of Directors and the Board of Supervisors for each term; electing, relieving from office, removing, electing additional members to or replacing members of either board in accordance with the standards and conditions prescribed by the Law on Credit Institutions and the Company Charter;

   c. Reviewing and addressing, within its authority, violations by the Board of Directors or the Board of Supervisors that cause damage to the Company and its shareholders;

   d. Deciding on the division, separation, consolidation, merger, conversion of legal form or dissolution of the Company, or petitioning the court to commence bankruptcy proceedings against the Company.

7. A Resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders adopted by 100% of all voting shares is lawful and effective even if the procedures for convening the meeting and adopting the Resolution did not comply with the Law on Enterprises or the Company Charter.

8. Resolutions and Decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be communicated to shareholders entitled to attend the meeting within fifteen (15) days and posted on the Company's website within twenty-four (24) hours after the Resolution is adopted.

9. The Company shall send the State Bank of Vietnam all Resolutions and Decisions adopted by the General Meeting of Shareholders within 15 days after the meeting closes or, in the case of solicitation of written opinions, after vote counting is completed.

Article 29. Authority and Procedures for Soliciting Shareholders' Written Opinions to Adopt Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders

The authority and procedures for the Solicitation of Shareholders' Written Opinions to adopt Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders are as follows:

1. The Board of Directors may solicit shareholders' written opinions to adopt a Resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders whenever it considers this necessary in the Company's interests, except as provided in Clause 6, Article 28 of this Charter.

2. The Board of Directors shall prepare the Ballot for the Solicitation of Shareholders' Written Opinions, the draft Resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders and materials explaining the draft Resolution. The Board of Directors shall send these to all shareholders entitled to vote no later than 10 days before the deadline for returning the ballot. The ballot and accompanying documents shall be sent in accordance with the requirements and by the methods specified in Clause 3, Article 25 of this Charter.

3. The Ballot for the Solicitation of Shareholders' Written Opinions must include the following principal information:

   a. Name, head office address and enterprise identification number;

   b. Purpose of the solicitation;

   c. For an individual shareholder: full name, contact address, nationality and personal legal document number. For an organizational shareholder: name, enterprise identification number or legal document number, and head office address; or the full name, contact address, nationality and personal legal document number of the representative of an organizational shareholder. The ballot must also specify the number of shares of each class and the number of votes held by the shareholder;

   d. The matters on which shareholders' opinions are sought for the adoption of a Decision;

   e. Voting options: for, against or no opinion;

   f. Deadline for returning the completed ballot to the Company;

   g. Full name and signature of the Chairman.

4. Shareholders may return the completed ballot to the Company by mail, fax or email as follows:

   a. If returned by mail, the completed ballot shall bear the signature of the individual shareholder or of the authorized representative or legal representative of an organizational shareholder. The ballot shall be enclosed in a sealed envelope and no one may open it before vote counting;

   b. If returned by fax or email, the ballot must be kept confidential until votes are counted;

   c. A ballot returned after the stated deadline, opened before vote counting if returned by mail, or disclosed before vote counting if returned by fax or email, is invalid. A ballot not returned constitutes non-participation in the vote.

5. The Board of Directors shall count the votes and prepare the Minutes of Vote Counting in the presence of the Board of Supervisors or a shareholder who does not hold a management position in the Company. The Minutes of Vote Counting must contain the following principal information:

   a. The Company's name, head office address and enterprise identification number;

   b. Purpose of the solicitation and matters on which shareholders' opinions are sought for the adoption of a Resolution;

   c. Number of shareholders who voted and total votes cast, distinguishing between valid and invalid votes, and the method by which votes were submitted, with an annex listing the shareholders who voted;

d. Total votes for, against and without opinion on each matter;

e. Matters approved and the corresponding voting percentages;

f. Full names and signatures of the Chairman, the vote counters and the persons supervising vote counting.

6. Members of the Board of Directors, vote counters and persons supervising vote counting shall be jointly responsible for the truthfulness and accuracy of the Minutes of Vote Counting and jointly liable for damage arising from Decisions adopted as a result of dishonest or inaccurate vote counting.

7. The Minutes of Vote Counting and the Resolution must be sent to shareholders within fifteen (15) days after vote counting is completed. Sending these documents directly to shareholders may be replaced by posting them on the Company's website within 24 hours after vote counting is completed.

8. The completed ballots, the Minutes of Vote Counting, the full text of the adopted Resolution and relevant materials sent with the ballots must be kept at the Company's head office.

9. Resolutions and Decisions adopted through the Solicitation of Shareholders' Written Opinions have the same effect as Decisions adopted at a meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 30. Resolutions and Minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Minutes must be prepared for meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders. Meetings may be audio-recorded or recorded and retained in another electronic form. The minutes shall be prepared in Vietnamese and may also be prepared in a foreign language; the Vietnamese version shall be used in the event of a dispute. The minutes must contain the following principal information:

a. Name, head office address and enterprise identification number;

b. Time and place of the General Meeting of Shareholders;

c. Agenda and matters considered at the meeting;

d. Full names of the Chairperson and secretary;

e. A summary of the proceedings and of the views expressed at the meeting on each agenda item;

f. The number of shareholders and the total number of votes represented at the meeting, with an annex listing shareholders registered to attend and shareholder representatives in attendance, together with their corresponding numbers of shares and votes;

g. Total votes cast on each matter, specifying the voting method, total valid and invalid votes, votes for, votes against and votes without opinion, and the corresponding percentages of all votes of shareholders attending the meeting;

h. Matters approved and the corresponding percentages of votes in favor;

i. Full names and signatures of the Chairperson and secretary. If the Chairperson and secretary refuse to sign, the minutes are valid if signed by all other members of the Board of Directors attending the meeting and if they contain all the information required by this Clause. The minutes must record the Chairperson's and secretary's refusal to sign.

2. The minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be completed and approved before the meeting closes. The Chairperson and the secretary, or any other persons signing the minutes, shall be jointly responsible for the truthfulness and accuracy of the minutes.

3. The Resolutions and minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders, the annex listing shareholders registered to attend together with their signatures, written authorizations to attend, all materials attached to the minutes, if any, and relevant materials accompanying the notice of meeting must be disclosed in accordance with securities market disclosure regulations and kept at the Company's head office.

4. Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders take effect on the date of adoption or on the effective date specified in the relevant Resolution. If a shareholder or group of shareholders requests a court or an arbitral tribunal to set aside a Resolution under Article 31 of this Charter, the Resolution remains in force until the court or arbitral tribunal decides otherwise, except where a competent authority orders an interim measure.

Article 31. Request for Annulment of Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Within ninety (90) days after receiving the minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders or the Minutes of Vote Counting for the Solicitation of Shareholders' Written Opinions, a shareholder or group of shareholders holding at least 05% of all ordinary shares may request a court or an arbitral tribunal to review and set aside a Resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders if:

2. The procedures for convening a meeting and adopting a decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders materially violate this Charter, the Law on Credit Institutions, the Law on Enterprises or other applicable law, except as provided in Clause 7, Article 28 of this Charter.

3. The Resolution violates applicable law or the Company Charter.

m. Other rights and obligations as prescribed by the Company's Charter and law.

4. If the Chairman submits a resignation letter or is relieved or removed from the position of Chairman, the Board of Directors shall elect a replacement from among its remaining members within 10 days from receipt of the resignation letter or the relief from office or removal. Within 10 days after adopting a decision on the Chairman's relief from office or removal, the Company's Board of Directors shall submit a written report and relevant supporting documents to the State Bank of Vietnam.

5. If the Chairman of the Board of Directors is absent or unable to perform their duties, the Chairman shall authorize another member of the Board of Directors in writing, but only if the Chairman has notified the Board of Directors of their absence, required absence due to force majeure, or inability to perform their duties. Any authorization to exercise the legal representative's rights and perform the legal representative's obligations shall be made in accordance with Article 3 of this Charter.

6. If the Chairman is absent without having authorized another member of the Board of Directors or is unable to perform their duties, the remaining members shall elect one of their number by majority vote to serve as acting Chairman for no more than six (06) months from the date of assuming that position. During that period, the Board of Directors shall elect a new Chairman and publicly announce the result in accordance with the regulations of the State Bank of Vietnam and the Company's Charter.

Article 49. Meetings of the Board of Directors

1. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall be elected at the Board's first meeting, held within seven (07) working days after the election of that Board of Directors ends. The member receiving the highest number of votes shall convene and chair the meeting. If two or more members are tied for the highest number of votes, they shall elect one of their number by majority vote to convene the meeting.

2. The Board of Directors must meet at least once a quarter and may hold extraordinary meetings.

3. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall convene a meeting of the Board of Directors at the request of:

   a. The Board of Supervisors or an independent member of the Board of Directors;

   b. The Chief Executive Officer or at least 05 other Managers;

   c. At least 02 members of the Board of Directors.

4. The request shall be in writing and state the purpose of the meeting and the matters within the Board of Directors' authority that are to be discussed and decided.

5. The Chairman shall convene and hold an extraordinary meeting of the Board of Directors within seven (07) working days of receiving a request under Clause 3 of this Article. If the Chairman fails to convene the requested meeting, the Chairman shall be liable for any resulting loss to the Company, and the requesting party may convene the meeting in the Chairman's place.

6. The Chairman of the Board of Directors or other convener shall send the meeting notice no later than 03 working days before the meeting. The notice shall state the time and place, the agenda and the matters to be discussed and decided.

7. The meeting notice may be sent by written invitation, telephone, fax or electronic means and must reach each member of the Board of Directors at the contact address registered with the Company. The notice shall be accompanied by the meeting materials and the member's voting ballot.

8. The Chairman or other convener shall send the meeting notice and accompanying documents to members of the Board of Supervisors in the same manner as to members of the Board of Directors.

9. Members of the Board of Supervisors may attend and participate in discussions at meetings of the Board of Directors but may not vote.

10. A meeting of the Board of Directors may proceed if at least three-quarters (3/4) of its members attend. If a meeting called under this Clause does not have the required quorum, a second meeting may be convened within 07 days from the date scheduled for the first meeting. The second meeting may proceed if more than half of the members of the Board of Directors attend.

11. A member of the Board of Directors is deemed to attend and vote at a meeting in any of the following cases:

    a. Attending and voting directly at the meeting;

    b. Authorizing another person to attend and vote under Clause 11 of this Article;

    c. Attending and voting by online conference, electronic voting or another electronic means;

    d. Sending a voting ballot to the meeting by post, fax or email.

12. A ballot sent by post shall be placed in a sealed envelope and delivered to the Chairman of the Board of Directors no later than 01 hour before the meeting opens. The ballot may be opened only in the presence of all attendees.

13. Members shall attend all meetings of the Board of Directors. A member may authorize another person to attend and vote on their behalf if approved by a majority of the Board of Directors in accordance with Article 72 of the Law on Credit Institutions.

14. The Board of Directors shall adopt resolutions and decisions by voting at meetings, obtaining written opinions or using another method specified in the Company's Charter. Each member of the Board of Directors has one vote.

15. A resolution or decision of the Board of Directors is adopted if approved by a majority of the members attending the meeting. If the votes are tied, the Chairman's vote is decisive.

16. Meetings of the Board of Directors may be held at the Company's head office or another location designated by the Board of Directors. Meetings may be held in person, online, by other electronic means or by another lawful method.

Article 50. Committees and Subcommittees of the Board of Directors

1. The Board of Directors shall establish committees to assist it in carrying out its duties and exercising its powers, including a Risk Management Committee and a Human Resources Committee. The Board of Directors shall determine the duties and powers of those 02 Committees in accordance with regulations of the Governor of the State Bank of Vietnam. Within 10 days of issuing those internal regulations, the Company shall send them to the State Bank of Vietnam (Banking Inspection and Supervision Agency).
2. The Board of Directors may establish subcommittees to assist it. The Board of Directors shall determine the functions and duties of the supporting body.
3. Decisions of the Board of Directors or its subcommittees shall be implemented in accordance with applicable law, the Company's Charter and its internal regulations.
4. The Committees shall advise, assess, review and monitor matters within their respective areas of responsibility and make recommendations to the Board of Directors on those matters.

Article 51. Person in Charge of Corporate Governance

e. Report unusual financial activities of the Company to the Head of the Board of Supervisors, and take personal responsibility for their assessments and conclusions;

f. Attend meetings of the Board of Directors, express opinions and make recommendations without voting. If their opinion differs from a Board of Directors resolution, they may request that their opinion be recorded in the minutes and report it to the Head of the Board of Supervisors;

g. Comply with law, the Company's Charter and the internal regulations of the Board of Supervisors; honestly and with due care perform duties assigned by the Head of the Board of Supervisors in carrying out the Board's powers and duties in the interests of the Company and shareholders; and take responsibility for exercising their rights and performing their obligations;

h. Request that the Head of the Board of Supervisors convene an extraordinary meeting of the Board of Supervisors;

i. Attend meetings of the Board of Supervisors and discuss and vote on matters within its powers and duties, except those in which they have a conflict of interest;

j. Exercise other rights and perform other tasks as prescribed by law and this Charter.

Article 56. Rights and Obligations of the Board of Supervisors

The Board of Supervisors has the following rights and obligations:

1. Supervise the Company's governance and management for compliance with law, internal regulations, the Company's Charter and the resolutions and decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders and the Board of Directors; be accountable to the General Meeting of Shareholders for the performance of assigned duties and exercise of assigned powers under the Law on Credit Institutions and the Company's Charter.

2. Issue internal regulations of the Board of Supervisors and annually review those regulations and the Company's internal regulations on accounting and reporting;

3. Organize internal audits; have access to and be provided with complete, accurate and timely information and documents on the Company's governance and management activities; use the Company's resources to carry out its assigned duties and powers; and engage independent experts, consultants and external organizations to assist with those duties while remaining responsible for their performance.

4. Assess the reasonableness, legality, accuracy and degree of care in managing and operating the business, and whether accounting, statistical work and financial reporting are systematic, consistent and appropriate.

5. Monitor the Company's financial condition and review its financial statements for the first 06 months of each year and its annual financial statements; report the results to the General Meeting of Shareholders and assess the reasonableness, legality, accuracy and degree of care in accounting, statistical work and preparation of the financial statements. The Board of Supervisors may consult the Board of Directors before submitting its report and recommendations to the General Meeting of Shareholders.

6. Review contracts and transactions with affiliated persons under the approval authority of the Board of Directors or the General Meeting of Shareholders and make recommendations on contracts and transactions that require the approval of the Board of Directors or the General Meeting of Shareholders.

7. Supervise the approval and implementation of investment projects, purchases and sales of fixed assets, and other contracts and transactions of the Company that fall within the decision-making authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders or the Board of Directors. Prepare and submit annual reports on the results of that supervision to both bodies.

8. Monitor compliance with Chapter VII of the Law on Credit Institutions on prudential restrictions applicable to the Company's operations.

9. Review, examine and assess the effectiveness and efficiency of the Company's internal control system, internal audit, risk management and early warning mechanisms.

10. Examine accounting books, other documents and the management and operation of the Company when considered necessary or in the following cases:

    - According to the resolutions and decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders;
    - At the request of the State Bank of Vietnam, a major shareholder or a group of major shareholders in accordance with law. The examination shall be conducted within 07 working days of receipt of the request. Within 15 days after completing the examination, the Board of Supervisors shall report and explain the matters examined to the requesting organizations or individuals.

11. Promptly notify the General Meeting of Shareholders and the Board of Directors upon finding that a Manager or Executive of the Company has violated law, the Company's Charter or internal regulations, or a resolution or decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders or the Board of Directors; require the person to stop the violation immediately and take any applicable remedial measures.

12. Compile and maintain a list of founding shareholders for the 05 years from the date on which they became founding shareholders, shareholders holding at least 01% of charter capital, and affiliated persons of members of the Company's Board of Directors and Board of Supervisors, the Chief Executive Officer and shareholders holding at least 01% of charter capital; retain and update the list.

13. Request that the Board of Directors hold an extraordinary meeting or convene an Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with the Law on Credit Institutions and the Company's Charter. Convene a General Meeting of Shareholders in place of the Board of Directors within 30 days if the Board of Directors fails to convene the meeting as required by Clause 3, Article 140 of the Law on Enterprises.

14. Convene an Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders if the Board of Directors makes a decision that seriously violates the Law on Credit Institutions or exceeds its authority, or in other cases specified in the Company's Charter.

15. Appoint, relieve from duty, discipline and suspend, and determine the salaries and other benefits of, persons holding positions in the Internal Audit Department.

16. Promptly report to the State Bank of Vietnam any violations under Clauses 8, 11 and 14 of this Article, and any violations concerning shareholding limits and affiliated persons under the Law on Credit Institutions.

17. Recommend to the Board of Directors or the General Meeting of Shareholders measures to amend, supplement or improve the organizational structure for management, supervision and operation of the Company's business.
18. Attend and participate in discussions at the General Meeting of Shareholders, the Board of Directors and other meetings of the Company.
19. The Board of Supervisors may consult with the Board of Directors before submitting reports, conclusions and recommendations to the General Meeting of Shareholders.
20. Recommend that the General Meeting of Shareholders approve the list of audit organizations eligible to audit the Company's financial statements, and arrange for an approved audit organization to examine the Company's operations if deemed necessary.
21. Ensure coordination with the Board of Directors, Chief Executive Officer and shareholders.
22. Witness the Board of Directors count the votes and prepare the minutes of vote counting if requested by the Board of Directors when shareholders' written opinions are solicited to adopt a resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders.
23. The Head of the Board of Supervisors shall preside over the election of a meeting chair by the General Meeting of Shareholders if the Chairman of the Board of Directors is absent or temporarily unable to work and the remaining Board of Directors members fail to elect a chair. In that case, the person receiving the most votes shall chair the meeting.
24. Other duties and powers under law, the Company's Charter and resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 57. Meetings of the Board of Supervisors

1. The Board of Supervisors shall meet at least once every quarter, with at least two-thirds (2/3) of its members attending. The minutes shall be detailed and clear. The minute-taker and the members of the Board of Supervisors attending the meeting shall sign the minutes. The minutes shall be retained to establish the responsibilities of each member of the Board of Supervisors.
2. The Board of Supervisors may require members of the Board of Directors, the Chief Executive Officer and representatives of the approved audit organization to attend and respond to matters requiring clarification.
3. Meetings of the Board of Supervisors may be held at the Company's head office or another location designated by the Board of Supervisors. Meetings may be held in person, online or by other electronic means.
4. An extraordinary meeting of the Board of Supervisors may be convened to promptly address unexpected matters at the request of:
    a. The Chairman of the Board of Directors;
    b. At least two-thirds of the members of the Board of Directors;
    c. The Head of the Board of Supervisors;
    d. A member of the Board of Supervisors;
    e. The Chief Executive Officer;
    f. The Director of the provincial or municipal branch of the State Bank of Vietnam where the Company has its head office;

g. Other cases as prescribed by law.

A request shall be in writing and state the purpose and matters within the authority of the Board of Supervisors to be discussed and decided.

5. The Head of the Board of Supervisors shall convene and hold an extraordinary meeting of the Board of Supervisors within fifteen (15) working days of receiving a request under Clause 4 of this Article. If the Head fails to convene the meeting after two successive requests, the Board of Directors and members of the Board of Supervisors shall immediately report in writing to the provincial or municipal branch of the State Bank of Vietnam where the Company has its head office and hold a meeting of the Board of Supervisors to address the matters. At the same time, they shall decide on the relief from office or removal of the Head, elect a qualifying member of the Board of Supervisors as Head, or ask the Board of Directors to convene an Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders to address any outstanding matters and difficulties. Within 10 days of adopting a decision to relieve or remove the Head of the Board of Supervisors, the Company's Board of Directors shall submit a written report and relevant documents to the State Bank of Vietnam.

6. A meeting of the Board of Supervisors shall be held five (05) days after notice is sent to its members. The notice shall be in Vietnamese and specify the agenda, time and location. It shall be accompanied by the materials necessary for the matters to be discussed and voted on and by ballots for members unable to attend. Those members shall send their ballots to the Board of Supervisors before the meeting.

7. A meeting of the Board of Supervisors may proceed if at least two-thirds of its members attend in person or through another member authorized to act on their behalf. If the first call of a regular meeting does not result in the required quorum, the Head of the Board of Supervisors shall notify the Board of Directors and request that an Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders be convened within thirty (30) days for shareholders to consider the status of the members of the Board of Supervisors.

8. Voting:

   a. Each member attending a meeting of the Board of Supervisors has one vote. A member who cannot attend may authorize another member eligible to vote to do so on their behalf in writing;

   b. A member of the Board of Supervisors who has an interest in a matter submitted to the Board for decision may not vote on that matter, be counted toward the quorum or accept authorization from another member to vote on that matter;

   c. If a question arises at a meeting about a member's interest or right to vote and the member does not voluntarily resolve it by waiving their right to vote, the matter shall be referred to the meeting chair. The chair's decision is final and conclusive unless the nature or extent of the member's interest is unknown;

   d. Any member of the Board of Supervisors related to a contract stated at Point r, Clause 3, Article 67 and Clause 9, Article 70 of the Law on Credit Institutions shall be deemed to have a material interest in such contract.

9. A decision of the Board of Supervisors is adopted if approved by a majority of members entitled to vote at the meeting. In a tie, the vote of the Head of the Board of Supervisors, or of the member authorized by the Head to chair the meeting in the Head's absence, is decisive.

10. If the Board of Supervisors seeks written opinions to adopt a decision, the decision has the same effect as a decision adopted at a duly convened and duly held meeting, provided that:
    a. A majority of the members of the Board of Supervisors entitled to vote on the matter consent in writing;
    b. The number of members entitled to vote in writing meets the quorum requirements for a meeting of the Board of Supervisors.
11. Meetings of the Board of Supervisors shall be fully recorded in the minutes book. The minutes shall be in Vietnamese and signed by all members who attended, who shall be jointly responsible for their accuracy and truthfulness. The meeting chair shall arrange for the minutes to be prepared and sent to members of the Board of Supervisors. The minutes are conclusive evidence of the proceedings unless a complaint concerning their contents is made within ten (10) days after they are sent.

Article 58. Salaries, Remuneration, Bonuses and Other Benefits of Members of the Board of Supervisors Remuneration, bonuses and other benefits of members of the Board of Supervisors shall be subject to the following provisions:

1. Members of the Board of Supervisors shall receive salaries, remuneration, bonuses and other benefits as decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall determine the total amount of salaries, remuneration, bonuses and other benefits and the annual operating budget of the Board of Supervisors. Remuneration shall be calculated based on the number of working days required to perform a member's duties and the applicable daily rate.
2. Members of the Board of Supervisors shall be reimbursed for reasonable meal, accommodation, travel and independent consulting expenses. Total remuneration and expenses shall not exceed the Board of Supervisors' annual operating budget approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders unless the General Meeting of Shareholders decides otherwise.
3. Salaries and operating expenses of the Board of Supervisors shall be included in the Company's business expenses in accordance with corporate income tax law and other applicable law and recorded as separate items in the Company's annual financial statements.

2. The Chief Executive Officer shall prepare a plan for approval by the Board of Directors on matters relating to the Company's relations with trade unions, in accordance with the best management standards, practices and policies, the practices and policies set out in this Charter, the Company's regulations and applicable law.

CHAPTER XIII: INTERNAL CONTROL SYSTEM AND INTERNAL AUDIT

Article 65. Internal Control System and Internal Audit

1. Internal Control System

a. The internal control system comprises the Company's mechanisms, policies, processes, internal regulations and organizational structure, established in accordance with the Law on Credit Institutions, Circular No. 14/2023/TT-NHNN and other relevant laws, and implemented to control, prevent, detect and promptly address risks and satisfy the applicable requirements. The internal control system encompasses senior management oversight, internal control, risk management and internal audit.

b. The Company shall establish an internal control system that meets the following requirements:

   (i) Ensure effective and safe operations and the safe and effective protection, management and use of assets and resources;

   (ii) Ensure that financial and management information systems provide accurate, reasonable, complete and timely information;

   (iii) Comply with the law and the Company's internal rules, processes and regulations;

   (iv) Be appropriate to the scale, circumstances and complexity of the Company's business operations;

   (v) Have sufficient financial, human and information technology resources to ensure its effectiveness;

   (vi) Establish and maintain a culture of control and standards of professional ethics for the Company.

c. The State Bank of Vietnam has the right to request the Company to hire an independent audit organization to evaluate part or all of the Internal Control System when deeming it necessary.

d. The Company shall establish its internal control system and use technology in its internal control activities in accordance with the regulations of the Governor of the State Bank of Vietnam.

e. Discussions and conclusions on the internal control system at meetings of the Board of Directors, the Board of Supervisors, the Risk Management Committee and the Personnel Committee must be recorded in minutes, clearly stating the views on which each member agreed or disagreed.

f. The independent assessment of Internal Control System shall be carried out in accordance with the State Bank of Vietnam's regulations on independent audit of the Company.

2. Internal Audit

a. The Internal Audit Department shall be established under the Board of Supervisors to perform the Company's internal audit functions;

b. The Internal Audit Department shall independently and objectively review and assess the adequacy of and compliance with the Company's internal mechanisms, policies, processes and regulations, and make recommendations to improve the effectiveness of its systems, processes and regulations so that the Company operates safely, efficiently and in accordance with the law;

c. Internal audit results must be promptly reported to the Board of Supervisors and sent to the Board of Directors and the Chief Executive Officer of the Company.

CHAPTER XIV: RESTRICTIONS TO ENSURE OPERATIONAL SAFETY OF THE COMPANY

Article 66. Risk Provisions

1. The Company must establish provisions for operational risks and recognize these provisions as operating expenses.
2. The classification of assets shall comply with the regulations of the Governor of the State Bank of Vietnam.
3. The use of risk provisions does not alter the customers' obligation to repay debts against which risk provisions are used, or the responsibilities of organizations and individuals in connection with those debts. The levels and methods for establishing risk provisions and the use of such provisions to address risks in the Company's operations shall comply with the Government's regulations.
4. In special cases involving socioeconomic or external affairs duties, the Prime Minister shall decide, on a case-by-case basis and on the recommendation of the State Bank of Vietnam, the classification of assets, the levels and methods for establishing risk provisions, and the use of such provisions to address operational risks.
5. If the Company recovers any amounts previously covered by risk provisions, it shall recognize the recovered amounts as revenue.

Article 67. Cases in Which Credit Granting Is Prohibited

The Company shall not grant credit to persons or entities to whom credit may not be granted under the Law on Credit Institutions and other regulations of the State Bank of Vietnam.

Article 68. Credit Restrictions

The Company shall not grant unsecured credit or credit on preferential terms to persons or entities subject to credit restrictions under the Law on Credit Institutions and other regulations of the State Bank of Vietnam.

Article 69. Limits on Capital Contribution and Share Purchase

1. The Company's capital contributions and share purchases must not exceed the maximum limits prescribed by the Governor of the State Bank of Vietnam.
2. The Company is only allowed to use charter capital and reserve funds to contribute capital and purchase shares in accordance with the regulations of the State Bank of Vietnam.

CHAPTER XV: PROFIT DISTRIBUTION

Article 70. Profit Distribution

1. The Company's profits remaining after offsetting prior-year losses in accordance with the Law on Corporate Income Tax and paying corporate income tax shall be distributed in accordance with the Government's regulations.
2. Each year the Company must allocate a portion of its after-tax profits to establish and maintain the following funds:
   a. The Reserve Fund for Supplementing Charter Capital or the reserve fund for supplementing allocated capital shall be funded annually at 10% of after-tax profit. The balance of this fund must not exceed the Company's charter capital or allocated capital, as applicable;

b. Financial reserve fund;

c. Other reserve funds as prescribed by law.

3. The Company manages and uses funds in accordance with the law.

4. Dividend Payment

a. On the recommendation of the Board of Directors, the General Meeting of Shareholders shall determine the amount and form of the annual dividend payment from the Company's retained profits. Where the Company is subject to early intervention, the Company shall not pay dividends or returns or distribute after-tax profits remaining after allocations to the funds.

b. Dividends on ordinary shares shall be based on realized net profits and shall be paid from the Company's retained earnings after a decision by the General Meeting of Shareholders. The Company may pay dividends to shareholders only after fulfilling its tax and other financial obligations, making the required allocations to Company funds and fully offsetting prior losses in accordance with the law. Immediately after payment in full of the declared dividends, the Company must remain able to pay all debts and other obligations as they fall due.

c. The Company is not required to pay interest on amounts payable as dividends or other amounts payable in respect of a class of shares.

d. The Board of Directors may recommend that the General Meeting of Shareholders approve payment of all or part of a dividend in shares. The Board of Directors shall implement that decision.

e. Dividends may be paid in cash or in shares of the Company. Additional shares issued for this purpose shall be recorded as fully paid, provided that the value of such shares equals the amount of the equivalent cash dividend. Cash dividends must be paid in Vietnamese dong and may be paid by cheque or payment order sent by post to the shareholder's contact address.

f. Dividends may be paid by bank transfer if the Company has sufficient banking details to transfer the funds directly to the shareholder's bank account. If the Company makes the transfer using the banking details provided by the shareholder, it shall not be liable for any losses arising from the transfer.

g. Dividends on shares registered for trading or listed on a stock exchange may be paid through a securities company or the Vietnam Securities Depository and Clearing Corporation.

h. Pursuant to the Law on Enterprises and the Law on Securities, the Board of Directors shall adopt a Resolution setting a specific record date for the list of shareholders. Persons registered on that date as shareholders or holders of other securities are entitled to receive dividends, distributions of profits, shares, notices or other documents.

CHAPTER XVI: BANK ACCOUNTS, FISCAL YEAR AND ACCOUNTING REGIME

Article 71. Bank Accounts

1. If the Company accepts deposits, it must open a payment account with the State Bank of Vietnam and maintain the required reserves in that account.
2. The Company will open accounts at Vietnamese commercial banks or at foreign bank branches licensed to operate in Vietnam.
3. Subject to the prior approval of the competent authority, in case of necessity, the Company may open a bank account at a foreign bank in accordance with the provisions of the law on foreign exchange.
4. The Company is allowed to open deposit accounts and loan management accounts for customers.
5. The Company shall make payments and carry out accounting transactions through its Vietnamese dong or foreign currency accounts at banks with which it has opened accounts in accordance with the law.

Article 72. Fiscal Year

1. The Company's fiscal year begins on January 01 and ends on December 31 of the same year.
2. The Company's first fiscal year will commence from the date of issuance of the License and end on December 31 of the same calendar year.

Article 73. Accounting Regime

1. The Company shall prepare, report, audit and publicly disclose its financial statements in accordance with the law on accounting, the Law on Credit Institutions and the implementing regulations issued by the Ministry of Finance and the State Bank of Vietnam.
2. The Company shall maintain its accounts in accordance with the law on accounting, be legally responsible for the accuracy and truthfulness of its revenues and expenditures and comply with the requirements for invoices and accounting vouchers.
3. The Company prepares accounting books in Vietnamese and keeps accounting records in accordance with the law on accounting and relevant laws. These records must be accurate, up-to-date, systematic and must be sufficient to substantiate and explain the Company's transactions.
4. The Company shall use Vietnamese dong as its accounting currency. If most of its economic transactions are denominated in a particular foreign currency, the Company may choose that currency as its accounting currency, assume legal responsibility for that choice, and notify its tax authority directly responsible for administering its taxes.

Article 74. Financial Regime

The Company is financially autonomous. The Company's financial regime shall comply with the provisions of Law on Credit Institutions and other relevant laws.

CHAPTER XVII: FINANCIAL STATEMENTS, ANNUAL REPORT AND INFORMATION DISCLOSURE OBLIGATIONS

Article 75. Annual, Semi-annual and Quarterly Financial Statements

1. The Company shall prepare annual financial statements, which must be audited in accordance with the law. The Company shall disclose its audited annual financial statements in accordance with the law on information disclosure in the securities market and submit them to the competent state authority.

2. The annual financial statements must include all reports, appendices and notes required under the law on corporate accounting and must provide a true and objective account of the Company's operations.

3. The Company must prepare and publish reviewed semi-annual financial statements and quarterly financial statements in accordance with the law on information disclosure on the securities market and submit them to competent state agencies.

4. Within 120 days from the end of the fiscal year, the Company must publicize its financial statements in accordance with the provisions of law, except for the case where the credit institution is under special control.

Article 76. Annual Report

The Company must prepare and publish an annual report in accordance with the provisions of the law on securities and securities market.

Article 77. Information Disclosure and Public Announcements

1. The Company shall make full, accurate and timely periodic and extraordinary disclosures to shareholders and the public concerning its business operations, finances and corporate governance. The Company shall also make full, accurate and timely disclosures of other information likely to affect securities prices and the decisions of shareholders and investors. The information disclosed and the manner of disclosure shall comply with the law, the Company's Charter and other internal regulations issued by the Board of Directors.

2. Information shall be disclosed in a manner that gives shareholders and the public equal access. Disclosures shall use clear, readily comprehensible language and shall not mislead shareholders or investors.

3. The Company shall disclose the following information on its website:

   a. Charter of the Company;

   b. Curricula vitae, educational qualifications and professional experience of members of the Board of Directors, members of the Board of Supervisors and the Chief Executive Officer of the Company;

   c. Annual financial statements approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders;

   d. Annual performance evaluation report of the Board of Directors and the Board of Supervisors;

   e. Other information and documents as prescribed by law.

4. Disclosure of other information shall comply with the law on securities and the securities market.

CHAPTER XVIII: AUDIT

Article 78. Audit

1. At its annual meeting, the General Meeting of Shareholders shall appoint an independent audit firm that meets the requirements of the State Bank of Vietnam to audit the Company for the following fiscal year.

2. Within 30 days of deciding to select an independent audit firm, the Company shall notify the State Bank of Vietnam of the firm selected.

3. The audit report is attached to the Company's annual financial statements.

4. Independent auditors who audit the Company's financial statements may attend meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders, receive notices and other information relating to those meetings, and speak at the meetings on matters relating to the audit of the Company's financial statements.

5. The Company must have a new independent audit performed if the independent audit firm issues a qualified opinion in its audit report.

6. Specific audits of the Company's operations shall be conducted in accordance with the Law on Credit Institutions, the law on independent audit and the guidance issued by the State Bank of Vietnam.

CHAPTER XIX: SEAL

Article 79. Seal

1. A seal includes a seal made at a seal engraving establishment or a seal in the form of a digital signature in accordance with the law on electronic transactions.

2. The Board of Directors shall determine the type, number, form and content of the seals of the Company, its branches and representative offices and its other units (if any).

3. The management and use of the Company's seals, digital signatures and means of authentication shall comply with the law and the internal regulations issued by the competent authority of the Company and be consistent with the Company's signing authority and its framework for delegation and authorization.

CHAPTER XX: TERMINATION OF OPERATIONS AND LIQUIDATION

Article 80. Early Intervention

1. The State Bank of Vietnam shall consider and decide whether to implement early intervention if one or more of the following circumstances applies to the Company:

   a. The accumulated losses of the Company exceed 15% of the value of charter capital, allocated capital and reserve funds as recorded in its most recent audited financial statements or as determined in the inspection or audit conclusions of a competent state authority, and the Company is in breach of the minimum capital adequacy ratio under Point b, Clause 1, Article 138 of the Law on Credit Institutions;

   b. The Company is rated below average under the regulations of the Governor of the State Bank of Vietnam;

   c. The Company breaches the liquidity ratio for 30 consecutive days;

   d. The Company breaches the minimum capital adequacy ratio for 06 consecutive months;

   e. The Company experiences mass withdrawals and a report is submitted to the State Bank of Vietnam.

2. The Company shall immediately implement the requirements and restrictive measures specified in the written notice issued by the State Bank of Vietnam. If the Company fails to implement such requirements or restrictive measures, the State Bank of Vietnam shall apply one or more additional restrictive measures specified in Clause 2, Article 157 of the Law on Credit Institutions.

3. Where necessary, the State Bank of Vietnam shall require the Company to engage an independent audit firm to audit its financial statements and assess its financial position as the basis for preparing a remedial plan.

Article 81. Reporting and Special Control

1. The State Bank of Vietnam may consider and decide to place the Company under special control in any of the following cases:

   a. The Company is subject to early intervention and has no remedial plan to submit to the State Bank of Vietnam or fails to revise its remedial plan as required in writing by the State Bank of Vietnam;

   b. The Company is subject to early intervention and is unable to implement the remedial plan within the prescribed period;

   c. At the end of the period for implementing the remedial plan, the credit institution has failed to remedy the circumstances that gave rise to early intervention;

   d. The Company experiences mass withdrawals that threaten the safety of the credit institution system;

   e. The Company's capital adequacy ratio is lower than 04% for a period of 06 consecutive months;

   f. The Company is being dissolved and is unable to pay its debts in full in the course of liquidating its assets.

2. From the date on which the Company is placed under special control, its shareholders shall report on the use of their shares or contributed capital interests and may not transfer or use them as collateral, except as required by a competent state authority.

3. From the date on which the Company is placed under special control, the outstanding principal and interest on the Company's refinancing loans from the State Bank of Vietnam shall be converted into outstanding principal and interest on special loans and shall continue to be governed by the refinancing arrangements applicable to those loans.

4. Where necessary to protect the safety of the credit institution system and maintain public order and safety in dealing with the Company under special control, the Government shall decide whether to apply special measures on the recommendation of the State Bank of Vietnam and report its decision to the National Assembly at its next session.

Article 82. Reorganization of the Company

The Company may be reorganized by division, separation, consolidation, merger, change of legal form or conversion to another type of non-bank credit institution, subject to the written approval of the State Bank of Vietnam.

Article 83. Bankruptcy of the Company

The bankruptcy of the Company shall be governed by Articles 188, 189, 190 and 203 of the Law on Credit Institutions and the law on bankruptcy.

Article 84. Dissolution and Termination of Operations

1. The Company may be dissolved or cease operations in any of the following cases:
   a. Upon expiry of its term of operation, the Company does not request an extension or, having requested an extension, fails to obtain the written approval of the State Bank of Vietnam;
   b. The Company has its license revoked;
   c. The Company voluntarily dissolves, provided that it can pay all of its debts and has the written approval of the State Bank of Vietnam;
   d. The Company is subject to early intervention or special control and another credit institution assumes all of its debt obligations.
2. The procedures for dissolution of the Company will be carried out in accordance with the provisions of the Law on Credit Institutions and relevant laws.

Article 85. Extension of the Term of Operation

1. At least 07 months before the Company's term of operation expires, the Board of Directors shall convene a meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders to allow shareholders to vote on extending that term upon the recommendation of the Board of Directors.
2. The term of operation shall be extended if the extension is approved by shareholders representing at least 65% of the total votes of all shareholders attending the meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 86. Liquidation of the Company

1. At least six months before the end of the Company's term of operation, or after a decision to dissolve the Company is made, the Board of Directors shall establish a Liquidation Board comprising 03 members, of whom 02 shall be appointed by the General Meeting of Shareholders and 01 shall be appointed by the Board of Directors from an independent audit firm. The Liquidation Board shall prepare its operating regulations. Its members may be selected from among Company employees or independent experts. The Company shall pay all liquidation expenses before its other liabilities.
2. The Liquidation Board shall notify the business registration authority of the date it was established and the date it commenced operations. From that point, the Liquidation Board shall represent the Company in all matters relating to its liquidation before courts and administrative authorities.
3. The Company conducts liquidation under the supervision of the State Bank of Vietnam.
4. The proceeds from the liquidation will be paid in the following order:
   a. Liquidation expenses;
   b. Salary arrears, severance allowances, social insurance and other benefits of employees under the signed collective labor agreements and labor contracts;
   c. Taxes and other tax-like payments due from the Company to the State;
   d. Loans (if any);
   e. Other liabilities of the Company;
   f. Any balance remaining after payment of all debts in items (a) through (e) above shall be distributed to the shareholders. Holders of preferred shares shall have priority in payment.

5. Upon dissolution or termination of operations under Article 202 of the Law on Credit Institutions, the Company shall liquidate its assets in accordance with Article 204 of the 2024 Law on Credit Institutions.

CHAPTER XXI: SETTLEMENT OF INTERNAL DISPUTES

Article 87. Settlement of Internal Disputes

1. If a dispute or complaint arises concerning the Company's operations or the rights and obligations of shareholders under the Law on Enterprises, the Law on Credit Institutions, the Company's Charter, other laws or agreements, and is between:

   a. Shareholders and the Company;

   b. Shareholders and the Board of Directors, the Board of Supervisors, the Chief Executive Officer or another Executive.

   The parties concerned shall endeavor to resolve the dispute through negotiation and mediation. Except where the dispute involves the Board of Directors or the Chairman, the Chairman shall preside over the dispute resolution process and require each party to present information relating to the dispute within 30 working days from the date on which the dispute arises. Where the dispute involves the Board of Directors or the Chairman, either party may request or appoint an independent expert to mediate the dispute resolution process.

2. If no decision is reached within eight (08) weeks of the start of mediation, or if the parties do not accept the mediator's decision, any party may refer the dispute to a court or arbitral tribunal with jurisdiction under the law.

3. Each party shall bear its own negotiation and mediation costs. Court or arbitration costs shall be allocated in accordance with the judgment or award.

CHAPTER XXII: INFORMATION AND CONFIDENTIALITY

Article 88. Periodic Information

1. The Company is allowed to exchange information with other credit institutions about banking and financial activities and customers in accordance with the provisions of law.

2. The Company shall submit reports and provide information on its business operations and personnel to the State Bank of Vietnam as the State Bank of Vietnam requires.

Article 89. Confidentiality Obligations

1. Employees of the Company and Affiliated persons shall not disclose any state secrets or business secrets of the Company of which they become aware.

2. The Company may refuse a request from an organization or individual for information about customers' deposits or assets or about the Company's operations, unless a competent state authority requests that information in accordance with the law or the customer consents.

CHAPTER XXIII: AMENDMENTS AND SUPPLEMENTS TO THE CHARTER

Article 90. Amendments and Supplements to the Charter

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall consider and decide on amendments and supplements to this Charter.
2. If any law governing the Company's operations addresses a matter not covered by this Charter, or if a new provision of law differs from a provision of this Charter, the relevant provision of law shall apply and govern the Company's operations.

CHAPTER XXIV: EFFECTIVE DATE

Article 91. Effective Date

1. This Charter comprises 24 Chapters and 91 Articles. The General Meeting of Shareholders of VietCredit unanimously adopted this Charter pursuant to Resolution No. ...../2026/VietCredit-NQ dated ..... and approved the effectiveness of the Charter in its entirety.
