REGULATES:

Chapter I
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1. Scope of regulation

These Regulations provide for the conditions, procedures for conducting, and the rights and obligations of parties participating in the 2026 Annual General Meeting of Shareholders (the “Meeting”) of CMH Vietnam Group Joint Stock Company (the “Company”).

Article 2. Subjects of application

Shareholders, their authorized representatives attending the Meeting, and other participants shall comply with these Regulations.

Chapter II
RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF PARTICIPANTS IN THE MEETING

Article 3. Rights and obligations of shareholders / Authorized representatives attending the Meeting

3.1 Eligibility for attendance

Shareholders whose names appear on the consolidated list of securities holders entitled to exercise rights as of the record date of 20/03/2026, prepared by the Vietnam Securities Depository and Clearing Corporation, or their duly authorized representatives, are eligible to attend the Meeting.

3.2 Rights of eligible shareholders attending the Meeting

- 3.2.1 Attend the Meeting in person or to authorise another person in writing, using the Company's prescribed form, to attend and vote on their behalf at the Meeting. The authorised representative of a shareholder attending the Meeting shall not re-delegate such authority to another person to attend the Meeting.
- 3.2.2 The Organising Committee of the Meeting has publicly disclosed the entire agenda of the Meeting. Eligible shareholders or groups of shareholders are entitled to propose matters for inclusion in the agenda in accordance with applicable laws and the Company's Charter.
- 3.2.3 Shareholders or their authorised representatives have the right to express opinions on matters of the Meeting during the discussion session. Any shareholder or authorised representative wishing to speak must obtain the approval of the Chairperson and shall make brief and focused statements relevant to the approved agenda. Issues that have already been raised and addressed shall not be repeated to avoid duplication. Shareholders or their authorised representatives may also write their questions on question forms and submit them to the Secretariat of the Meeting.
- 3.2.4 To ensure time efficiency and effectiveness of the Meeting, shareholders or their authorised representatives wishing to speak shall register their intended questions in writing and submit them to the Secretariat of the Meeting.
- 3.2.5 Shareholders or their authorised representatives are entitled to vote on all matters within the authority of the Meeting in accordance with the Company's Charter. Each ordinary share shall carry 01 vote.
- 3.2.6 Shareholders are entitled to form groups to nominate candidates and to concentrate votes for candidates nominated by them. The number of candidates each group may nominate depends on the number of candidates decided by the Meeting and the shareholding ratio of each group.
- 3.2.7 Each shareholder or authorised representative attending the Meeting shall receive one Voting Ballot and one Ballot for election upon completion of registration procedures with the Shareholder Eligibility Verification Committee. The number of voting shares shall equal the total number of shares owned and/or represented under authorisation (if any).
- 3.2.8 At the Meeting, shareholders or their authorised representatives, after hearing reports on matters for approval, shall discuss and vote on each item by ballot under the direction of the Presidium and the Vote Counting Committee.
- 3.2.9 Shareholders or their authorised representatives arriving after the opening of the Meeting, after completing registration procedures, shall be entitled to attend and vote on the remaining items that have not yet been voted in accordance with the Meeting agenda. In such case, the Chairperson shall not be required to suspend the Meeting for such registration, and resolutions adopted prior to their arrival shall remain valid and unaffected

3.3 Obligations of shareholders attending the Meeting

- 3.3.1 Shareholders/their authorised representatives attending the Meeting must bring the following documents:
- For individual shareholders:

- + Original valid Citizen Identity Card/Identity Card or Passport.

In case an individual shareholder authorises another person to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders (GMS), the authorised person must bring:

- + Original valid Citizen Identity Card/Identity Card or Passport; and
- + A valid power of attorney in accordance with the Company's prescribed form.

- For institutional shareholders:

- + Certified copy of the Enterprise Registration Certificate/Establishment Decision (legally certified copy); and
- + Original valid Citizen Identity Card/Identity Card or Passport of the legal representative.

In case an institutional shareholder, or the legal representative or authorised representative of an institutional shareholder, has further authorised another person to attend the General Meeting, the authorised attendee shall additionally present:

- + Original valid Citizen Identity Card/Identity Card or Passport of the authorised person;
- + Certified copy of the Enterprise Registration Certificate/Establishment Decision (legally certified copy); and
- + A valid power of attorney in accordance with the Company's prescribed form bearing the organisation's seal.

3.3.2 Present all the above-mentioned documents to the Shareholder Eligibility Verification Committee and complete the procedures for registration to attend the Meeting.

3.3.3 During the course of the Meeting, shareholders or their authorised representatives shall comply with the direction of the Chairperson of the Meeting, behave in a civil and respectful manner, and shall not cause public disorder.

3.3.4 Strictly comply with these Regulations and respect the results of the Meeting.

3.3.5 Shareholders are strictly prohibited from engaging in acts violating security and order that affect the organisation of the General Meeting, including but not limited to the following:

- Wearing attire, using objects, symbols, gestures and/or making rude, provocative statements or language that insult the dignity or honour of individuals or organisations;
- Causing disorder within the meeting area or at the Company's premises;
- Disrupting or obstructing the normal operation of the Meeting;
- Inciting or provoking others to cause disorder, disturbance, or obstruction of the Meeting;
- Deliberately speaking or exchanging opinions without the approval of the Chairperson;
- Engaging in private conversations with other shareholders during the Meeting;
- Any other acts that directly or indirectly affect the organisation of the Meeting.

Article 4. Presidium and Chairperson of the Meeting

4.1 Introduction and approval of the Presidium, Chairperson

2. Assessment of the Company's performance in 2025

The audited financial statements for 2025 have been prepared in accordance with Vietnamese Accounting Standards and on the basis of appropriate supporting accounting documents. The audited financial statements present a true, fair, and reasonable view of the Company's performance in 2025.

The Company has complied with accounting regulations in accordance with applicable laws and accounting standards issued by the State. The financial statements are prepared using accounting software systems, and the Company's accounting records are systematically organized, clearly documented, and facilitate inspection and review. The Audit Committee agrees with and confirms the reported financial figures.

The Company has been proactive in mobilizing financial resources to ensure sufficient capital for its operations. Annual financial plans have been prepared and adjusted periodically in line with business requirements and operational conditions.

The Company has appropriately balanced its capital sources to implement investment activities in accordance with its operational situation and financial capacity.

The Board of Directors (BOD) and the Board of Management (BOM) have fully complied with applicable laws, the Company Charter, and resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders (GMS). All decisions issued by the BOD and BOM have been properly enacted in accordance with regulations.

In addition, the Audit Committee notes that the Board of Management has proactively managed business operations, implemented resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders and the Board of Directors, and promptly addressed issues arising during project implementation. The management and operation activities of the Board of Management in 2025 basically met governance requirements, contributing to stable operations and the achievement of the Company's business targets.

The BOD and BOM have also maintained effective communication channels and promptly addressed shareholders' inquiries regarding the Company's operations.

3. Activities of the Audit Committee in 2025

- Monitoring the implementation of approved resolutions of the GMS and compliance with applicable laws, the Company Charter, and internal regulations.
- Participating in meetings of the BOD.
- Conducting inspection and supervision, and providing timely recommendations for necessary adjustments to address shortcomings during task implementation.

4. Plan for 2026

In 2026, the Audit Committee will continue to perform its duties on behalf of shareholders in supervising the Company's business operations, governance, and management activities. Periodically, the Audit Committee will conduct inspections, analyses, and assessments of the Company's activities; attend meetings to monitor and evaluate operational performance in a timely and accurate manner; and provide warnings on potential risks (if any).

5. Recommendations

- Focus on seeking new contracts aligned with the Company's strategic direction and capabilities; ensure adequate working capital to minimize adverse impacts from domestic and international socio-economic fluctuations; further analyze factors that may affect business performance in order to develop contingency plans and more accurate planning targets.

- Cash flow management should be carefully reviewed and analyzed.
- The Company has appropriate plans to strengthen and enhance the capacity of its workforce to meet the requirements of the business plan
- Focus on payment and acceptance procedures to maximize capital recovery. Ensure a reasonable allocation of financial resources to optimize the cost of capital.
- Implement restructuring of existing investments and carry out new investments based on efficiency and risk mitigation.
- Respectfully./.

c) Voting ballots;

d) Draft resolutions for each issue on the agenda.

4. Shareholders or groups of shareholders as prescribed in clause 2, Article 12 of this Charter have the right to propose matters for inclusion in the agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders. Such proposals are made in writing and sent to the Company no later than 03 working days before the opening date of the meeting. The proposal must clearly state the name of the shareholder(s), the number of each type of shares held, and the matters proposed for inclusion in the agenda.

5. The convener of the General Meeting of Shareholders may refuse proposals specified in clause 4 of this Article if any of the following cases occurs:

a) The proposal is not submitted in accordance with clause 4 of this Article;

b) At the time of submission, the shareholder or group of shareholders does not hold at least 5% of ordinary shares as prescribed in clause 2, Article 12 of this Charter;

c) The proposed issue falls outside the authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders;

d) Other cases as prescribed by law and this Charter.

6. The convener of the General Meeting of Shareholders accepts and includes the proposals specified in clause 4 of this Article in the draft agenda and meeting contents, except for the cases specified in clause 5 of this Article; such proposals are officially included in the agenda and contents of the meeting if approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 19. Conditions for conducting the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. A General Meeting of Shareholders is conducted when shareholders attending the meeting represent more than 50% of the total voting shares.

2. Where the first meeting is not eligible to be conducted in accordance with clause 1 of this Article, the notice of the second meeting is sent within 30 days from the intended date of the first meeting. The second General Meeting of Shareholders is conducted when shareholders attending the meeting represent at least 33% of the total voting shares.

3. Where the second meeting is not eligible to be conducted in accordance with clause 2 of this Article, the notice of the third meeting must be sent within 20 days from the intended date of the second meeting. The third General Meeting of Shareholders is conducted regardless of the total number of voting shares of attending shareholders.

Article 20. Procedures for conducting meetings and voting at the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Before the opening of the meeting, the Company carries out shareholder registration procedures and continues registration until all eligible attending shareholders are registered in the following order:

a) Upon shareholder registration, the Company issues a voting card to each shareholder or authorized representative entitled to vote, which states the registration number, the full name of the shareholder, the full name of the authorized representative (if any), and the number of voting shares of such shareholder. The General Meeting of Shareholders discusses and votes on each issue included in the agenda. Voting is conducted by way of agree, disagree, and no opinion. At the meeting, ballots in favor of the resolution are collected first, followed by ballots against the resolution; finally, the total number of affirmative and negative votes is counted to determine the result. The vote counting result is announced by the Chairperson immediately before the closing of the meeting. The General Meeting elects persons responsible for vote counting or supervising vote counting upon the Chairperson's proposal. The number of members of the Vote Counting Committee is determined by the General Meeting of Shareholders based on the Chairperson's proposal;

b) Shareholders, authorized representatives of institutional shareholders, or duly authorized persons who arrive after the meeting has commenced are entitled to register immediately and, upon registration, are entitled to participate and vote at the General Meeting. The Chairperson is not responsible for suspending the meeting to allow late-arriving shareholders to register, and the validity of matters already voted upon shall not be affected.

2. The election of the Chairperson, Secretary, and Vote Counting Committee is regulated as follows:

a) The Chairperson of the Board of Directors acts as the Chairperson of the meeting or may authorize another member of the Board of Directors to act as Chairperson of the General Meeting of Shareholders convened by the Board of Directors. In case the Chairperson is absent or temporarily unable to perform duties, the remaining members of the Board of Directors shall elect one among them to act as Chairperson by majority vote. Where no Chairperson can be elected, an independent member of the Board of Directors belonging to the Audit Committee or one of the executive members of the Board of Directors shall preside to enable the General Meeting of Shareholders to elect a Chairperson from among the attendees, and the candidate receiving the highest number of votes shall be appointed as Chairperson of the meeting;

b) Except for the case specified at Point a of this Clause, the person signing the meeting invitation shall preside over the election of the Chairperson, and the candidate receiving the highest number of votes shall be appointed as Chairperson of the meeting;

c) The Chairperson appoints one or more persons to act as Secretary of the meeting;

d) The General Meeting of Shareholders elects one or more persons to the Vote Counting Committee upon the proposal of the Chairperson of the meeting.

3. The agenda and contents of the meeting must be approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders at the opening session. The agenda must clearly define and specify the time allocated for each issue included in the meeting agenda.

4. The Chairperson of the General Meeting has the right to take necessary and reasonable measures to conduct the meeting in an orderly manner, in accordance with the approved agenda, and to reflect the will of the majority of attendees.

a) Arranging seating at the General Meeting venue;

b) Ensuring safety for all persons present at the meeting venues;

c) Facilitating shareholders' attendance (or continued attendance) at the General Meeting. The convener has full discretion to modify the above measures and apply all necessary measures. The measures applied may include issuing admission passes or using other appropriate forms of access control.

5. The General Meeting of Shareholders discusses and votes on each matter in the agenda. Voting is conducted by way of agree, disagree, and no opinion. The vote counting results are announced by the Chairperson immediately before the closing of the meeting.

6. Shareholders or authorized representatives who arrive after the meeting has commenced are still entitled to register and, upon registration, are entitled to participate and vote immediately. In such cases, the validity of matters already voted upon shall remain unchanged.

7. The convener or Chairperson of the General Meeting of Shareholders has the following rights:

a) To require all attendees to undergo inspection or other lawful and reasonable security measures;

b) To request competent authorities to maintain order at the meeting; to remove from the meeting any persons who fail to comply with the Chairperson's instructions, intentionally disrupt order, obstruct the normal proceedings of the meeting, or fail to comply with security requirements.

8. The Chairperson has the right to adjourn a duly convened General Meeting of Shareholders for no more than 03 working days from the originally scheduled opening date, and may only adjourn or change the meeting venue in the following cases:

a) The venue does not have sufficient seating for all attendees;

b) Communication facilities at the venue are not adequate for shareholders to participate, discuss, and vote;

c) There is disorder or disruption caused by attendees that may prevent the meeting from being conducted in a fair and lawful manner.

9. Where the Chairperson adjourns or suspends the General Meeting of Shareholders in contravention of clause 8 of this Article, the General Meeting shall elect another attendee to replace the Chairperson to continue conducting the meeting until its conclusion; all resolutions adopted at such meeting shall remain valid and enforceable.

10. Where the Company applies modern technology to conduct the General Meeting of Shareholders in the form of an online meeting, the Company is responsible for ensuring shareholders' participation and voting through electronic voting or other electronic means in accordance with Article 144 of the Law on Enterprises and clause 3, Article 273 of Decree No. 155/2020/NĐ-CP dated 31/12/2020 of the Government prescribing detailed implementation of certain provisions of the Law on Securities.

Article 21. Conditions for approving Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. A resolution on the following matters is approved if agreed by shareholders representing at least 65% of the total voting shares of all attending shareholders, except for cases specified in clauses 3, 4, and 6 of Article 148 of the Law on Enterprises:

a) Types of shares and the total number of shares of each type;

b) Changes to the business lines and sectors;

c) Changes to the organizational and management structure of the Company;

d) Investment projects or sale of assets with a value equal to or greater than 03 (three) times the total asset value recorded in the Company's most recent financial statements, unless otherwise provided for in the Company's Charter in terms of a different ratio or value threshold;

đ) Reorganization or dissolution of the Company;

2. Resolutions are approved if approved by shareholders representing more than 50% of the total voting shares of all attending shareholders, except for the cases specified in clause 1 of this Article and clauses 3, 4, and 6 of Article 148 of the Law on Enterprises.

3. Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders adopted by 100% of the total voting shares are lawful and effective even if the procedures and formalities for convening the meeting and adopting such resolutions are not in compliance with the Law on Enterprises and the Company's Charter.

Article 22. Authority and procedures for collecting shareholders' written opinions to approve Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders

The authority and procedures for collecting written opinions of shareholders to approve resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders are as follows:

1. The Board of Directors has the right to collect written opinions of shareholders to approve resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders when deemed necessary in the interests of the Company, except for the case specified in clause 2, Article 147 of the Law on Enterprises.
2. The Board of Directors must prepare the voting form, the draft resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders, and explanatory documents for the draft resolution, and send them to all voting shareholders no later than 10 days prior to the deadline for returning the voting forms. The requirements and methods for sending the voting forms and accompanying documents are implemented in accordance with clause 3, Article 18 of this Charter.
3. The voting form must include the following principal contents:
 - a) Name, head office address, and enterprise registration number;
 - b) Purpose of collecting opinions;
 - c) Full name, contact address, nationality, and legal identification number of individual shareholders; name, enterprise registration number or legal identification number, and head office address of organizational shareholders; or full name, contact address, nationality, and legal identification number of the authorized representative of an organizational shareholder; number of shares of each class and voting shares of the shareholder;
 - d) Issues for which opinions are collected for approval;
 - đ) Voting options including agree, disagree, and no opinion for each issue;
 - e) Deadline for returning the completed voting form to the Company;
 - g) Full name and signature of the Chairperson of the Board of Directors.
4. Shareholders may submit completed voting forms to the Company by post, fax or email as follows:
 - a) In case of postal submission, the voting form must bear the signature of the individual shareholder, authorized representative, or legal representative of an organizational shareholder. The voting form sent to the Company must be sealed in an envelope and no one is permitted to open it before vote counting;
 - b) In case of fax or email submission, the voting form must be kept confidential until the time of vote counting;
 - c) The voting forms returned to the Company after the deadline specified in the voting form, or those that have been opened in the case of postal submission or disclosed in the case of fax or email submission, shall be invalid. Voting forms that are not returned shall be deemed as non-participating votes.
5. The Board of Directors conducts vote counting and prepares a vote counting report under the supervision of the Audit Committee or a shareholder who does not hold managerial positions in the Company. The vote counting report must include the following principal contents:
 - a) Name, head office address, and enterprise registration number;

- b) Purpose and issues for which opinions are collected for approval of the resolution;
- c) Number of shareholders with total voting shares having participated in the voting, distinguishing between valid votes and invalid votes, and the method of submitting voting forms, together with an appendix listing the shareholders participating in the voting;
- d) Total number of “agree” votes, “disagree” votes, and “no opinion” votes for each issue;
- d) Issues approved and corresponding approval ratios;
- e) Full name and signature of the Chairperson of the Board of Directors, vote counters, and vote supervisors.

Members of the Board of Directors, vote counters, and vote supervisors are jointly responsible for the truthfulness and accuracy of the vote counting report; and are jointly liable for damages arising from resolutions adopted as a result of dishonest or inaccurate vote counting.

6. The vote counting minutes and resolutions must be sent to shareholders within 15 days from the date of completion of vote counting. The sending of the vote counting minutes and resolutions may be replaced by publication on the Company’s website within 24 hours from the time of completion of vote counting.

7. Completed voting forms, vote counting minutes, adopted resolutions, and relevant documents attached to the voting forms must be retained at the Company’s head office.

8. A resolution approved through written consultation of shareholders is valid if approved by shareholders representing more than 50% of the total voting shares of all voting shareholders, and has the same validity as a resolution adopted at a General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 23. Resolutions and Minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders must be recorded in minutes and may be audio-recorded or stored in other electronic forms. The minutes must be prepared in Vietnamese and may also be prepared in a foreign language, and must include the following principal contents:

- a) Name, head office address, and enterprise registration number;
- b) Time and venue of the General Meeting of Shareholders;
- c) Meeting agenda and contents;
- d) Full name of the Chairperson and the Secretary;
- d) Summary of the meeting proceedings and opinions expressed at the General Meeting of Shareholders on each issue in the meeting agenda;
- e) Number of shareholders and total voting shares of attending shareholders, together with the appendix listing registered attending shareholders, shareholder representatives attending the meeting, and their corresponding shares and votes;
- g) Total voting results for each issue, clearly stating the voting method, total number of valid votes, invalid votes, “agree” votes, “disagree” votes, and “no opinion” votes; and the corresponding ratio to the total voting shares of attending shareholders;

h) Issues approved and corresponding approval ratios;

i) Full names and signatures of the Chairperson and the Secretary. In case the Chairperson or Secretary refuses to sign the minutes, the minutes remain valid if signed by all other attending members of the Board of Directors and containing all required contents under this Clause. The minutes must clearly state the refusal to sign by the Chairperson or Secretary.

2. The minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders must be completed and approved before the end of the meeting. The Chairperson and Secretary of the meeting, or other signatories of the minutes, are jointly responsible for the truthfulness and accuracy of the minutes.

3. Minutes prepared in Vietnamese and in a foreign language shall have equal legal validity. In case of any discrepancy between the Vietnamese and foreign language versions, the Vietnamese version shall prevail.

4. Resolutions, minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders, the appendix of the list of attending shareholders with signatures, powers of attorney for attendance, all documents attached to the minutes (if any), and related documents attached to the meeting invitation must be disclosed in accordance with securities disclosure regulations and retained at the Company's head office.

Article 24. Request for annulment of Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders Within 90 days from the date of receipt of the resolution or the minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders, or the vote counting minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders, a shareholder or group of shareholders specified in clause 2, Article 115 of the Law on Enterprises has the right to request a court or arbitration to review and cancel a resolution or part of a resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders in the following cases:

1. The procedures and formalities for convening the meeting and adopting the decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders seriously violate the provisions of the Law on Enterprises and the Company's Charter, except for the case specified in clause 3, Article 21 of this Charter

2. The contents of the resolution violate the law or this Charter.

VII. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Article 25. Nomination and candidacy for members of the Board of Directors

1. Where candidates for the Board of Directors have been identified, the Company shall disclose information relating to such candidates at least 10 days prior to the opening date of the General Meeting of Shareholders on the Company's website so that shareholders may review the candidates before voting. A candidate for the Board of Directors must provide a written commitment regarding the truthfulness and accuracy of the disclosed personal information and must commit to performing duties in a honest, prudent manner and in the best interests of the Company if elected as a member of the Board of Directors. Information relating to candidates for the Board of Directors includes:

a) Full name, date, month, and year of birth;

- b) Professional qualifications;
 - c) Working history;
 - d) Other managerial positions held (including Board memberships in other companies);
 - d) Interests related to the Company and its related parties;
 - e) Other information (if any) as prescribed in the Company's Charter;
 - g) The Company is responsible for disclosing information on companies in which the candidate holds positions as a Board member or other managerial positions, and any interests related to such companies (if any).
2. Shareholders or groups of shareholders holding from 10% or more of the total ordinary shares, or a smaller percentage as provided in the Company's Charter, have the right to nominate candidates for the Board of Directors in accordance with the Law on Enterprises and the Company's Charter.
3. Where the number of candidates for the Board of Directors nominated or self-nominated is still insufficient in accordance with clause 5, Article 115 of the Law on Enterprises, the incumbent Board of Directors may introduce additional candidates or organize nominations in accordance with the Company's Charter, the company's Internal Governance Regulations, and the Regulations on the operation of the Board of Directors. The introduction of additional candidates by the incumbent Board of Directors must be clearly disclosed prior to the vote for election of Board members at the General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with law.
4. Members of the Board of Directors must satisfy the standards and conditions prescribed in Article 155 of the Law on Enterprises and the Company's Charter; they are not required to be shareholders of the Company. A member of the Board of Directors of the Company may concurrently serve as a member of the Board of Directors in up to a maximum of 05 other companies.

Article 26. Composition and term of members of the Board of Directors

1. The Board of Directors consists of 05 (five) members.
2. The term of the Board of Directors is 05 years. The term of a member of the Board of Directors shall not exceed 05 years and such member may be re-elected for an unlimited number of terms. An individual may be elected as an independent member of the Board of Directors of the Company for no more than 02 consecutive terms. Where all members of the Board of Directors simultaneously end their terms, such members shall continue to perform their duties until new members are elected to replace them and assume their responsibilities.

3. The structure of the Board of Directors is as follows:

The structure of the Company's Board of Directors must ensure that at least 1/3 of the total members are non-executive members. The Company shall minimize the number of Board members concurrently holding executive positions in order to ensure the independence of the Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors must include at least 01 independent member. An individual may be elected as an independent member of the Board of Directors of the Company for no more than 02 consecutive terms and must satisfy the standards and conditions prescribed in clause 2, Article 155 of the Law on Enterprises.

4. A member of the Board of Directors ceases to hold such position if removed, dismissed, or replaced by the General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with Article 160 of the Law on Enterprises.

5. The appointment of members of the Board of Directors must be disclosed in accordance with securities and securities market disclosure regulations.

6. Members of the Board of Directors are not required to be shareholders of the Company.

7. In the event that a member of the Board of Directors loses his/her eligibility in accordance with law and the Company's Charter, is removed, dismissed, or for any reason is unable to continue serving as a member of the Board of Directors, the Board of Directors may appoint a replacement member to temporarily perform the duties of such member until the General Meeting of Shareholders elects a new member. The election of a new member of the Board of Directors shall be conducted at the nearest General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 27. Rights and obligations of the Board of Directors

1. The Board of Directors is the management body of the Company, having full authority on behalf of the Company to decide and exercise the rights and obligations of the Company, except for matters under the authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

2. The rights and obligations of the Board of Directors are defined by law, the Company's Charter, and the General Meeting of Shareholders. Specifically, the Board of Directors has the following rights and obligations:

- a) To decide the development strategy, medium-term development plan, and annual business plan of the Company;
- b) To propose the types of shares and the total number of shares of each type permitted to be offered for sale;
- c) To decide the sale of unissued shares within the number of shares permitted to be offered for sale of each type; to decide on capital mobilization in other forms;
- d) To decide the offering price of shares and bonds of the Company;

- e) To decide investment plans and investment projects within its authority and limits in accordance with law;
- g) To decide solutions for market development, marketing, and technology;

h) To approve contracts for purchase, sale, borrowing, lending, and other contracts and transactions (including procedures for implementing investment projects and related contracts) with a value of 35% or more of the total assets recorded in the most recent financial statements of the Company, excluding contracts and transactions under the authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders as provided in Point d, Clause 1, Article 15 of this Charter. For the remaining value under the authority of the General Director, based on its authority and depending on the Company's business situation, the General Director may assign, delegate, or re-delegate authority.

i) To elect, remove, or dismiss the Chairperson of the Board of Directors; to appoint, remove, sign contracts with, and terminate contracts with the General Director and other key managers as defined in the Company's Charter; to decide salaries, remuneration, bonuses, and other benefits for such managers; to appoint authorized representatives to participate in members' councils or general meetings of shareholders in other companies, and to decide their remuneration and other benefits;

k) To supervise and direct the General Director and other managers in the daily business operations of the Company;

l) To decide the organizational structure and internal management regulations of the Company; to decide on the establishment of subsidiaries, branches, representative offices, and on capital contribution or share acquisition in other enterprises;

m) To approve the agenda and meeting materials for the General Meeting of Shareholders, and to convene the General Meeting of Shareholders or collect opinions for approval of resolutions;

n) To submit the annual audited financial statements to the General Meeting of Shareholders;

o) To propose dividend levels; to decide the timing and procedures for dividend payment or handling business losses;

p) To propose corporate restructuring, dissolution; to request bankruptcy of the Company;

q) To issue the Regulations on the Board of Directors' operation and internal corporate governance regulations after approval by the General Meeting of Shareholders; to issue the Regulations on the Audit Committee under the Board of Directors and the Company's information disclosure regulations;

s) Other rights and obligations in accordance with the Law on Enterprises, the Law on Securities, other applicable laws, and the Company's Charter.

3. The Board of Directors shall report to the General Meeting of Shareholders on its performance in accordance with Article 280 of Decree No. 155/2020/ND-CP dated 31/12/2020 of the Government detailing certain provisions of the Law on Securities..

Article 28. Remuneration, bonuses, and other benefits of members of the Board of Directors

1. The Company is entitled to pay remuneration and bonuses to members of the Board of Directors based on business performance and efficiency.

2. Members of the Board of Directors are entitled to remuneration for their work and bonuses. Work remuneration is calculated based on the number of working days required to complete the duties of a Board member and the daily remuneration rate. The Board of Directors estimates the remuneration for each member on a consensus basis. The total remuneration and bonuses of the Board of Directors are decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders at the annual meeting.
3. Remuneration of each Board member is accounted for as a business expense of the Company in accordance with corporate income tax laws, presented as a separate item in the Company's annual financial statements, and reported to the General Meeting of Shareholders at the annual meeting.
4. Members of the Board of Directors holding executive positions, members of the Board of Directors working in sub-committees of the Board of Directors, or performing other work outside the normal scope of a Board member may receive additional remuneration in the form of a lump-sum payment per assignment, salary, commission, profit-sharing percentage, or other forms as decided by the Board of Directors.
5. Members of the Board of Directors are entitled to reimbursement of all reasonable travel, meal, accommodation, and other expenses incurred in the performance of their duties, including expenses incurred for attending meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders, the Board of Directors, or its committees.
6. Members of the Board of Directors may be covered by liability insurance purchased by the Company upon approval of the General Meeting of Shareholders. Such insurance does not cover liabilities of Board members related to violations of law or the Company's Charter.

Article 29. Chairperson of the Board of Directors

1. The Chairperson of the Board of Directors is elected, removed, or dismissed by the Board of Directors from among its members.
2. The Chairperson of the Board of Directors is not permitted to concurrently hold the position of General Director.
3. The Chairperson of the Board of Directors has the following rights and obligations:

5. The Chairperson of the Board of Directors must convene a meeting of the Board of Directors within 07 working days from the date of receipt of the request specified in Clause 3 of this Article. If the Chairperson fails to convene the meeting as requested, he/she shall be responsible for any damage caused to the Company; the requesting party has the right to convene the meeting in place of the Chairperson.

6. The Chairperson or the person convening the meeting must send the meeting invitation at least 03 working days before the meeting date. The invitation must specify the time, venue, agenda, and matters for discussion and decision. It must be accompanied by meeting materials and voting ballots of members.

The invitation may be sent by letter, telephone, fax, electronic means, or other methods prescribed in the Company's Charter, provided that it is delivered to the registered contact address of each Board member..

7. A meeting of the Board of Directors may be conducted when at least 3/4 of the total members attend. If the first meeting does not meet the attendance requirement, a second meeting may be convened within 07 days from the intended date of the first meeting. In this case, the meeting may proceed if more than half of the Board members attend.

8. A member of the Board of Directors is considered present and voting in the following cases:

- a) Direct attendance and voting at the meeting;
- b) Authorizing another person to attend and vote in accordance with clause 11 of this Article;
- c) Attending and voting via online meeting, electronic voting, or other electronic means;
- d) Sending votes to the meeting via post, fax, or email;
- d) Sending votes by other means as provided in the Company's Charter.

9. Where votes are sent via mail, the voting ballots must be placed in sealed envelopes and delivered to the Chairperson of the Board of Directors at least 01 hour before the opening of the meeting. Ballots shall be opened only in the presence of all attendees.

10. Where votes are sent via mail, the voting ballots must be placed in sealed envelopes and delivered to the Chairperson of the Board of Directors at least 01 hour before the opening of the meeting. Ballots shall be opened only in the presence of all attendees.

11. Resolutions and decisions of the Board of Directors are approved if agreed by a majority of attending members; in case of a tie, the decision of the side with the Chairperson's opinion shall prevail.

12. The Board of Directors may collect written opinions from its members via electronic mail (email) or other electronic means in accordance with the Company's internal governance regulations and applicable laws.

Article 31. Sub-committees of the Board of Directors

1. The Board of Directors may establish sub-committees responsible for development policy, personnel, remuneration, internal audit, and risk management. The number of members of each sub-committee is decided by the Board of Directors, with a minimum of 03 members, including members of the Board of Directors and external members. Independent members of the Board of Directors/non-executive members should constitute the majority of each sub-committee, and one of these members shall be appointed as the Chair of the sub-committee in accordance with a decision of the Board of Directors. The operation of each sub-committee must comply with the regulations of the Board of Directors. Resolutions of a sub-committee are valid only when approved by a majority of attending and voting members at a sub-committee meeting..

2. The implementation of decisions of the Board of Directors or its sub-committees must comply with applicable laws, the Company's Charter, and the Company's Internal Governance Regulations.

Article 32. Person in charge of corporate governance

PROPOSAL

Re: Proposal on participation in investment in technical infrastructure construction project of Kim Son Industrial Cluster

To: General Meeting of Shareholders of CMH Vietnam Group Joint Stock Company

- Pursuant to the Law on Enterprises No. 59/2020/QH14 dated 17 June 2020 and its amendments and supplements;
- Pursuant to the Law on Securities No. 54/2019/QH14 dated 26 November 2019 and its amendments and supplements;
- Pursuant to the Charter of CMH Vietnam Group Joint Stock Company.

The Board of Directors respectfully submits to the General Meeting of Shareholders for consideration and approval the Company's policy to participate, in cooperation with a partner, in the Investment Project for the Construction of Technical Infrastructure of Kim Son Industrial Cluster, with the following key information:

I. Project overview

- Project name: Investment Project for the Construction of Technical Infrastructure of Kim Son Industrial Cluster
- Location: Kim Son Commune (currently Phu Son Commune), Gia Lam District, Hanoi City
- Project scale: Area of approximately 72 hectares
- Total estimated investment: 1,288,362,308,000 VND (In words: One trillion two hundred eighty-eight billion, three hundred sixty-two million, three hundred eight thousand Vietnamese dong)
 - Proposed capital structure:
 - + Investor's own capital: 193,254,346,200 VND (15% of total investment)
 - + Bank loans/other mobilized capital: 1,095,107,961,800 VND (85% of total investment)
- Form of investment participation:
 - + The Company expects to participate in the Project in cooperation with KS Investment Joint Stock Company;
 - + In the event that the Project is approved by competent authorities, the parties shall establish an Economic Organization to implement the Project.
- Proposed capital contribution ratio in the Economic Organization:
 - + CMH Vietnam Group Joint Stock Company: holding 70% of the charter capital (equivalent to approximately 135,278,042,340 VND);
 - + KS Investment Joint Stock Company: holding 30% of the charter capital (equivalent to approximately 57,976,303,860 VND).
- Project implementation schedule: The expected implementation period is 24 months from the date on which the competent authority issues the decision on establishment of the industrial cluster and concurrently designates the Project Investor; specifically, expected completion in Quarter IV 2027.

- Project term: A maximum of 50 years from the date on which the competent authority issues the decision on land allocation/land lease/change of land use purpose in accordance with applicable laws.

The participation in the Project is consistent with the Company's development orientation in technical infrastructure investment and construction, and contributes to enhancing construction and project management capabilities, expanding business scale, improving capital efficiency, increasing corporate value, and strengthening the Company's market position.

II. Proposals and recommendations for approval by the General Meeting of Shareholders

The Board of Directors respectfully proposes that the General Meeting of Shareholders consider and approve the following:

1. Approval of the above-mentioned investment policy for the Project;
2. Approval of the Project investment plan in the form of capital contribution to establish an Economic Organization for Project implementation, with the Company holding 70% of the charter capital of such Economic Organization;
3. Authorization for the Board of Directors to adjust the Company's capital contribution in the Project's Economic Organization within $\pm 10\%$ of the total expected capital contribution approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

PROPOSAL

Re: Approval of the policy on divestment/reduction of equity capital contributions of the Company in CM Investment and Trading Joint Stock Company (Enterprise code:
0104075049) and Construction Environment Joint Stock Company (Enterprise code: 6400308865)

To: General Meeting of Shareholders of CMH Vietnam Group Joint Stock Company

- Pursuant to the Law on Enterprises No. 59/2020/QH14 dated 17 June 2020 and its amendments and supplements;
 - Pursuant to the Law on Securities No. 54/2019/QH14 dated 26 November 2019 and its amendments and supplements;
 - Pursuant to Decree No. 155/2020/ND-CP dated 31 December 2020 of the Government providing detailed implementation of certain provisions of the Law on Securities;
 - Pursuant to the Charter of CMH Vietnam Group Joint Stock Company;
 - Based on the Company's actual needs and development orientation.
1. Information on the equity investments proposed for divestment/reduction
- 1.1. Capital contribution investment in Construction Environment Joint Stock Company
- Enterprise code: 6400308865
 - Head office address: Hamlet 11, Nhan Co Commune, Dak R'lap District, Dak Nong Province, Vietnam
 - Charter capital: 50,000,000,000 VND
 - Value of the Company's capital contribution: 34,219,000,000 VND (equivalent to 68.44% ownership)
 - Initial investment value: 41,924,570,000 VND
- 1.2. Capital contribution investment in CM Investment and Trading Joint Stock Company
- Enterprise code: 0104075049
 - Head office address: Lot 60, Area A ĐG CDD, 3-hectare land plot, Phuc Dien Ward, Ha Noi
 - Charter capital: 21,030,000,000 VND
 - Value of the Company's capital contribution: 21,030,000,000 VND (equivalent to 100% ownership)
 - Initial investment value: 21,030,000,000 VND

2. Assessment of the investment status

- The above equity investments are no longer aligned with CMH Group's current strategic development direction, particularly in the context of focusing resources on key real estate and construction projects.
- Capital utilization efficiency has not met expectations and has not fully realized the investment value.
- Maintaining these capital contributions may disperse financial resources and adversely affect the Company's overall capital efficiency.

3. Necessity of divestment/reduction

- To restructure the investment portfolio and focus on core business areas.
- To recover capital for reinvestment in key projects.
- To enhance capital efficiency and optimize shareholders' interests.

4. Implementation

Respectfully submitted to the General Meeting of Shareholders for consideration and approval is the divestment/reduction of all or part of the Company's contributed capital in the above-mentioned companies, and the authorization of the Board of Directors to:

- a) Organize the revaluation of the Company's capital contributions in the above-mentioned companies in accordance with applicable regulations.
- b) Determine the appropriate timing and method for divestment/reduction of capital (including but not limited to share transfer, auction sale,... or other methods as prescribed by law).
- c) Decide on the quantity/value of the equity interests to be divested/reduced in the above-mentioned companies; the transfer price; the method of transfer; and the transferee...
