Our explanation as follows:

Separate financial statements:

The Parent Company's after-tax profit for Q4/2025 recorded a loss of VND 16.76 billion, representing a loss reduction of VND 1,072.97 billion compared to the same period in 2024.

This improvement was primarily driven by the effective implementation of financial restructuring measures, management apparatus optimization, and the absence of significant provisions that occurred in the previous year.

The consolidated after-tax profit for Q4/2025 recorded a loss of VND 41.41 billion, representing a loss reduction of VND 1,228.85 billion compared to the same period in 2024.

This positive result stems from the Company's comprehensive efforts in strictly controlling operating expenses and restructuring financial costs, while no longer incurring significant provisions as in the same period last year. Additionally, the operational efficiency of joint ventures and associates during this period also showed a recovery, contributing to a substantial decrease in the overall consolidated loss.

The company respectfully reports this to the State Securities Commission and Hanoi Stock Exchange.
