NOTES TO THE SEPARATE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(These notes form part of and should be read in conjunction with the financial statements)

1. Nature of operations1.1. Overview

DHC Suoi Doi Corporation (the “Company”) was incorporated under Enterprise Registration Certificate No. 0401585934 dated 07/02/2014 issued by the Da Nang Department of Planning and Investment (now the Da Nang Department of Finance). Since its establishment, the Company has amended its Enterprise Registration Certificate 18 times, most recently on 28/04/2026. The Company is an independent accounting entity, operating in compliance with the Enterprise Law, its Charter and other relevant regulations.

1.2. Principal scope of business: Entertainment, food and beverage services, and short-term accommodation.

1.3. Corporate structure

The Company has one subsidiary, namely DHC Farm Company Limited.

Address: 158 Bui Ta Han Street, Ngu Hanh Son Ward, Da Nang City.

Ownership interest: 100%; voting rights: 100%.

2. Accounting period, currency used in accounting

The Company’s annual accounting period starts on 1 January and ends on 31 December.

Separate financial statements and accounting transactions are expressed in Vietnamese Dong (VND).

3. Applied accounting standards and accounting system

The Company adopted Vietnamese Accounting Standards and Vietnamese Corporate Accounting System as guided in Circular No. 99/2025/TT-BTC dated 27/10/2025 promulgated by the Ministry of Finance.

The Company has a subsidiary. According to the prevailing regulations, for the fiscal year 2026, the Company is required to prepare both the separate financial statements of the Parent Company and the consolidated financial statements. Users of the financial statements should read the separate financial statements of the Parent Company together with the consolidated financial statements in order to obtain complete information about the consolidated financial position, consolidated results of operations and consolidated cash flows of the Company.

4. Summary of significant accounting policies4.1 Cash and cash equivalents

Cash includes cash on hand and bank demand deposits.

All short-term investments which are collectible or mature of 3 months or less as from purchasing date, that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value at reporting date shall be recognized as cash equivalents.

4.2 Receivables

Receivables include trade receivables and other receivables:

- Trade receivables are trade-related amounts arising from trading activities between the Company and its customers;
- Other receivables include non-trade amounts which are not related to trading activities, intra-company transactions.

Receivables are recorded at cost less provision for doubtful debts. Provision for doubtful debts represents the estimated loss amounts at the reporting date for overdue receivables which the Company has claimed many times but still has not collected yet or which have not been overdue but the debtor has been in the state of insolvency, doing dissolution procedures, missing or running away.

4.3 Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realizable value.

Value of inventories is calculated using the weighted average method and accounted for using the perpetual method. Cost of materials and goods comprises costs of purchase, costs of conversion and any directly attributable costs of bringing the inventories to their present location and condition.

Net realizable value is the estimated selling price less the estimated costs of completing the products and the estimated costs needed for their consumption.

Provision for decline in value of inventories is made for each kind of inventories when the net realizable value of that kind of inventories is less than cost.

4.4 Tangible fixed assetsCost

Tangible fixed assets are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation.

The cost of tangible assets comprises their purchase price and all the costs incurred by the Company to acquire those assets as of the time of putting such assets into the ready-for-use state. The costs incurred after the initial recognition of tangible fixed asset shall be recorded as increase in their historical cost if these costs are certain to augment future economic benefits obtained from the use of those assets. Those incurred costs which fail to meet this requirement must be recognized as production and business expenses in the year.

Depreciation

Depreciation of tangible fixed assets is calculated on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives. The depreciation period is in conformity with Circular No. 45/2013/TT-BTC dated 25 April 2013 by the Ministry of Finance. Details are as follows:

Kinds of assets	Depreciation period (years)
Buildings, architectures	35
Machinery, equipment	5 - 10
Motor vehicles, transmission equipment	6 - 10
Office equipment	3 - 10
Other tangible fixed assets	5 - 10

4.5 Intangible fixed assetsCost

Intangible fixed assets are stated at cost less accumulated amortization.

The cost of intangible fixed assets comprises all the costs incurred by the Company to acquire those assets as of the time of putting such assets into the ready-for-use state.

Land use rights

The cost of land use rights includes all costs directly attributable to obtaining the legal land use rights.

Amortization

NOTES TO THE SEPARATE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (cont'd)(These notes form part of and should be read in conjunction with the financial statements)

Intangible fixed assets being land use rights with definite term are amortized over the period in which the Company is allowed to use the land.

Other intangible fixed assets are amortized in accordance with the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives. The amortization period is in conformity with Circular No. 45/2013/TT-BTC dated 25 April 2013 by the Ministry of Finance.

The amortization periods for intangible fixed assets of the Company are as follows:

Kinds of assets	Amortization period (years)
Software	2 - 10
Website	3
Land use rights	40

4.6 Operating leases

An operating lease is a lease in which a significant portion of the risks and rewards of ownership are retained by the lessor. Payments made under operating leases are recognized in the income statement on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease.

4.7 Investments in subsidiaries

A subsidiary is an entity controlled by the Company. An entity is considered as a subsidiary if the Company holds (directly or indirectly) more than 50% of the voting shares and has the power to govern the financial and operating policies of the subsidiary.

Investments in subsidiaries are stated at cost less provisions. Dividends and profits received in money or non-monetary assets for the period prior to the investment date shall be recorded as a decrease in value of investment.

Provision

Provision for investments in subsidiaries and associates is made if these investments are impaired or if the investees suffer losses, leading to the irrecoverability of the Company's investments.

With regards to the investees who are required to prepare the consolidated financial statements, the provision is made based on the consolidated financial statements. For other cases, the provision is made based on the financial statements of the investees.

4.8 Prepaid expenses

Prepaid expenses are reported as short-term or long-term prepaid expenses. These are expenditures that have been incurred but related to the operations of many accounting periods. The Company's primary prepayments are as follows:

- Tools and instruments put into use are amortized in accordance with the straight-line method for a period ranging from 12 to 36 months;
- Other prepaid expenses: The Company selects appropriate method and criteria of allocation over the period in which economic benefits are expected to be received based on the nature and extent of the prepaid expenses.

4.9 Deferred corporate income tax

(These notes form part of and should be read in conjunction with the financial statements)

Deferred income tax is determined for temporary differences at the reporting date between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purposes. Deferred income tax is recognized for all temporary differences except those arising from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction which, at the time of the transaction, affects neither accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss.

Deferred income tax liabilities are recognized for all taxable temporary differences, while deferred income tax assets are recognized to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, unused tax losses and tax credits can be utilized. The carrying amount of deferred income tax assets is reviewed at each reporting date and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available to allow all or part of the deferred income tax assets to be utilized. Previously unrecognized deferred income tax assets are reassessed at each reporting date and are recognized to the extent that it has become probable that future taxable profits will allow the deferred income tax assets to be recovered.

Deferred income tax is measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply for the year in which the asset is realized or the liability is settled, based on tax rates that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the reporting date.

Deferred income tax assets and deferred income tax liabilities are offset if the taxable temporary differences and deductible temporary differences relate to the same taxable entity and are finalized with the same tax authority.

4.10 Payables

Payables include trade payables and other payables:

- Trade payables are trade-related amounts, arising from trading activities between the company and its suppliers.
- Other payables are non-trade amounts, which are not related to trading activities, intra-company transactions.

Payables are recognized at cost and reported as short-term or long-term payables based on the remaining terms at the reporting date.

4.11 Accrued expenses

Accruals are recognized for amount to be paid in the future for goods and services received, whether or not billed to the Company.

4.12 Unearned revenue

Unearned revenue of the Company consists of amounts received in advance for one or multiple accounting periods for services provided to customers, which are allocated over the periods for which the payments were received in advance.

4.13 Loans and finance lease liabilities

Loans and finance lease liabilities are recorded at cost and classified into current and non-current liabilities based on the remaining terms at the reporting date.

The Company monitors loans and finance lease liabilities according to their creditors, loan agreements, principal terms, remaining terms and original currencies.

Borrowing costs

NOTES TO THE SEPARATE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (cont'd)(These notes form part of and should be read in conjunction with the financial statements)

Borrowing costs comprise interest and other costs that the Company incurs in connection with the borrowing of funds. Borrowing costs are recognized as an expense in the period in which they are incurred, except to the extent that they qualify the conditions to be capitalized in accordance with Accounting Standard "Borrowing costs".

Borrowing costs associated with a particular borrowing for the purpose of obtaining a qualifying asset shall be capitalized as part of the cost of that asset. For general borrowing funds, the borrowing costs eligible for capitalization in the period shall be determined according to the capitalization rate, which is the weighted average of the borrowing costs applicable to the borrowings of the Company that are outstanding during the period.

Capitalization of borrowing costs shall be suspended during extended periods in which it suspends active development of a qualifying asset, except to the extent that the suspension is necessary. Capitalization shall be ceased when substantially all the activities necessary to prepare the qualifying asset for its intended use or sale are complete.

4.14 Owners' equity

Share capital represents the amount of capital actually contributed by shareholders.

Share premium

Share premium reflects the difference between the issue price and par value of the shares issued, net of costs directly related to the issuance of shares; the difference between the re-issue price and book value, net of costs directly related to the re-issuance of shares; and the capital component of convertible bonds upon maturity.

Profit distribution

Profit after corporate income tax is available for appropriation to funds and distribution to shareholders in accordance with the Company's Charter or the Resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Dividends to be paid to shareholders shall not exceed the undistributed profit after tax, taking into account non-monetary items in the undistributed profit that may affect cash flow and the ability to pay dividends.

4.15 Recognition of revenue and other income

- Revenue from sales and service provision is recognized to the extent that it is probable to obtain economic benefits, it can be reliably measured and the following conditions are also met:
 - ✓ Revenue from the sale of goods is recognized in the income statement when the significant risks and rewards of ownership have been transferred to the buyer and there are no significant uncertainties regarding recovery of the consideration due or the likely return of goods.
 - ✓ Revenue from service provision is recognized when the services have been rendered. In case that the services are to be provided in many accounting periods, the determination of revenue in each period is done on the basis of the service completion rate as of the reporting date.
- Revenue from financing activities is recognized when revenue is determined with relative certainty and it is possible to obtain economic benefits from the transactions.
 - ✓ Interest is recognized on the basis of the actual term and interest rates.
 - ✓ Dividends and profits shared are recognized when the Company has the rights to receive dividends or profit from the capital contribution.
- Other income is the income derived out of the Company's scope of business and recognized when it can be measured reliably and it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the transaction will flow to the Company.

4.16 Cost of goods sold

NOTES TO THE SEPARATE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (cont'd)(These notes form part of and should be read in conjunction with the financial statements)

Cost of products, goods sold and services rendered shall be recognized in the correct accounting period in accordance with the matching principle and conservatism principle.

Costs of inventories and services rendered which are incurred in excess of the ordinary level shall be charged out to cost of goods sold in the period, not to the production cost of goods and services.

4.17 Financial expenses

Financial expenses reflect expenses or losses related to financial investment activities. The financial expenses incurred by the Company are interest expenses, provision for impairment of investments, and other financial investments.

4.18 Selling expenses, administrative expenses

Selling expenses reflect expenses actually incurred in the process of selling products, goods, rendering services.

Administrative expenses reflect expenses actually incurred related to the overall administration of the enterprise.

4.19 Current corporate income tax expense, deferred corporate income tax expense

Corporate income tax expenses in the year include current income tax and deferred income tax.

Current income tax is the tax amount computed based on the taxable income in the period at the tax rates ruling at the reporting date. The difference between taxable income and accounting profit is due to the adjustments of temporary differences between tax and accounting figures as well as those of non-taxable or non-deductible income and expenses.

Deferred income tax is determined for temporary differences at the reporting date between the tax base of assets and liability and their carrying amount for financial reporting purpose.

4.20 Applicable tax rates and charges payable to the State Budget

- Value-added tax (VAT):
 - ✓ A 10% VAT rate is applied to food and beverage services, souvenir sales, accommodation services, recreational activities, spa services, etc. From 01/01/2026 to 30/06/2026, the Company applied a VAT rate of 8% to food and beverage services, accommodation services and recreational activities in accordance with Decree No. 180/2024/NĐ-CP dated 31/12/2025 and Decree No. 174/2025/NĐ-CP dated 30/06/2025 issued by the Government
 - ✓ Other activities are subject to the prevailing tax rates.
- Corporate income tax (CIT): CIT is applied at a rate of 20%.
- Other taxes and obligations are fulfilled in accordance with current regulations.

4.21 Financial instrumentsInitial recognitionFinancial assets*

A financial asset is recognized initially at cost plus transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of the asset. The Company's financial assets comprise cash on hand, cash at bank, trade receivables, and other receivables.

Financial liabilities

NOTES TO THE SEPARATE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (cont'd)(These notes form part of and should be read in conjunction with the financial statements)

A financial liability is recognized initially at cost plus transaction costs directly attributable to the issuance of such liability. The Company's financial liabilities comprise trade payables, loans, accrued expenses, and other payables.

Subsequent measurement

Currently, there has been no requirement for subsequent measurement of financial instruments.

4.22 Related parties

Parties are considered to be related if one party has the ability to (directly or indirectly) control the other party or exercise significant influence over the other party in making financial or operational decisions.

31. Segment reporting

According to Vietnamese Accounting Standard No. 28 and the relevant guidelines, the Company is required to prepare segment reporting. Accordingly, a business segment is a distinguishable component of the Company that is engaged in providing related products or services (business segment) or providing products or services within a particular economic environment (geographical segment), and that is subject to risks and returns that are different from those of other business segments.

Based on the Company's actual operations, the Chairperson and Management assess that the Company's business segments and geographical segments do not differ in terms of risks and returns. Accordingly, the Company operates in a single business segment, being the provision of services related to entertainment, recreation and leisure, and a single geographical segment, being Da Nang City, Vietnam.
