The proposal must be in writing and sent to the Company at least 05 working days before the opening date of the meeting. The proposal must clearly state the name of the shareholder, the quantity of each type of shares held by the shareholder, and the issue proposed to be included in the agenda.

5. The person convening the General Meeting of Shareholders has the right to refuse the proposal prescribed in Clause 4 of this Article if it falls into one of the following cases:

a. The proposal is sent not in accordance with the provisions of Clause 4 of this Article;

b. At the time of the proposal, the shareholder or group of shareholders does not hold at least 5% of ordinary shares as prescribed in Clause 2, Article 11 of this Charter;

c. The proposed issue does not fall within the decision-making authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

6. The person convening the General Meeting of Shareholders must accept and include the proposal prescribed in Clause 4 of this Article in the expected agenda and contents of the meeting, except for the cases prescribed in Clause 5 of this Article. The proposal is officially added to the agenda and contents of the meeting if approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 17. Conditions for conducting the General Meeting of Shareholders.

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall be conducted when the number of shareholders attending represents more than 50% of the total voting shares of the Company.

2. If within 30 minutes from the scheduled opening time, the meeting does not meet the conditions for being conducted as prescribed in Clause 1 of this Article, the notice for the second meeting shall be sent within 30 days from the intended date of the first meeting. The second General Meeting of Shareholders shall be conducted when the number of shareholders attending represents at least 33% of the total voting shares of the Company.

3. If within 30 minutes from the scheduled opening time, the second meeting does not meet the conditions for being conducted as prescribed in Clause 2 of this Article, the notice for the third meeting must be sent within 20 days from the intended date of the second meeting. In this case, the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be conducted regardless of the total number of voting shares of the attending shareholders.

Article 18. Procedures for conducting meetings and voting at the General Meeting of Shareholders.

1. Before opening the meeting, the Company must carry out the registration procedure for shareholders attending the meeting and must continue the registration until all shareholders entitled to attend have registered.

2. When registering for the meeting, shareholders or their representatives are issued a voting card and a ballot, on which the registration number, full name of the shareholder or their representative, and the number of voting shares of that shareholder are recorded. The General Meeting of Shareholders discusses and votes on each issue in the agenda. Voting is conducted by voting in favor, against, or abstaining. When voting at the meeting, shareholders raise their voting card and mark the corresponding box on the ballot. After collecting and counting the ballots, the total number of votes in favor, against, abstaining, or invalid for each issue shall be announced by the chairperson before the end of the meeting.

3. Shareholders or authorized persons arriving after the meeting has opened may still register and have the right to participate in voting immediately after registration; in this case, the validity of the contents already voted upon previously shall not change.

4. The election of the chairperson, secretary, and vote-counting committee is prescribed as follows:

a. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall act as the chairperson or authorize another member of the Board of Directors to act as the chairperson of the General Meeting of Shareholders convened by the Board of Directors. In case the Chairperson is absent or temporarily unable to work, the remaining members of the Board of Directors shall elect one of them to act as the chairperson of the meeting by majority principle. In case no chairperson can be elected, the Head of the Board of Supervisors shall preside over the General Meeting of Shareholders to elect a chairperson from among the attendees, and the person with the highest number of votes shall act as the chairperson of the meeting;

b. Except for the case prescribed in Point a, Clause 4 of this Article, the person who signed the convocation of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall preside over the General Meeting of Shareholders to elect a chairperson, and the person with the highest number of votes shall act as the chairperson of the meeting;

c. The chairperson shall appoint one or more persons to act as the secretary of the meeting;

d. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall elect one or more persons to the vote counting committee at the proposal of the chairperson of the meeting.

5. The agenda and contents of the meeting must be approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders during the opening session. The agenda must clearly and specifically define the time for each issue in the meeting agenda.

6. The convener or the chairperson of the General Meeting of Shareholders has the right to take necessary and reasonable measures to organize and conduct the General Meeting of Shareholders in an orderly manner, in accordance with the approved agenda, and to reflect the wishes of the majority of attendees, including:

a. Requiring all attendees to undergo security checks or other lawful and reasonable security measures;

b. Requesting competent authorities to maintain order at the meeting; expelling from the General Meeting of Shareholders those who do not comply with the chairperson's authority, intentionally disrupt order, hinder the normal progress of the meeting, or fail to comply with security check requirements.

c. Arranging seating at the venue of the General Meeting of Shareholders;

d. Ensuring the safety of all persons present at the meeting venues;

d. Creating conditions for shareholders to attend (or continue to attend) the meeting.

7. The chairperson has the right to postpone a General Meeting of Shareholders that has a sufficient number of registered attendees for a maximum of 03 working days from the intended opening date and may only postpone or change the meeting venue in the following cases:

a. The meeting venue does not have sufficient convenient seating for all attendees;

b. Communication equipment at the meeting venue does not ensure that attending shareholders can participate, discuss, and vote;

c. There are attendees who obstruct or disrupt order, posing a risk that the meeting will not be conducted fairly and legally.

8. In the event that the chairperson postpones or suspends the General Meeting of Shareholders contrary to the provisions of Clause 7 of this Article, the General Meeting of Shareholders shall elect another person from among the attendees to replace the chairperson and conduct the meeting until its conclusion; all resolutions passed at that meeting shall be legally effective.

9. Online General Meetings of Shareholders shall be conducted in accordance with the Internal Regulations on Corporate Governance.

Article 19. Forms of passing Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall pass resolutions under its authority by voting at the meeting or by collecting written opinions.

2. Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders on the following matters must be passed by voting at the General Meeting of Shareholders:

- e. Voting options including approve, disapprove, and abstain for each matter for which opinions are sought;
- f. Deadline for returning the completed opinion ballots to the Company;
- g. Full name and signature of the Chairman of the Board of Directors.

4. Shareholders may send their completed opinion ballots to the Company by post, fax, or email in accordance with the following provisions:

a. In case of sending by post, the completed opinion ballot must bear the signature of the individual shareholder, or the authorized representative or legal representative of the institutional shareholder. The opinion ballot sent to the Company must be in a sealed envelope and no one has the right to open it before the vote counting;

b. In case of sending by fax or email, the opinion ballot sent to the Company must be kept confidential until the time of vote counting;

c. Opinion ballots received by the Company after the deadline specified in the opinion ballot or those that have been opened in the case of post, or disclosed in the case of fax or email, shall be invalid. Opinion ballots that are not returned shall be considered as not participating in the vote.

5. The Board of Directors shall count the votes and prepare a vote counting minutes under the witness of the Board of Supervisors or shareholders who are not Company managers. The vote counting minutes must contain the following main contents:

- a. Name, address of the head office, and code of the Company;
- b. Purpose and matters for which opinions are sought to pass the resolution;

c. Number of shareholders with the total number of voting shares that participated in the vote, distinguishing between valid and invalid voting shares and the method of sending the ballots, accompanied by an appendix listing the shareholders who participated in the vote;

d. Total number of votes for, against, and no opinion for each matter;

d. Matters that have been passed;

e. Full names and signatures of the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the vote counters, and the vote counting supervisors.

Members of the Board of Directors, vote counters, and vote counting supervisors shall be jointly liable for the truthfulness and accuracy of the vote counting minutes; and jointly liable for damages arising from decisions passed due to dishonest or inaccurate vote counting.

6. The vote counting minutes and the Resolution must be published on the Company's website within twenty-four (24) hours from the completion of the vote counting and disclosed in accordance with the laws on securities and the stock market.

7. Completed opinion ballots, vote counting minutes, passed resolutions, and related documents sent with the opinion ballots must be kept at the Company's head office.

8. Resolutions on the following matters shall be passed by collecting written opinions from shareholders when approved by shareholders owning at least 65% of the total voting shares of all shareholders with voting rights:

a. Types of shares and total number of shares of each type offered for sale;

1. The Company has the right to pay remuneration and bonuses to members of the Board of Directors based on business results and efficiency.

2. Non-executive members of the Board of Directors of the Company shall be entitled to remuneration and bonuses according to the Resolution of the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders.

3. Members of the Board of Directors holding executive positions in the Company, in addition to remuneration and bonuses according to the Resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders, shall be paid other benefits according to the decision of the Board of Directors.

4. Remuneration and bonuses of each member of the Board of Directors shall be included in the business expenses of the Company in accordance with the law on corporate income tax, presented as a separate item in the annual financial statements of the Company, and must be reported to the General Meeting of Shareholders at the annual meeting.

5. Members of the Board of Directors are entitled to be reimbursed for all travel, accommodation, and other reasonable expenses that they have incurred in performing their duties as members of the Board of Directors, including expenses incurred in attending meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders and the Board of Directors.

Article 28. Chairman of the Board of Directors.

1. The Board of Directors shall elect one member of the Board of Directors to be the Chairman of the Board of Directors.

2. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall not concurrently hold the position of General Director.

3. The Chairman of the Board of Directors has the following rights and obligations:

- a. Establish the program and plan of activities of the Board of Directors;
- b. Prepare the program, content, and documents for meetings; convene, preside over, and chair meetings of the Board of Directors;
- c. Organize the passing of resolutions and decisions of the Board of Directors;
- d. Supervise the implementation of resolutions and decisions of the Board of Directors;
- d. Chair meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders;
- e. Other rights and obligations as per the Law on Enterprises and this Charter.

4. In case the Chairman of the Board of Directors submits a resignation letter or is dismissed or removed, the Board of Directors must elect a replacement within 10 days from the date of receiving the resignation letter or the dismissal or removal.

5. In case the Chairman of the Board of Directors is absent or unable to perform their duties, they must authorize in writing another member to perform the rights and obligations of the Chairman of the Board of Directors. In case there is no authorized person or the Chairman of the Board of Directors dies, goes missing, is detained, is serving a prison sentence, is serving an administrative handling measure at a compulsory detoxification center or compulsory education institution, flees from their place of residence, has their civil act capacity limited or lost, has difficulty in cognition or behavior control, is prohibited by the Court from holding certain positions, practicing certain professions, or doing certain jobs, the remaining members shall elect one among them to hold the position of Chairman of the Board of Directors based on the principle of majority approval by the remaining members until a new decision is made by the Board of Directors.

Article 29. Meetings of the Board of Directors.

1. The first meeting of the term of the Board of Directors to elect the Chairman must be conducted within 07 working days from the date of completion of the election of the Board of Directors for that term. This meeting shall be convened by the member with the highest number of votes. In case there is more than 01 member with the same highest number of votes, the members shall elect by majority principle to choose 01 person among them to convene the meeting of the Board of Directors.

2. The Board of Directors must meet at least once per quarter and may hold extraordinary meetings.

3. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall convene a meeting of the Board of Directors in the following cases:
