For the 2nd Quarter ending 30 June 2026

3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

3.9.1 Technical reserves for non-life insurance

- Unearned premium reserve

The Corporation applies the rate of total insurance premium and coefficients of insurance policy period to calculate unearned premium reserve, following the formula:

For insurance policies and reinsurance agreements of cargo delivered by road, water, inland water, railway and airway with terms of less than or equal to 01 year: Unearned premium reserve accounts for 25% of total insurance premium in the period of above lines of insurance.

For insurance policies and reinsurance agreements of other lines with terms of less than or equal to 01 year: Unearned premium reserve accounts for 50% of total insurance premium in the fiscal year of above lines of insurance.

For other lines of insurance policies and reinsurance agreements of other lines with terms of more than 01 year: Unearned premium reserve is calculated using 1/24 method.

- Claim reserve

Claim reserve includes the reserve for outstanding claim and for claim incurred but not reported:

► Outstanding claim reserve is established based on the estimated claim payments for each claim for which the insurer is liable, which is either notified to the insurer or requested for payment but is still unresolved at the end of the fiscal year, in accordance with the Circular 67; and

► Reserve for incurred but not reported claims for which the insurer is liable (IBNR) is established at the rate of 3% of premium for each insurance operation.

- Catastrophe reserve

Catastrophe reserve of the Corporation is accrued annually for significant fluctuations in losses. The catastrophe reserve rate adopted by the Corporation for the period is 1% of total retained premiums of each type of insurance. The catastrophe reserve maximum of the Corporation is equal to 100% of the retained premiums of the current fiscal year (except for health insurance).

3.9.2 Health insurance business

- Mathematical reserve

Mathematical reserve applies to insurance policies with terms of more than 01 year underwritten before 2023 to cover liability upon occurrence of insured event, except death or total permanent disability. Mathematical reserve is calculated based on 1/8 method;

Mathematical reserve applies to insurance policies which only cover death or total permanent disability. Mathematical reserve is set aside as follows:

Insurance policies with a term of less than or equal to 01 year: The rate of total insurance premium.

Insurance policies with a term of more than 01 year underwritten before 2023: Net premium valuation.

- Unearned premium reserve:

Unearned premium reserve applies to health insurance policies with terms of less than or equal to 1 year. The Corporation applies the Unearned premium reserve accounts for 50% of total insurance premium in the fiscal year of above lines of insurance

For the 2nd Quarter ending 30 June 2026

33.9.2 Health insurance business (continued)

- Claim reserve:

Claim reserve includes the reserve for outstanding claims and for claims incurred but not reported:

Outstanding claim reserve is established based on the estimated claim payments for each claim for which the insurer is liable, which is either notified to the insurer or requested for payment but is still unresolved at the end of the fiscal year; and

Reserve for incurred but not reported claims for which the insurer is liable (IBNR) is established at the rate of 3% of premium for each health insurance operation.

- Equalization reserve

Equalization reserve for health insurance is established at 1% of net premium and recognised in catastrophe reserve account on interim consolidated balance sheet.

3.10 Foreign currency transactions

Transactions in currencies other than the Corporation's reporting currency of VND are recorded at the actual transaction exchange rates at transaction dates which are determined as follows:

- ▶ Transactions resulting in receivables are recorded at the buying exchange rates of the commercial banks designated for collection;
- ▶ Transactions resulting in liabilities are recorded at the selling exchange rates of the commercial banks designated for payment;
- ▶ Capital contributions are recorded at the buying exchange rates of the commercial banks designated for capital contribution; and
- ▶ Payments for assets or expenses without liabilities initially being recognised is recorded at the buying exchange rates of the commercial banks that process these payments.

At the end of the period, monetary balances denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the actual transaction exchange rates at the balance sheet dates which are determined as follows:

- ▶ Monetary assets are translated at buying exchange rate of the commercial bank where the Corporation conducts transactions regularly; and
- ▶ Monetary liabilities are translated at selling exchange rate of the commercial bank where the Corporation conducts transactions regularly.

All foreign exchange differences incurred are taken to the consolidated income statement.

3.11 Appropriation of net profit

Net profit after tax is available for appropriation to shareholders after approval in the annual general meeting, and after making appropriation to reserve funds and remuneration to Board of Directors in accordance with the Corporation's Charter and Vietnam's regulatory requirements.

The Corporation maintains the following reserve funds which are appropriated from its net profit as proposed by the Board of Directors and subject to approval by shareholders at the annual general meeting.

For the 2nd Quarter ending 30 June 2026

3.11 Appropriation of net profit (continued)

- The compulsory reserve fund is established for the purpose of supplementing the charter capital and ensuring the solvency of the Corporation. The compulsory reserve fund is established at 5% of the annual after-tax profit, and the maximum balance is 10% of the charter capital according to the decree of the Ministry of Finance.
- The development investment fund is deducted from retained earnings after profit distribution and mandatory reserve funds.
- The welfare reward fund is set aside to reward and encourage material benefits, bring common benefits and improve the welfare of employees.

3.12 Revenue recognition

Revenue is recognised to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Corporation and the revenue can be reliably measured. The following specific recognition criteria must also be met before revenue is recognised:

(i) Gross written premium

Gross written premium is recognized when the following conditions are met: (1) the policy has been entered into between the insurance business enterprise and the insurance buyer has paid the full insurance premium; (2) there is evidence that the insurance policy has been entered into and the insurance buyer has paid the full insurance premium; and (3) The insurance policy has been entered into and the insurance business enterprise has an agreement for the insurance buyer to owe the insurance premium, the insurance business enterprise must still account for the amount owed by the insurance buyer into income even though the insurance buyer has not paid the insurance premium.

Gross written premium of insurance policies exploited by the Corporation in Vietnam and in compliance with Vietnamese regulations related to insurance activities is recorded in accordance with the provisions of the Circular 67/2023/TT-BTC. Accordingly, the payment period for insurance premiums shall not exceed 30 days from the effective date of the insurance policy.

In case of paying insurance premiums in installments, the Corporation shall record the insurance premium revenue of the first insurance premium payment period when the insurance policy is effective and shall only record the insurance premium revenue of the following insurance premium payment periods when the insurance buyer has paid the full insurance premium as agreed in the insurance policy. In case the insurance buyer does not pay the full insurance premium within the insurance premium payment period, the insurance policy shall automatically terminate upon the expiration of the insurance premium payment period.

Insurance premiums received before maturity at the end of the accounting year are recorded in "Short-term unearned revenue" on the consolidated balance sheet.

Refunds or reductions in original premiums are recorded as revenue deductions and are tracked separately, and transferred to the gross written premium account at year-end to calculate net revenue.

Recognition is not made for the revenue for dividends paid in shares and bonus shares, but only the number of shares tracked off-balance sheet is updated.

(ii) Interest

Revenue is recognised as the interest accrues (taking into account the effective yield on the asset) unless collectibility is in doubt.

3.12 Revenue recognition (continued)

(iii) Dividends

Income is recognized when the Corporation's entitlement as an investor to receive the dividend is established.

(iv) Other revenue

Other revenues are recognized in the consolidated income statement when incurred.

3.13 Expense recognition

(i) Claim expense

Claim expense is recognized at the point of time when the claim documents are completed and approved by authorized persons. In case that the final claim amount has not been finalized but the Corporation is certain that the loss is within its insured liabilities and has been paid an advance to the customer as per their request, such advance would also be recognized as claim expense. Any claim that is not yet approved by authorized persons at the end of the financial period is considered as an outstanding claim and included in claim reserve.

(ii) Commission

Commissions for each product type are calculated as a percentage of gross written premium as prescribed in the Circular 67/2023/TT-BTC. Commission expenses are allocated and recognized on the consolidated income statement for the year corresponding to the premium received.

(iii) Agent reward and support costs

Agent reward and non-life insurance and health insurance agent support costs are accounted for in the consolidated income statement on an accrual basis, corresponding to the insurance policies exploited during the financial period but not exceeding 50% of the insurance commission of the insurance policies exploited during the financial period. Particularly for health insurance, agent rewards and agent support expenses do not exceed 100% of the insurance commission of the health insurance policies exploited during the financial period according to the provisions of the Circular 67/2023/TT-BTC dated 02 November 2023.

(iv) General administrative expenses

General administrative expenses are recognized in the consolidated income statement when incurred.

(v) Operating lease

Rentals paid under operating leases are charged to the consolidated income statement on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease.

(vi) Other costs

Other expenses are recognized in the consolidated income statement when incurred.

(i) Reinsurance ceded

For the 2nd Quarter ending 30 June 2026

3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

3.14 Recognition of reinsurance activities (continued)

Reinsurance premium ceded under treaty reinsurance agreements are recognized when gross written premiums within the scope of the treaty agreements are recognized.

Reinsurance premium ceded is recognized when the facultative reinsurance agreement has been entered into and when gross written premiums within the scope of these agreements are recognized.

Reinsurance recovery is recognized when there is evidence of liability on the part of the reinsurer.

Reinsurance commission is recognized when there is a corresponding reinsurance premium ceded. At the end of the period, the part of reinsurance commission which is not included in income of current period corresponding to unearned premium of reinsurance ceded shall be determined and allocated in the subsequent periods based on the method of unearned premium reserve registered with the Ministry of Finance.

(ii) Reinsurance assumed

Reinsurance assumed under treaty arrangement:

Revenue and expenses relating to reinsurance assumed under treaty arrangements are recognized when the statement of account is received from the cedants.

Reinsurance assumed under facultative arrangement:

Reinsurance premium assumed is recognized when the facultative reinsurance agreement has been entered into and a statement of account (for each facultative reinsurance agreement) has been received from the cedants;

Claim expenses for reinsurance assumed is recognized when there is evidence of liability of the Corporation and when a statement of account has been sent to the Corporation; and

Reinsurance commission is recognized when the reinsurance premium is ceded and when a statement of account has been sent to the Corporation. At the end of fiscal period, the part of reinsurance commission which is not included in expense of current period corresponding to unearned premium of reinsurance assumed shall be determined and allocated in the subsequent financial period based on the method of unearned premium reserve registered with the Ministry of Finance.

3.15 Taxation

(i) Current income tax

Current income tax assets and liabilities for the current and prior years are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or paid to the taxation authorities. The tax rates and tax laws used to compute the amount are those that are enacted as at the interim consolidated balance sheet date.

Current income tax is charged or credited to the consolidated income statement, except when it relates to items recognised directly to equity, in which case the current income tax is also dealt with in equity.

Current income tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right for the Corporation to off-set current tax assets against current tax liabilities and when the Corporation intends to settle its current tax assets and liabilities on a net basis.

For the 2nd Quarter ending 30 June 2026

(ii) Deferred income tax

Deferred income tax is determined on temporary differences at the balance sheet date between the tax base of assets and liabilities and their carrying amount for consolidated financial reporting purposes.

Deferred income tax liabilities are recognised for all taxable temporary differences, except:

- ▶ Deferred income tax liability arises from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction that, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit (or loss);
- ▶ Taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, associates and interests in joint ventures when the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences can be controlled and it is probable that the temporary differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future

Deferred income tax assets should be recognized for all deductible temporary differences, carry forward of unused tax losses and unused tax credits to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, and carry forward of unused tax losses and unused tax credits can be utilized, except:

- ▶ Deferred tax assets arising from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction that, at the time of the transaction, affects neither accounting profit nor taxable profit (or tax loss);
- ▶ All deductible temporary differences arising from investments in subsidiaries, associates and interests in joint ventures are recognised only to the extent that it is probable that the temporary differences will reverse in the foreseeable future and taxable profit will be available against which the temporary differences can be utilised.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets should be reviewed at the end of the reporting period and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow the benefit of part or all of that deferred tax asset to be utilised. Previously unrecognised deferred tax assets are reviewed at the end of the reporting period and recognised when it is probable that sufficient future taxable profit will be available against which the unrecognised deferred tax assets can be utilised.

Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply to the period when the asset is realized or the liability is settled, based on tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the balance sheet date.

Deferred income tax is recognised in the consolidated income statement, except when it relates to items recognised directly to equity, in which case the deferred income tax is also recognised directly in equity.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right for the Corporation to offset current tax assets against current tax liabilities and when they relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority on:

- ▶ For the same taxable entity; or
- ▶ when the Corporation intends to either settle current tax liabilities and assets on a net basis or to realise the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously, in each future period in which significant amounts of deferred tax liabilities or assets are expected to be settled or recovered.

3.16 Use of estimates

The preparation of the interim consolidated financial statements requires the management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent liabilities. These estimates and assumptions also affect the income and expenses and the resultant provisions. Such estimates are necessarily based on assumptions about several factors involving varying degrees of judgment and uncertainty and actual results may differ resulting in future changes in such provisions.

3.17 Related Parties

Parties are considered to be related parties of the Corporation if one party has the ability to, directly or indirectly, control the other party or exercise significant influence over the other party in making financial and operating decisions, or when the Corporation and other party are under common control or under common significant influence. Related parties can be enterprises or individuals, including close members of their families.

23. CORPORATE INCOME TAX

The Company is obliged to pay corporate income tax at a rate of 20% of the profit earned in 2026 according to the Corporate Income Tax Law no. 67/2025/QH15 dated 14 June 2025 by the National Assembly.

The tax returns filed by the Corporation will be subject to examination by the tax authorities. Since the application of tax laws and regulations to different types of transactions can be interpreted in many different ways, the tax amount presented in the financial statements for the fiscal year will change according to the decision of the tax authorities.

Current corporate income tax

Current income tax is determined based on taxable income for the current period. Taxable income differs from income as reported in the income statement for the financial year because it excludes items of income or expense that are taxable or deductible in other years and it also excludes items that are not taxable or deductible for tax purposes. Current corporate income tax payable of the Corporation is calculated using the tax rates issued as of the end of the accounting period.
