NOTES TO THE SEPARATE QUARTERLY FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FOR THE PERIOD ENDED 31 MARCH 2026

These notes form an integral part of and should be read in conjunction with the accompanying separate quarterly financial statements.

1 REPORTING ENTITY

(a) Ownership structure

Masan Group Corporation ("the Company") is a joint stock company incorporated in Vietnam.

(b) Principal activities

The principal activities of the Company include management consulting, investment consulting (except for finance, accounting, and legal consulting) and carrying out capital mobilisation and investment activities for the Company and the affiliates.

The Company holds the ownership of its direct subsidiaries, its indirect subsidiaries and its associates (together referred as the "affiliates") and through those subsidiaries to provide management consulting, and business operation management at other companies in the Group (referred to "the Company and its affiliates").

Revenue and income of the Company from management consulting and business operation management provided to the affiliates in the Group include the following income: dividend income from the Company's affiliates, interest income from loans provided to the Company's affiliates, gains from trading financial assets and gains from transfer of shares or capital contribution of the Company's affiliates and other legitimate income.

(c) Normal operating cycle

The normal operating cycle of the Company is generally within 12 months.

2 BASIS OF PREPARATION

(a) Statement of compliance

These separate quarterly financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Vietnamese Accounting Standards, the Vietnamese Accounting System for enterprises and the relevant statutory requirements applicable to quarterly financial reporting.

The Company prepares and issues its consolidated quarterly financial statements separately. For a comprehensive understanding of the consolidated financial position as at 31 March 2026 of the Company and its subsidiaries (collectively referred to as "the Group"), their consolidated results of operations and their consolidated cash flows for the period then ended, these separate quarterly financial statements should be read in conjunction with the consolidated quarterly financial statements of the Group for the period ended 31 March 2026.

(b) Basis of measurement

The separate quarterly financial statements, except for the separate statement of cash flows, are prepared on the accrual basis using the historical cost concept. The separate statement of cash flows is prepared using the indirect method.

The annual accounting period of the Company is from 1 January to 31 December. The separate quarterly financial statements are prepared for the period ended 31 March 2026.

(d) Accounting and presentation currency

The Company's accounting currency is Vietnam Dong ("VND"), which is also the currency used for separate financial statements presentation purpose.

3 ADOPTION OF NEW GUIDANCE ON ACCOUNTING SYSTEM FOR ENTERPRISES

On 27 October 2025, the Ministry of Finance issued Circular No. 99/2025/TT-BTC providing guidance on the Vietnamese Accounting System for Enterprises ("Circular 99"). Circular 99 replaces the previous guidance on Vietnamese Accounting System for Enterprises under Circular No. 200/2014/TT-BTC dated 22 December 2014 ("Circular 200") and other circulars amending and supplementing Circular 200. Circular 99 is effective from 1 January 2026 and applicable for annual accounting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2026.

The Company has adopted the applicable requirements of Circular 99 effective from 1 January 2026 on a prospective basis, unless Circular 99 stipulates otherwise. The significant changes to the Company's accounting policies and the effects on the consolidated quarterly financial statements, if any, are disclosed in the following notes to the financial statements.

- Foreign currency transactions (Note 4(a));
- Trading securities (Note 4(c)(i));
- Held-to-maturity investments (Note 4(c)(ii));
- Accounts receivable (Note 4(d));
- Dividends payable (Note 4(j)).

4 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The following significant accounting policies have been adopted by the Company in the preparation of these separate quarterly financial statements. The accounting policies that have been adopted by the Company in the preparation of these separate quarterly financial statements are consistent with those adopted in the preparation of the latest separate annual financial statements.

(a) Foreign currency transactions

Transactions in currencies other than VND during the period have been translated into VND at rates approximating actual rates of exchange ruling at the transaction dates.

Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in currencies other than VND, except for (i) (a part of) accounts receivable for which allowance for doubtful debts have been provided, (ii) demand deposits and (iii) borrowings that have been hedged by financial instruments against foreign currency risk, are translated into VND at the average of the account transfer buying rates and selling rates at the end of the accounting period quoted by the commercial bank where the Company most frequently conduct transactions.

Demand deposits denominated in currencies other than VND are translated into VND at the average of the account transfer buying rates and selling rates at the end of the accounting period quoted by the commercial bank where the Company maintains the demand deposit accounts.

All foreign exchange differences are recorded in the statement of income.

(b) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash comprises cash balances and call deposits. Cash equivalents are short-term highly liquid investments that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash, are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value, and are held for the purpose of meeting short-term cash commitments rather than for investment or other purposes.

(c) Investments

(i) Trading securities

Trading securities are bonds and certificates of deposits held by the Company for trading purpose i.e. purchased for resale with the aim of making profits over a short period of time.

Before 1 January 2026

Initial cost of a trading securities which includes purchase price plus any directly attributable transaction costs.

From 1 January 2026

Initial cost of a trading securities includes purchase price only. Any transactions costs are charged to the consolidated statement of income in the period in which the costs are incurred.

Subsequent to initial recognition, they are measured at cost less interest income for the period before investment acquisition date (when interest coupon is received during the holding period) and allowance for diminution in value. An allowance is made for diminution in value of trading securities if market price of the securities item falls below its carrying amount. The allowance is reversed if the market price subsequently increases after the allowance was recognised. An allowance is reversed only to the extent that the securities' carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that has been determined if no allowance had been recognised.

(ii) Held-to-maturity investments

Held-to-maturity investments are those that the Company's management has the intention and ability to hold until maturity. Held-to-maturity investments include term deposits at banks and loans receivables and deposits for investments. These investments are initially recognised at costs. Subsequent to initial recognition, the investments, whose interests are to be received in advance or at the maturity date, are measured at amortised costs less allowance for held-to-maturity investments. Any discount or premium are amortised on a straight-line basis over the term of the investments.

(iii) Investments in subsidiaries, an associate and equity investment in other entity

For the purpose of these separate financial statements, investments in subsidiaries and an associate are initially recognised at cost which includes purchase price plus any directly attributable transaction costs. Subsequent to initial recognition, these investments are stated at cost less allowance for impairment. An allowance is made for impairment of investments if the investee has suffered a loss which may cause the Company to lose its invested capital, unless there is evidence that the value of the investment has not been diminished. An allowance is not considered to be made for the investment when the Company may not lose its invested capital. The allowance is reversed if the investee subsequently made a profit that offsets the previous loss for which the allowance had been made. An allowance is reversed only to the extent that the investment's carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined if no allowance had been recognised.

(d) Accounts receivable

Trade and other receivables are stated at cost less allowance for doubtful debts. An allowance for doubtful debts is made for receivables that are overdue or deemed likely to be uncollectible.

The allowance for overdue trade and other receivables is calculated based on aging analysis and specific provisioning rates as below:

	Allowance percentage
Past due 6 months – 1 year	30%
Past due 1 – 2 years	50%
Past due 2 – 3 years	70%
Past due more than 3 years	100%

Trade and other receivables that are not past due but are assessed as unlikely to be collected based on available evidence at the end of the accounting period shall have an allowance provided on case-by-case basis.

(e) Tangible fixed assets

(i) Cost

Tangible fixed assets are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. The initial cost of a tangible fixed asset comprises its purchase price, including import duties, non-refundable purchase taxes and any directly attributable costs of bringing the asset to its working condition for its intended use, and the costs of dismantling and removing the asset and restoring the site on which it is located. Expenditure incurred after tangible fixed assets have been put into operation, such as repair, maintenance and overhaul cost, is charged to the separate statement of income in the period in which the cost is incurred. In situations where it can be clearly demonstrated that the expenditure has resulted in an increase in the future economic benefits expected to be obtained from the use of tangible fixed assets beyond their originally assessed standard of performance, the expenditure is capitalised as an additional cost of tangible fixed assets.

NOTES TO THE SEPARATE QUARTERLY FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FOR THE PERIOD

(e) Tangible fixed assets (continued)

(ii) Depreciation

Depreciation is computed on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of tangible fixed assets. The estimated useful lives are as follows:

- leasehold improvements 5 years
- office equipment 3 - 5 years
- motor vehicles 6 years

(f) Intangible fixed assets

Software

Cost of acquiring new software, which is not an integral part of the related hardware, is capitalised and treated as an intangible fixed asset. Software cost is amortised on a straight-line basis over a period ranging from 2 to 5 years.

(g) Construction in progress

Construction in progress represents the costs of software implementation which has not been fully completed or installed. No depreciation is provided for construction in progress during the period of construction, installation.

(h) Long-term deferred expenses

Tools and instruments

Tools and instruments include assets held for use by the Company in the normal course of business whose costs of individual items are less than VND30 million and therefore not qualified for recognition as fixed assets under prevailing regulation. Cost of tools and instruments are amortized on a straight-line basis over a period ranging from 2 to 3 years.

(i) Account payable and accruals

Trade and other payable to suppliers and other payables are stated at their costs.

(j) Dividends payable

Dividends payable are recognised at the date when the shareholders' right to receive the dividends is established and the obligation of the Company becomes unconditional.

(k) Bonds issued

Straight bonds

At initial recognition, straight bonds are measured at cost which comprises proceed from issuance net of issuance costs. Any discount, premium or issuance costs are amortized on a straight-line basis over the term of the bond.

Income tax on the profit or loss for the period comprises current and deferred tax. Income tax is recognized in the separate statement of income except to the extent that it relates to items recognized directly to equity, in which case it is recognized in equity.

Current tax is the expected tax payable on the taxable income for the period, using tax rates enacted at the end of the accounting period, and any adjustment to tax payable in respect of previous periods.

Deferred tax is provided using the balance sheet method, providing for temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for taxation purposes. The amount of deferred tax provided is based on the expected manner of realisation or settlement of the carrying amount of assets and liabilities using tax rates enacted or substantively enacted at the end of the accounting period.

A deferred tax asset is recognized only to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which the temporary difference can be utilised. Deferred tax assets are reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that the related tax benefit will be realised.

(m) Equity(i) *Share capital and share premium

Ordinary shares are recognised at issuance price less incremental costs directly attributable to the issue of shares, net of tax effects. Such costs are recognised as a deduction from share premium.

(ii) Preference shares

Non-redeemable preference shares are classified as equity, because they bear discretionary dividends, do not contain any obligation to deliver cash or other financial assets and do not require settlement in variable number of the Company's equity instruments. Discretionary dividends thereon are recognised as equity distributions on approval by the Company's shareholders.

(iii) Other capital

Agreements to issue a fixed number of shares in the future are recognized based on their fair values at the dates of the agreements under other capital if there are no other settlement alternatives.

(n) Financial income

Financial income comprises interest income from bank deposits, loan receivables, trading securities and deposits from investments; gains from disposals of investments; foreign exchange gains and others. Interest income is recognised on a time proportion basis with reference to the principal outstanding and the applicable interest rate. However, interest income is not recognised for held-to-maturity investments that have been provided allowance for impairment due to unlikelihood of recovery.

Financial expenses comprise interest expense on borrowings, bonds and deposits, amortised borrowing and bond issuance costs (collectively referred to as "borrowing costs"); losses from disposals of investments and foreign exchange losses.

Borrowing costs are recognised as an expense in the period in which they are incurred, except where the borrowing costs relate to borrowings in respect of the construction of qualifying assets, in which case the borrowing costs incurred during the period of construction are capitalised as part of the cost of the assets concerned

(p) Operating lease payments

Payments made under operating leases are recognised in the separate statement of income on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease. Lease incentives received are recognised as an integral part of the total lease expense, over the term of the lease.

(q) Related parties

Parties are considered to be related to the Company if one party has the ability, directly or indirectly, to control the other party or exercise significant influence over the other party in making financial and operating decisions, or where the Company and the other party are subject to common control or significant influence. Related parties may be individuals or corporate entities and include close family members of any individual considered to be a related party.

5 CHANGES IN ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES

All ordinary shares have a par value of VND10,000. Each share is entitled to one vote at meetings of the Company. Shareholders are entitled to receive dividends as declared from time to time. All ordinary shares are ranked equally with regard to the Company's residual assets. In respect of shares bought back by the Company, all rights are suspended until those shares are reissued.

In April 2024 ("the Closing Date"), the Company issued 74,576,470 converted dividend preference shares ("the CDPS") to BCC Meerkat, LLC and BCC Meerkat II, LLC (collectively referred to as "the Investors") at a price of VND85,000 per share which can be converted into the Company's ordinary shares at any time from the Closing date to the mandatory conversion date that is 10 years from the Closing date and at a 1:1 conversion ratio. No preferred dividend will be paid for the first five years, followed by a 10% preferred dividend of the par value of each outstanding CDPS per annum from the sixth year onwards. In connection with the issuance of the CDPS, the Company entered into the agreement with the Investors, pursuant to which the Company also undertakes with the Investors that it shall use its best effort to find a buyer for the Investors to sell its outstanding CDPS at the agreed price in the agreement when certain events occur or at the date that is 5 years and a half from the Closing Date. The Investors may elect to sell outstanding CDPS to any third party. In the event that the Investors fails to achieve the total proceeds as agreed in the agreement after deducting unqualified disposal of CDPS shares as agreed in the agreement, the Company shall do top-up cash for the Investors to achieve the target proceed as agreed in the agreement.
