APPENDIX ATTACHED TO THE MINUTES OF THE MEETING

1. How does the Company assess the risks arising from fluctuations in raw material and energy prices amid current global volatility?

Dear Shareholders,

Fluctuations in raw material and energy prices represent one of the key risks for the building materials manufacturing industry in general and for the Company in particular, as input costs (clay, feldspar, fuel, electricity, etc.) account for a significant proportion of product costs. In the context where global energy and raw material prices remain unpredictable, such risks may directly affect the Company's profit margins and operational efficiency.

In response, the Company has been proactively implementing various measures, including optimizing material consumption norms, improving equipment operational efficiency, diversifying supply sources, strengthening negotiations with suppliers to stabilize input prices, and gradually transitioning to renewable energy sources to reduce dependence on traditional energy. In addition, the Company flexibly adjusts its product mix and pricing policies in line with market developments to mitigate adverse impacts.

2. What measures is the Company taking to address competition in the ceramic tile industry?

Dear Shareholders,

The ceramic tile industry is currently highly competitive, with participation from numerous domestic and international enterprises. In this context, enhancing competitiveness is identified as a key factor for maintaining and expanding market share.

The Company focuses on implementing key solution groups, including:

- (i) investing in technology and product innovation to improve quality and develop high value-added product lines;
- (ii) restructuring the product portfolio toward optimization and alignment with market demand;
- (iii) expanding and improving the quality of the distribution system, particularly project channels and export markets;
- (iv) strengthening marketing activities and brand development; and
- (v) controlling costs and enhancing operational efficiency to maintain cost competitiveness.

In addition, the Company places emphasis on improving customer service quality and developing a highly skilled workforce to create differentiation and enhance customer value. These solutions are implemented in a synchronized manner to enable the Company to adapt flexibly to market conditions and achieve sustainable long-term growth.

3. After transferring the project of Factory No. 1 at Pho Anh Dung, Thanh Mieu Ward, Phu Tho, what are the Company's investment orientations in the coming period?

Dear Shareholders,

Following the transfer, the Company will focus its resources on core business areas while prioritizing projects with high efficiency, quick capital recovery, and alignment with its sustainable development strategy. In addition, the Company will continue to carefully and selectively explore new investment opportunities to enhance competitiveness and create long-term value for shareholders.

4. Will the Company pay dividends this year? What is the future direction of its dividend policy?

Dear Shareholders,

In 2025, the Company did not pay dividends in order to prioritize financial resources for business operations, operational restructuring, and investments in projects, particularly those aimed at enhancing production capacity and optimizing operational efficiency.

Looking ahead, the Company will balance reinvestment needs with shareholders' interests. When business performance improves, cash flows stabilize, and key financial targets are achieved, the Company will consider reinstating dividend payments at an appropriate level. At the same time, the Company aims to establish a stable and sustainable dividend policy aligned with operational performance and long-term development strategy, thereby ensuring a harmonious balance between shareholder interests and corporate growth.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND EXECUTIVE MANAGEMENT
ON THE COMPANY'S PERFORMANCE IN 2025 AND PLAN FOR 2026*To: General Meeting of Shareholders of CMC Joint Stock Company

The Board of Directors of CMC Joint Stock Company respectfully submits to the Shareholders' Meeting the report of the Board of Directors ("BOD") and the Executive Management ("Management") on the business performance in 2025 and the plan for 2026 as follows:

I. ASSESSMENT OF THE COMPANY'S PERFORMANCE IN 20251. General economic context

The finishing building materials industry is closely linked and heavily dependent on developments in the real estate market and construction investment activities. In 2025, Vietnam's economy continued to gradually recover and is expected to provide a foundation for growth in the following period. In particular, the real estate market is anticipated to experience positive changes thanks to improvements in the legal environment, growth momentum from economic expansion, and a gradual restoration of investor confidence.

Notably, a series of important legal documents related to land, housing, real estate business, investment, and planning—such as the Land Law, Housing Law, Real Estate Business Law, Investment Law, and Planning Law—have been amended, supplemented, and officially taken effect. These policies are expected to create a more synchronized and transparent legal framework, thereby helping to remove obstacles, unlock resources, and generate a new "driving force" for the recovery and development of the real estate market.

In addition, rapid urbanization, along with increasing investment demand in infrastructure and civil construction, continues to be fundamental factors supporting the growth of the building materials industry. In the medium and long term, the industry is forecast to maintain positive growth, with stable and increasing demand, estimated at over 10% per year over the next 10–20 years.

In this context, the building materials industry is facing significant opportunities to restructure toward higher-quality growth. This is a critical time for enterprises to proactively innovate their product portfolios, enhance competitiveness, strengthen cooperation with domestic and international partners, and gradually transform their operating models toward efficiency and sustainable development.

2. Overview of CMC Joint Stock Company's business segments

- In the context of the building materials market gradually recovering, along with improvements in the real estate and construction investment sectors, CMC Joint Stock Company's core business segments are assessed to have positive growth prospects in the medium and long term.

- For the brick and tile manufacturing and trading segment—the Company's core business—market demand is expected to remain stable and trend upward, driven by urbanization, infrastructure development, and residential construction demand. In addition, the shift toward high-quality, environmentally friendly, and aesthetically improved products is becoming increasingly evident, creating opportunities for companies with strong manufacturing capabilities and technological investment such as CMC to expand market share and enhance product value.

- Regarding export markets, countries in the region such as Indochina, the Philippines, South Korea, and Taiwan continue to represent potential markets with stable demand for brick and tile products. Leveraging advantages in production costs, product quality, and gradually building brand presence in international markets will be key factors enabling the Company to expand its scale and improve export efficiency.

- Alongside these favorable conditions, the Company's business segments also face several challenges, including increasing competition, fluctuations in input costs, and increasingly stringent requirements on quality and environmental standards. However, with a stable production foundation, a clear development orientation, and strong adaptability, CMC is well positioned to seize market opportunities, maintain growth, and strengthen its industry position.

3. Assessment of the Company's performance in 2025

Despite operating in a challenging economic environment, the leadership and all employees of CMC Joint Stock Company have made continuous efforts, proactively and flexibly adapting to market fluctuations. Through the synchronous implementation of management solutions, optimization of available resources, and effective exploitation of business opportunities, the Company has gradually strengthened its operational foundation, maintained stable production and business activities, and created a basis for future expansion and improved operational quality.

In 2025, the Company continued to maintain its National Brand status with the following products: CMC ceramic tiles, PRATO ceramic tiles, and GALAXY premium glazed ceramic roof tiles.

On that basis, the Company's production and business results in 2025 are presented through the following key indicators:

Results of implementation in 2025 compared to 2024

Unit: VND billion

| No. | Indicator | 2024 | 2025 | % Increase/Decrease |
|-----|--|---------|---------|------------------------|
| 1 | Total assets | 3.334,6 | 3.149,9 | - 5,5% |
| 2 | Equity | 970,5 | 1.019,7 | +5,1% |
| 3 | Revenue from sales and service provision | 1.872,3 | 2.246,1 | 20,0% |
| 4 | Net revenue | 1.711,8 | 2.114,5 | 23,5% |
| 5 | Profit before tax | 84,5 | 84,1 | -0,51% |
| 6 | Profit after tax | 59,82 | 50,0 | -16.5% |

As of 31 December 2025, the Company's total assets reached VND 3,149.9 billion, down 5.54% compared to 2024; equity reached VND 1,019.7 billion, increasing by 5.1% compared to 2024.

In 2025, Vietnam's economy in general continued to face various difficulties and challenges, including macroeconomic fluctuations and impacts from the real estate sector. In this context, the Company's production and business activities were also affected:

- In 2025, sales volume of CMC's product lines continued to grow compared to 2024, reaching a total of 20.5 million m², an increase of 14.5% year-on-year. Among them, Semi Porcelain and Ceramic tiles continued to account for a large proportion, contributing 69% of total sales volume. Notably, the Semi Porcelain product line recorded strong growth in 2025, reaching 8.7 million m², accounting for 42% of total consumption, reflecting a clear market shift and positive customer acceptance. In addition, the Ceramic segment also recorded positive growth, reaching nearly 5.4 million m², up 35% compared to 2024, driven by product standardization and competitive advantages.

- The Company's total revenue in 2025 reached VND 2,246 billion, completing 112% of the annual plan and reaching 120% compared to 2024. Despite a challenging market environment where many peer companies experienced significant revenue declines, CMC's ability to maintain approximately 20% revenue growth compared to 2024 is considered a positive highlight, demonstrating its resilience and adaptability.

- Profit after tax in 2025 reached VND 50 billion, equivalent to 78.3% of the annual plan and 83.6% compared to 2024. In a challenging market context, CMC still achieved revenue growth thanks to organizational streamlining, operational optimization, and improved production efficiency. Tight cost control and the application of technology in management and production helped the Company improve profit margins, affirm its competitive position, and create a solid foundation for sustainable development. However, the failure to meet profit targets and the decline compared to the previous year was mainly due to a decrease in financial income from subsidiaries.

4. Activities of the Board of Directors (BOD)

In 2025, the Board of Directors comprised five (05) members, including one (01) independent member, the BOD members were elected by the General Meeting of Shareholders (“GMS”) and continued to serve for the 2021–2026 term.

The Chairman of the BOD was elected by the BOD. The BOD consistently ensured compliance with requirements on the number, standards, and qualifications of board members in accordance with the Company’s Charter from time to time. The BOD has not established any sub-committees.

The BOD’s activities were maintained in accordance with the Company’s Charter and Internal Governance Regulations. Responsibilities were clearly assigned to each member to review matters within the authority of the BOD, enabling informed decision-making, while also supervising, directing, and urging the Executive Management to implement BOD resolutions and decisions.

All BOD meetings were convened and conducted in compliance with regulations, ensuring required participation of board members and adherence to proper procedures. All voting contents achieved a high level of consensus.

- Marketing and customer development activities were implemented in a systematic and synchronized manner, focusing on strengthening brand recognition and expanding market coverage. III. STRATEGIC DIRECTION FOR 2026

Macroeconomic context with multiple challenges

The year 2026 marks a pivotal milestone in the nation's development era, targeting double-digit economic growth. In 2026, Vietnam aims for GDP growth of 10% or higher, along with inflation control at around 4.5% and an increase in GDP per capita to USD 5,400–5,500. This is an ambitious target, marking a transition to a high-growth phase and laying the foundation for the 2026–2030 development strategy.

However, particularly from March 2026 onward, the Vietnamese economy is also significantly affected by instability and conflicts in the Middle East. Constraints in energy supply and rising oil prices have led to increases in commodity prices, thereby impacting the overall economy.

Situation of the building materials sector and brick manufacturing industry

In 2026, the building materials sector in general and the brick and tile manufacturing industry in particular are forecast to continue operating in a volatile environment with both challenges and opportunities.

Challenges: Although the real estate and construction markets—the main drivers of the industry—show signs of recovery, the recovery remains uneven and unstable. Increasing interest rates also cause fluctuations in consumption demand. In addition, intensified competition from domestic enterprises and imported low-cost products puts pressure on profit margins. Input costs, including raw materials, energy, and logistics, remain at risk of rising due to geopolitical instability, directly affecting business efficiency.

Furthermore, stricter environmental, energy efficiency, and sustainable development standards require enterprises to increase investment in technology and process improvement. Changing consumer trends, with increasing preference for high-quality, eco-friendly, and aesthetic products, also require innovation in product development and R&D capabilities. In addition, the industry's production-consumption cycle creates pressure on cash flow and inventory management if not properly controlled.

Opportunities: Alongside these challenges, the industry also benefits from several favorable factors. Public investment and infrastructure development policies continue to be strongly promoted, driving demand for construction materials. Residential construction demand, especially in urban and semi-urban areas, remains stable. Export opportunities in regional markets continue to expand, particularly for companies with strong manufacturing capabilities and products meeting international standards.

The trend toward high-quality, environmentally friendly construction materials also creates opportunities for companies with sustainable development orientation to enhance competitiveness. At the same time, the application of technology, automation, and digital transformation in production and management opens up significant potential for cost optimization and operational efficiency improvement. Ongoing industry restructuring also creates opportunities for well-managed and financially strong enterprises to expand market share.

Based on the above challenges and opportunities, the Company's orientation for 2026 is defined as follows:

1. 2026 Strategic direction

Based on the continuity of previous strategic directions, the Company will focus on key strategic priorities toward efficiency improvement, selective expansion, and enhanced growth quality, as follows:

- Enhancing production efficiency and optimizing costs in depth: Instead of focusing on expanding scale, in 2026 CMC will prioritize optimizing efficiency based on existing capacity through technology upgrades toward energy saving, reducing raw material loss, and increasing labor productivity. The Company will continue to improve its production management system in the direction of digitalization and lean operation, while promoting R&D activities to develop higher value-added products in line with market trends. The focus is on improving profit margins and enhancing asset utilization efficiency.

- Selective revenue growth and improving market quality: CMC aims to restructure its product portfolio toward high-efficiency product lines, while improving the quality of its distribution system. The project sales channel will continue to be prioritized to ensure stable output, while export activities will be selectively promoted, focusing on markets with higher profit margins and sustainable growth potential. At the same time, the Company will gradually build its brand presence in target markets instead of focusing solely on volume expansion.

- Strengthening governance foundation and organizational capability:

In 2026, CMC will continue to improve its governance system toward transparency, flexibility, and efficiency, combined with clear decentralization and delegation to enhance operational autonomy. Organizational restructuring will continue toward a leaner model, improving workforce quality and execution efficiency. At the same time, the Company will strengthen corporate culture aligned with performance and accountability, creating a foundation for long-term sustainable development.

- Proactive, united, and flexible response to macroeconomic challenges and business fluctuations:

The Company will enhance macroeconomic forecasting capabilities, including commodity prices, interest rates, and exchange rates. Proactive preventive measures will be implemented to minimize impacts on production and business activities and corporate objectives. At the same time, the Board of Directors and Executive Management will actively capture and convert emerging opportunities in the evolving environment.

- Examined the legality and procedural compliance of the resolutions and decisions of the BOD and Executive Board to ensure adherence to legal regulations and the Company's Charter.
- Supervised the BOD and Executive Board in implementing the 2025 AGM resolutions, including:

Regarding the selection of an independent auditing company: On behalf of the AGM, the SB coordinated with the Executive Board to evaluate and approve the selection of UHY Auditing and Consulting Co., Ltd. to audit the 2025 financial statements. UHY is an independent auditing company approved by the State Securities Commission to audit listed companies.

II. RESULTS OF SUPERVISION OF OPERATION AND FINANCIAL SITUATION

1. Supervision of the Board of Directors and Executive Board in Company Management

In 2025, the Supervisory Board (SB) closely coordinated with the Board of Directors (BOD) and the Executive Board to oversee the implementation of the AGM resolutions and BOD resolutions. The BOD consists of five members, ensuring a structure that complies with the law and the Company's Charter. The BOD organized meetings and collected written opinions to approve decisions as required by law and the Company Charter.

In 2025, the BOD issued 16 resolutions/decisions to implement the business plan and address issues approved at the 2025 AGM. The SB evaluated these decisions as consistent with the Company's strategic direction and business plans set forth by the AGM.

The Chairman and BOD members actively implemented assigned tasks, promptly researching and making resolutions/decisions to support the Executive Board in business operations or addressing challenges and obstacles in business activities.

Company Performance in 2025:

- In 2025, the consumption volume of CMC's product lines maintained growth compared to 2024, with total output reaching 20.5 million m², representing an increase of 14.5% year-on-year. Among them, Semi Porcelain and Ceramic tiles continued to account for a significant proportion, contributing 69% of total sales volume. Notably, 2025 witnessed strong growth in the Semi Porcelain product line, with output reaching 8.7 million m², accounting for 42% of total consumption, reflecting a clear shift in market trends and positive customer reception. Meanwhile, the Ceramic segment also recorded strong growth, reaching nearly 5.4 million m², up 35% compared to 2024, driven by product consistency and competitive advantages.

- Total sales revenue of the Company in 2025 reached VND 2,246 billion, achieving 112% of the annual plan and 120% compared to 2024. Amid challenging market conditions where many industry peers experienced significant revenue declines, CMC's ability to sustain 20% revenue growth year-on-year stands out as a highlight, demonstrating the Company's resilience and adaptability.

- The Company's profit after tax in 2025 reached VND 50,0 billion, equivalent to 78.34% of the annual plan and 83.6% compared to 2024. Despite market challenges, CMC maintained revenue growth through a lean organizational strategy, operational optimization, and enhanced production efficiency. Tight cost control and the application of technology in management and production helped improve profit margins, reinforcing the Company's competitive position and establishing a solid foundation for sustainable development. However, profit after tax did not meet the target and declined year-on-year, mainly due to a decrease in financial income from subsidiaries.

- CMC has completed the restructuring of its organizational model with a focus on streamlining, efficiency, customer orientation, and productivity enhancement. At the same time, the Company has strongly implemented improvement and cost-saving initiatives to optimize production and operations in response to the evolving context. In 2025, Kaizen programs and initiatives at the factories helped save nearly VND 19 billion in production costs without affecting product quality. Lean initiatives also contributed to reducing operating expenses by approximately VND 18.7 billion.

2. Supervision Results of the BOD Activities:

- In 2025, the BOD performed its functions and duties in guiding and directing the Company's business activities. Regular and ad-hoc meetings were held in accordance with the Company's Charter and internal regulations on corporate governance. The BOD issued 16 resolutions/decisions following proper procedures, authority, and legal compliance.

- Some BOD members directly participated in the Company's executive activities with the Executive Board, gaining timely insights into business operations and thus enhancing governance and strategic guidance.

3. Supervision Results of the Executive Board Activities:

The Executive Board implemented AGM and BOD resolutions/decisions in compliance with its functions and legal authority as stipulated in the Company's Charter.

In 2025, the Executive Board made concerted efforts to address difficulties and complex issues arising in business activities, actively seeking and evaluating investment opportunities consistent with the Company's strategy.

In directing business operations, the Executive Board focused on improving corporate governance based on fairness, transparency, professionalism, and cost optimization to stay competitive and comply with increasingly stringent legal requirements related to investment.

4. Results of Supervising Company Operations and Financial Status:

The separate and consolidated audited financial statements for 2025, audited by UHY Auditing and Consulting Co., Ltd., received an opinion reflecting a fair and reasonable presentation of the Company's financial position as of December 31, 2025. The financial results and cash flows for the fiscal year ended on the same date were presented in accordance with Vietnamese accounting standards and regulations.

The audited financial statements provide accurate and objective insights into the Company's financial situation, affirming the Company's adherence to accounting principles and legal requirements.
