Điều 3. Methods for voting on agenda items at the Congress.

Voting on issues at the Congress will be conducted in the following ways:

1. Direct voting using "Voting Cards": Shareholders/authorized representatives of shareholders participate in voting on issues requiring direct opinion at the meeting as stipulated in Clause 3, Article 2 of these Voting Regulations, by raising their "Voting Cards". For each voting issue, the Chairperson will ask the opinion of the shareholder/authorized representative of the shareholder in the following order: "Agree", "Disagree", "No opinion". For each issue requiring an opinion, the shareholder/authorized representative of the shareholder may only raise their Voting Card once. The voting results are determined by counting the number of "Agree", "Disagree", and "No opinion" Voting Cards. The vote counting committee will record the results and report them to the Chairperson for announcement of the voting results before the General Meeting.
2. Voting by "Voting Ballot": Voting on the contents of Clause 4, Article 2 of these Voting Regulations will be conducted by secret ballot, ensuring transparency and fairness. Shareholders/authorized representatives of shareholders will vote on the contents recorded in the Voting Ballot by selecting the option "Agree," "Disagree," or "No Opinion" for each item requiring an opinion.

Điều 4. Proceed with the vote.

1. Upon receiving the ballot, the shareholder /authorized representative must verify the total number of shares on the issued ballot . If the total number of shares stated on the issued ballot does not equal the total number of shares owned by that shareholder and/or their authorized representative , the shareholder /authorized representative must immediately notify the Ballot Counting Committee at the time of receiving the ballot .
2. Each shareholder /authorized representative of a shareholder has a total number of voting rights corresponding to the total number of voting shares they own and/or represent.
3. Each ballot contains a list of voting items. Shareholders mark an "X" or "✓" in the box corresponding to their opinion. In case of an error , the shareholder /authorized representative of the shareholder must not erase it but must request the Vote Counting Committee to issue a new ballot and must return the old ballot before receiving the new one .

Điều 5. Voting , counting votes, announcing vote counting results

1. The vote counting committee will conduct the vote counting according to the following regulations:
 - a. Inspect the ballot box before voting begins, ensuring it is empty, and seal the ballot box after inspection in the presence of shareholders/ authorized representatives of shareholders;
 - b. Voting begins when the distribution of ballots is complete and ends when the last shareholder/representative casts their vote into the ballot box .
 - c. The vote counting committee shall conduct the vote counting immediately after the voting ends, ensuring supervision by representatives of shareholders and/or the Supervisory Board; verify the validity of the ballots, record the results in the vote counting minutes ; and seal all ballots and hand them over to the presiding committee immediately after the vote counting is completed.

2. Prepare and announce the vote count report:

- a. The vote counting committee is responsible for preparing the vote counting report, and the head of the vote counting committee reads the report to the Congress.
- b. All work related to verification, recording, and announcement of vote counting results must be carried out honestly and accurately by the vote counting committee, which must be held accountable for those results.
- c. The vote counting committee is responsible for completing and ensuring that the vote counting report bears the full signatures of all committee members.
- d. The vote counting committee handed over the vote counting report to the Presiding Committee and the Secretariat to serve as the basis for finalizing the Congress meeting minutes and the Congress resolution.

Điều 6. Complaints regarding procedures and vote counting results.
