4. Summary of significant accounting policies

4.1 Principles and methods of preparing consolidated financial statements

Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements comprise the financial statements of the Company and its subsidiary.

Subsidiary

Subsidiary is entity controlled by the Company. Control is achieved where the Company has the power to directly or indirectly govern the financial and operating policies of an investee entity so as to obtain benefits from its activities. The financial statements of subsidiary are consolidated from the effective date of control up to the date of cease to control.

The financial statements of the subsidiary are prepared for the same year as the Company, using consistent accounting policies. Adjustments are made for any differences in accounting policies that may exist to ensure consistency between the subsidiary and the Company.

Capital divestment of the Company from a subsidiary that does not result in a loss of control is accounted for as transactions with owners. If the capital divestment results in a loss of control, any resulting gain or loss is recognized in the consolidated income statement.

All intra-company balances and transactions, unrealized profits or losses arising from intra-company transactions, have been eliminated in full when preparing the consolidated financial statements.

Non-controlling interests

Non-controlling interests represent the portion of net assets in subsidiary not held by the Company and are presented within equity in the consolidated balance sheet, separately from parent shareholders' equity.

Non-controlling interests include non-controlling interests which are measured at their holding proportion in fair value of the net assets of subsidiary at the acquisition date and non-controlling interests in the fluctuations of total equity as from the consolidation date. Losses in subsidiary are respectively attributed to the non-controlling interests even if this results in the non-controlling interests having a deficit balance.

Non-controlling interests represent the portion of profit or loss of subsidiary not held by the Company, are determined based on the ratio of non-controlling interests and profit after corporate income tax of subsidiary and are presented separately in the consolidated income statement.

37. Risk management

a. Capital risk management

The Company manages its capital to ensure that it will be able to continue as a going concern while maximizing the return to shareholders through the optimization of the debt and equity balance.

b. Financial risk management

Financial risks include market risk (including interest rate risk, exchange rate risk, commodity price risk), credit risk and liquidity risk.

Market risk management: The Company's activities expose it primarily to the financial risks of changes in interest rates, exchange rates and prices.

Interest rate risk management

The Company's interest rate risks mainly derive from interest bearing loans which are arranged. To minimize these risks, the Company has estimated the impact of borrowing costs to its periodic business results as well as making analysis and projection to select appropriate time to repay the loans. The Board of Management assesses that uncontrollable risks arising from fluctuations of interest rates are low.

Exchange rate risk management

Since the Company undertakes transactions in foreign currencies, consequently it is exposed to risk of exchange rate fluctuations. The Company has hedged risks related to exchange rate fluctuations by maintaining an appropriate structure of loans in foreign currency and VND, optimizing the time for settlement of debts, selecting the appropriate time to purchase and make payment in foreign currencies, projecting future exchange rates and optimizing the utilization of existing funds to balance the exchange rate risk and liquidity risk.

Price risk management

The Company purchases goods, materials from domestic and overseas suppliers for its business production activities; it is therefore exposed to risks of changes in prices of input goods, materials. Since materials account for a high proportion of the total cost of products, the Company pays special attention to the risks of changes in price of materials used in its business production activities. To minimize this risk, the Company selects reputable suppliers, long-term cooperation suppliers and always requires updates of the most timely price fluctuations. Besides, cross-checks of prices are often done in order to ensure sufficient material sources at the most reasonable prices. With such price management policies, the Board of Management assesses that the Company's exposure to uncontrollable risks of changes in commodity prices is low.
