REPORT OF MANAGEMENT

The management of Hoang Anh Gia Lai Agricultural Joint Stock Company ("the Company") is pleased to present this report and the interim consolidated financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries ("the Group") for the six-month period ended 30 June 2026.

MANAGEMENT'S RESPONSIBILITY IN RESPECT OF THE INTERIM CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The management is responsible for the interim consolidated financial statements of each financial period which give a true and fair view of the interim consolidated financial position of the Group and of the interim consolidated results of its operations and its interim consolidated cash flows for the period. In preparing those interim consolidated financial statements, management is required to:

- ▶ select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- ▶ make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- ▶ state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the interim consolidated financial statements; and
- ▶ prepare the interim consolidated financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the Company will continue in business.

The management is responsible for ensuring that proper accounting records are kept which disclose, with reasonable accuracy at any time, the interim consolidated financial position of the Group and for ensuring that the accounting records comply with the applied accounting system. It is also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Group and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The management confirmed that it has complied with the above requirements in preparing the accompanying interim consolidated financial statements.

STATEMENT BY MANAGEMENT

The management does hereby state that, in its opinion, the accompanying interim consolidated financial statements give a true and fair view of the interim consolidated financial position of the Group as at 30 June 2026 and of the interim consolidated results of its operations and its interim consolidated cash flows for the six-month period then ended in accordance with Vietnamese Accounting Standards, Vietnamese Enterprise Accounting System and the statutory requirements relevant to the preparation and presentation of the interim consolidated financial statements.

REPORT ON REVIEW OF INTERIM CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

To: The Shareholders of Hoang Anh Gia Lai Agricultural Joint Stock Company

We have reviewed the accompanying interim consolidated financial statements of Hoang Anh Gia Lai Agricultural Joint Stock Company ("the Company") and its subsidiaries ("the Group"), as prepared on 28 August 2026 and set out on pages 5 to 57, which comprise the interim consolidated statement of financial position as at 30 June 2026, the interim consolidated income statement and the interim consolidated cash flow statement for the six-month period then ended and the notes thereto.

The management's responsibility

The management is responsible for the preparation and true and fair presentation of these interim consolidated financial statements in accordance with Vietnamese Accounting Standards, Vietnamese Enterprise Accounting System and the statutory requirements relevant to the preparation and presentation of the interim consolidated financial statements, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation and presentation of the interim consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' responsibility

Our responsibility is to express a conclusion on the interim consolidated financial statements based on our review. We conducted our review in accordance with Vietnamese Standard on Review Engagements No. 2410 - Review of Interim Financial Information Performed by the Independent Auditor of the Entity.

A review of interim financial information consists of making inquiries, primarily of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters, and applying analytical and other review procedures. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with Vietnamese Standards on Auditing and consequently does not enable us to obtain assurance that we would become aware of all significant matters that might be identified in an audit. Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion.

Shape the future
with confidence

Conclusion

Based on our review, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the accompanying interim consolidated financial statements do not give a true and fair view, in all material respects, of the interim consolidated financial position of the Group as at 30 June 2026, and of the interim consolidated results of its operations and its interim consolidated cash flows for the six-month period then ended in accordance with Vietnamese Accounting Standards, Vietnamese Enterprise Accounting System and the statutory requirements relevant to preparation and presentation of the interim consolidated financial statements.

Emphasis of matter

We draw attention to Note 2.6 to the interim consolidated financial statements, which states that the Group incurred a net loss of VND'000 186,792,364 for the six-month period ended 30 June 2026. As at that date, the Group had accumulated losses of VND'000 13,231,125,950 and its current liabilities exceeded its current assets by VND'000 12,445,487,985. These events and conditions indicate the existence of a material uncertainty that may cast significant doubt about the Group's ability to continue as a going concern.

Our review conclusion on the interim consolidated financial statements is not modified in respect of this matter.

2. BASIS OF PREPARATION2.1 Applied accounting standards and system

The interim consolidated financial statements of the Group expressed in thousand Vietnam dong ("VND'000"), are prepared in compliance and accordance with Vietnamese Enterprise Accounting System and Vietnamese Accounting Standard No. 27 - Interim Financial Reporting and other Vietnamese Accounting Standards issued by the Ministry of Finance as per:

- ▶ Decision No. 149/2001/QD-BTC dated 31 December 2001 on the Issuance and Promulgation of Four Vietnamese Accounting Standards (Series 1);
- ▶ Decision No. 165/2002/QD-BTC dated 31 December 2002 on the Issuance and Promulgation of Six Vietnamese Accounting Standards (Series 2);
- ▶ Decision No. 234/2003/QD-BTC dated 30 December 2003 on the Issuance and Promulgation of Six Vietnamese Accounting Standards (Series 3);
- ▶ Decision No. 12/2005/QD-BTC dated 15 February 2005 on the Issuance and Promulgation of Six Vietnamese Accounting Standards (Series 4); and
- ▶ Decision No. 100/2005/QD-BTC dated 28 December 2005 on the Issuance and Promulgation of Four Vietnamese Accounting Standards (Series 5).

Accordingly, the accompanying interim consolidated financial statements, including their utilisation are not designed for those who are not informed about Vietnam's accounting principles, procedures and practices and furthermore are not intended to present the interim consolidated financial position and the interim consolidated results of interim consolidated operations and the interim consolidated cash flows of the Group in accordance with accounting principles and practices generally accepted in countries other than Vietnam.

2.2 Applied accounting documentation system

The Group's applied accounting documentation system is the General Journal system.

2.3 Fiscal year

The Group's fiscal year applicable for the preparation of its interim consolidated financial statements starts on 1 January and ends on 31 December.

These interim consolidated financial statements are prepared for the six-month period ended 30 June 2026.

2.4 Accounting currency

The Company's accounting currency is VND. The Group's interim consolidated financial statements are prepared in thousands of Vietnam Dong ("VND'000").

2.5 Basis of consolidation

The Group's interim consolidated financial statements comprise the interim financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries for the six-month period ended 30 June 2026.

Subsidiaries are fully consolidated from the date of acquisition, being the date on which the Group obtains control and continued to be consolidated until the date that such control ceases.

The interim financial statements of subsidiaries are prepared for the same reporting year as the parent company, using consistent accounting policies.

2. BASIS OF PREPARATION (continued)2.6 Going concern assumption

The Group incurred a net loss of VND'000 186,792,364 for the six-month period ended 30 June 2026. As at that date, the Group had accumulated losses of VND'000 13,231,125,950, and its current liabilities exceeded its current assets by VND'000 12,445,487,985. These events and conditions indicate the existence of material uncertainty that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. Accordingly, the Group's ability to continue as a going concern depends on its ability to generate sufficient cash flows to fund its operations, meet its financial obligations as they fall due and obtain continued financial support from its major shareholder.

At the date of these interim consolidated financial statements, management had prepared a business plan and cash flow forecast covering at least twelve months from the date of issuance of these interim consolidated financial statements. The forecast was based principally on (i) the operating cash inflows expected from the development of the Group's large-scale agricultural projects, (ii) further drawdowns under existing loan facilities with commercial banks and (iii) additional financial support from the Group's major shareholder. In particular, Truong Hai Group Corporation ("Thaco"), the Company's major shareholder, agreed to provide additional financial support and extend the payment terms of amounts payable to it to enable the Group to continue its normal operation.

As a result, management assesses that the Group would be able to continue its operations and pay its liabilities in the normal course of business in the next 12 months from the issuance date of these interim consolidated financial statements, and, accordingly, will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in normal course of operations as they come due. On this basis, the Company's management considers it is appropriate to prepare the Group's interim consolidated financial statements on the going concern basis.

3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES3.1 Changes in accounting policies and disclosures

The accounting policies adopted by the Group in the preparation of interim consolidated financial statements for the six-month period ended 30 June 2026 are consistent with those followed in the preparation of the Group's annual consolidated financial and the interim consolidated financial statements for the six-month period ended 30 June 2025, except for the changes in accounting policies arising from the initial adoption of Circular No. 99/2025/TT-BTC and Circular No. 43/2026/TT-BTC providing guidance on preparation and presentation of consolidated financial statements ("Circular 43").

3.1.1 Changes in accounting policies due to adoption of Circular No. 99/2025/TT-BTC

On 27 October 2025, the Ministry of Finance issued Circular No. 99/2025/TT-BTC providing guidance on enterprise accounting system ("Circular 99"), replacing Circular No. 200/2014/TT-BTC providing guidance on enterprise accounting regime issued by the Ministry of Finance on 22 December 2014 and several other related regulations.

The Group applied changes in accounting policies in accordance with Circular 99 on a prospective basis, as Circular 99 does not require retrospective application for these changes. The Company also re-presented the corresponding figures of certain line items to conform with the presentation under Circular 99, as disclosed in Note 34.

As at 30 June 2026 and for the six-month period then ended

3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)3.2 Changes in accounting policies and disclosures (continued)3.1.2 Circular No. 43/2026/TT-BTC amending and supplementing Circular No. 202/2014/TT-BTC

On 20 April 2026, the Ministry of Finance issued Circular No. 43/2026/TT-BTC ("Circular 43") amending and supplementing certain provisions of Circular No. 202/2014/TT-BTC, which provides guidance on the preparation and presentation of interim consolidated financial statements. Circular 43 applies to consolidated financial statements for financial years beginning on or after 1 January 2026.

The Group applied the changes in accounting treatment introduced by Circular 43 on a prospective basis, as Circular 43 and the Vietnamese Enterprise Accounting Regime do not require retrospective application of these changes.

3.2 Cash

Cash comprises cash on hand and cash in banks.

3.3 Inventories

Inventories are measured at their historical costs. The cost of inventories comprises costs of purchase, costs of conversion (including raw materials, direct labor cost, other directly related cost and manufacturing general overheads allocated based on the normal operating capacity) incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition.

In case the net realizable value is lower than the cost, it must be calculated according to the net realizable value.

The perpetual method is used to record inventories, which are valued as follows:

Raw and construction materials, tools and supplies and merchandise goods	- Cost of purchase on a weighted average basis.
Finished goods and work-in-process	- Cost of direct materials and labour plus attributable overheads based on the normal level of activities.

Construction work-in-progress under construction contract

Construction work-in-progress acquired or being constructed for sale in the ordinary course of business, rather than to be held for rental or capital appreciation, is classified as construction work-in-progress under construction contracts and measured at the lower of cost and net realisable value.

Cost of construction work-in-progress includes:

- ▶ Amounts paid to construction contractors; and
- ▶ Borrowing costs, planning and design costs, costs of site preparation, professional fees for legal services, property transfer taxes, construction overheads and other related costs.

Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of the business, based on market prices at the reporting date and discounted for the time value of money if material, less costs to completion and the estimated costs of sale.

The cost of construction work-in-process recognised in the interim consolidated income statement is determined with reference to the specific costs incurred on the construction work-in-process sold and an allocation of any non-specific costs based on the relative size of the construction work-in-process sold.

As at 30 June 2026 and for the six-month period then ended

3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)3.3 Inventories (continued)Provision for diminution in value of inventories

An inventory provision represents the estimated loss to reflect the decrease in value of inventories (through diminution, damage, obsolescence, etc.) below their carrying amount and is intended to cover actual losses incurred from the decline in value of raw materials, finished goods and other inventories. The Company recognises the inventory provision when there is evidence that the net realisable value is lower than the cost of inventories.

Increases or decreases to the provision balance are recognised in cost of goods sold in the interim consolidated income statement. When inventories expire, become obsolete, are damaged or are no longer usable, the difference between the provision previously made and the historical cost of inventories is included in the interim consolidated income statement.

3.4 Receivables

Receivables are presented in the interim consolidated statement of financial position at the carrying amounts due from customers and other debtors, after deducting provision for doubtful debts.

The provision for doubtful debts represents outstanding receivables at the interim consolidated statement of financial position date which are doubtful of being recovered. Increases or decreases to the provision balance are recorded as general and administrative expenses in the interim consolidated income statement. When bad debts are determined as unrecoverable and are written off those bad debts, the difference between the provision for doubtful debts previously made and historical cost of receivables is included in the interim consolidated income statement.

Overdue receivables are provided as follows:

Overdue period	Provision rate (% of receivable value)
From 6 months to less than 1 year	30
From 1 year to less than 2 years	50
From 2 years to less than 3 years	70
3 years or more	100

3.5 Biological assetsLivestock raised for single-harvest

The Group's short-term livestock raised for single-harvest comprises cattle raised for beef production. The cost of such livestock raised for single-harvest includes the purchase price, all costs incurred in caring for raising and raising the livestock, and other directly attributable costs related to these biological assets.

Short-term seasonal crops

The Group's short-term seasonal crops are biological assets from crops comprise unharvested rubber latex, banana bunches and other fruits. Their cost includes plantation cultivation, care and maintenance costs, together with other directly attributable costs related to these biological assets.

As at 30 June 2026 and for the six-month period then ended

3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)3.5 Biological assets (continued)Livestock raised for periodic harvest

Livestock raised for periodic harvest of the Group comprises breeding cattle and is accounted for as follows:

- The cost of breeding cattle includes the purchase price and all costs incurred in caring for and raising the livestock from initial recognition until maturity, when they are capable of producing agricultural produce or performing their intended breeding functions in accordance with relevant technical requirements.
- Depreciation commences when the livestock reaches maturity and is capable of performing its intended breeding function. Depreciation is calculated based on the depreciable amount of the livestock.
- When breeding cattle produce offspring, the cost of the offspring comprises the attributable care and rearing costs incurred during the period, together with an allocation of depreciation of the parent livestock.

Purchase, cultivation, planting, or care costs that do not increase the Group's future economic benefits are recognised in the interim consolidated income statement as incurred.

Provision for diminution in value of biological assets

A provision for diminution in value of biological assets is recognised when the net realisable value is lower than the cost of the biological assets. At each reporting date, the Group assesses the required provision based on the quantity, cost, and net realisable value of each type of biological assets.

Increase or decrease in the provision for diminution in value of biological assets is recognised in the cost of goods sold in the interim consolidated income statement.

3.6 Tangible fixed assets

Tangible fixed assets comprise assets with physical substance held by the enterprise for use in production and business activities, and biological assets consisting of perennial plants for periodic outputs.

Tangible fixed assets are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation.

The cost of a tangible fixed asset comprises its purchase price and any directly attributable costs of bringing the tangible fixed asset to the location and condition necessary for it to be capable of operating as intended by the Group and the costs of dismantling and removing the asset and restoring the site on which it is located, if any.

Expenditures for additions, improvements and renewals are added to the carrying amount of the assets and expenditures for maintenance and repairs are charged to the interim income statement as incurred.

Perennial plants for periodic yields

The Group's perennial plants comprise rubber plantations and fruit-bearing crops. Their cost includes purchase, planting, cultivation and maintenance costs, and other directly attributable costs incurred from initial planting until the plantations reach maturity and are ready for production.

When tangible fixed assets are sold or retired, any gain or loss resulting from their disposal (the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount) is included in the interim consolidated income statement.

As at 30 June 2026 and for the six-month period then ended

3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)3.7 Intangible fixed assets

Intangible fixed assets are stated at cost less accumulated amortisation.

The cost of an intangible fixed asset comprises its purchase price and any directly attributable costs of preparing the intangible fixed asset to a condition for it to be capable of operating for its intended use of the Company.

Expenditures for additions, improvements are added to the carrying amount of the assets and other expenditures are charged to the interim income statement as incurred.

When intangible fixed assets are sold or retired, any gain or loss resulting from their disposal (the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount) is included in the interim income statement.

Land use rights

Land use rights are recognised as intangible fixed assets and represent the value of rights to use land acquired or leased by the Group. Land use rights are assessed as having either finite or indefinite useful lives. Land use rights with finite useful lives are amortised over the respective land lease terms, while land use rights with indefinite useful lives are not amortised.

3.8 Depreciation and amortisation

Depreciation of tangible fixed assets and amortisation of intangible fixed assets are calculated on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful life of each asset as follows:

Buildings and structures	8 - 50 years
Machinery and equipment	5 - 15 years
Means of transportation and transmit instruments	6 - 20 years
Office equipment	4 - 5 years
Software system	5 - 8 years
Perennial plants for periodic yields	10 - 25 years
Other assets	10 - 15 years

Land use right with an indefinite term is not amortized.

Tangible fixed assets are depreciated from the time the assets are available for use. Intangible fixed assets are amortized from the time they are put into use.

Rubber plantations

Management determines that a rubber plantation is ready for recognition as a fixed asset and commencement of depreciation when more than 70% of the living trees are suitable for commercial tapping. A tree is considered suitable for tapping when its trunk circumference, measured at one metre above ground level, reaches 45 cm and its bark thickness at the same height reaches 6 mm.

Rubber plantations are depreciated over their 20-year estimated productive lives in accordance with Official Letter No. 1937/BTC-TCDN dated 9 February 2010 issued by the Department of Business Finance under the Ministry of Finance and Decision No. 221/QD-CSVN dated 27 April 2010 issued by the Vietnam Rubber Group.

Fruit plantations

Management determines that a plantation is ready for recognition as a fixed asset and commencement of depreciation when more than 50% of the plantation has reached the harvesting stage.

- (i) Banana plantations are depreciated over their estimated productive lives in accordance with Decision No. 0106/QD-HAGL Agrico dated 1 June 2020 issued by management.
- (ii) Mango plantations are depreciated over their estimated productive lives in accordance with Decision No. 0101/18/QD-HAGL Agrico dated 2 January 2018 issued by management.

Other plantations are depreciated over their respective estimated productive lives in accordance with other relevant decisions issued by management.

As at 30 June 2026 and for the six-month period then ended

3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)3.9 Construction in progress

Construction in progress represents the costs of acquiring new assets that have not yet been fully installed or the costs of construction that have not yet been fully completed. Construction in progress is stated at cost, which includes all necessary costs to construct, repair, renovate, expand, or re-equip the projects with technologies, such as construction costs, tools and equipment costs, project management costs, construction consulting costs, and borrowing costs that are eligible for capitalization.

Construction in progress will be transferred to the appropriate fixed asset account when these assets are fully installed or the construction project is fully completed, and depreciation of these assets will commence when they are ready for their intended use.

Construction costs are recognized as expenses when such costs do not meet the conditions to be recognized as fixed assets.

3.10 Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs consist of interest and other costs that the Group incurs in connection with the borrowing of funds.

Borrowing costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of a particular asset are capitalised as part of the cost of that asset. Capitalisation of borrowing costs is suspended during the period in which active development of the asset is interrupted unless such interruption is considered necessary. Capitalisation of borrowing costs is ceased when substantially all the activities necessary to prepare the qualifying asset for its intended use or sale are complete.

3.11 Leased assets

The determination of whether an arrangement is, or contains a lease is based on the substance of the arrangement at inception date and requires an assessment of whether the fulfilment of the arrangement is dependent on the use of a specific asset and the arrangement conveys a land use rights the asset.

Where the Group is the lessee

Rentals under operating leases are charged to the interim consolidated income statement on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease.

3.12 Deferred expenses

Deferred expenses are reported as short-term or long-term deferred expenses on the interim consolidated statement of financial position and are amortised over the period to which they relate or during which the related economic benefits are consumed.

Deferred expenses are reported as short-term or long-term deferred expenses on the interim consolidated statement of financial position which mainly include cost of tools and supplies, prepaid land rentals, short-term fruit plantations and other costs. They are amortised over the period to which they relate or during which the related economic benefits are consumed.

Certain types of expenses are recorded as long-term deferred expenses and are amortised to the interim consolidated income statement, as follows:

- Prepaid land rentals are amortised over the respective land lease terms;
- Tools and supplies with large value issued into production are amortised over a period not exceeding (3) years; and
- Costs of fruit trees and other plantations including seedlings, land preparation, planting and cultivation costs, are amortised over the estimated useful lives of the respective trees.

As at 30 June 2026 and for the six-month period then ended

3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)3.13 InvestmentsInvestment in an associate*

The Group's investment in an associate is accounted for using the equity method of accounting. An associate is an entity over which the Group has significant influence and which is neither subsidiary nor a joint venture. The Group generally deems it has significant influence if it has over 20% of the voting rights.

Under the equity method, the investment is carried in the interim consolidated statement of financial position at cost plus post-acquisition changes in the Group's share of net assets of the associate. Goodwill arising on acquisition of the associate is included in the carrying amount of the investment. Goodwill is not amortised and subject to annual review for impairment.

The share of post-acquisition profit (loss) of the associate is presented on the face of the interim consolidated income statement and its share of post-acquisition movements in reserves is recognised in reserves. The cumulative post-acquisition movements are adjusted against the carrying amount of the investment. Dividend sharing receivable from associate reduces the carrying amount of the investment.

The financial statements of the associate are prepared for the same reporting period and use the same accounting policies as the Group. Where necessary, adjustments are made to bring the accounting policies in line with those of the Group.

Investment in another entity

Investment in another entity is stated at acquisition cost.

Held-to-maturity investments

Held-to-maturity investment is stated at acquisition cost.

Provision for diminution in the value of investments

Provision for diminution in value of an investment is made when there are reliable evidences that a part or whole of an investment (including investments held to maturity, if any) has suffered a diminution in value or is not recoverable at the end of the reporting period.

Increases or decreases to the provision balance are recorded as finance expenses in the interim consolidated income statement.

3.14 Payables

Trade and other payables comprise obligations of the Group to suppliers of materials and goods, service providers, vendors of property, plant and equipment, investment properties and financial investments under executed economic contracts and amounts payable to main and subcontractors for construction and installation works.

3.15 Accrued expenses

Accrued expenses comprise amounts payable for goods and services that have been received from suppliers or provided to customers during the reporting period but have not yet been paid due to the absence of sufficient supporting documents, accounting records or documentation and are recognised as production and business expenses of the reporting period.

As at 30 June 2026 and for the six-month period then ended

3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)3.16 Earnings (losses) per share

Basic earnings (losses) per share amounts are calculated by dividing net profit (loss) after tax for the period attributable to ordinary shareholders of the Company (after adjusting for the bonus and welfare fund) by the weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding during the period.

Diluted earnings (losses) per share amounts are calculated by dividing the net profit (loss) after tax attributable to ordinary shareholders of the Company by the weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding during the period and the weighted average number of ordinary shares that would be issued on conversion of all the dilutive potential ordinary shares into ordinary shares.

3.17 Foreign currency transactions

Transactions denominated in currencies other than the accounting currency of the Group (VND) are initially recorded using the actual transaction exchange rates or carrying exchange rates, depending on the nature and substance of the underlying transactions and the principles for determining exchange rates at the transaction date, as follows:

Actual transaction exchange rates

Transactions denominated in currencies other than the accounting currency of the Group (VND) are recorded at the actual exchange rates at the transaction dates, being the average buying and selling transfer exchange rates of the commercial bank with which the entity frequently conducts transactions. The average buying and selling transfer exchange rates are determined on a monthly basis as the arithmetic average of the bank's daily buying and selling transfer exchange rates.

All foreign exchange differences incurred are taken to the interim consolidated income statement.

Carrying exchange rates

Carrying exchange rates include either specific actual carrying exchange rates or weighted-average carrying exchange rates. The application of specific actual carrying exchange rates or weighted-average carrying exchange rates depends on the characteristics and management requirements of foreign currency-denominated monetary items of the Group.

All foreign exchange differences incurred are taken to the interim consolidated income statement.

At the end of the reporting period, monetary balances denominated in foreign currencies are translated as follows:

- Demand deposits denominated in foreign currencies are translated using the average bank transfer buying and selling exchange rates quoted by the commercial bank where the Company maintains its deposit accounts; and
- Foreign currency monetary items other than demand deposits denominated in foreign currencies are translated using the average bank transfer buying and selling exchange rates quoted by the commercial bank with which the Company regularly conducts transactions.

As at 30 June 2026 and for the six-month period then ended

3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)3.17 Foreign currency transactions (continued)Translation of interim financial statements of foreign operations

For consolidation purposes, the interim financial statements of subsidiaries whose accounting records are maintained in currencies other than the Group's accounting currency of VND, are translated into VND as follows:

- ▶ Assets and liabilities of foreign subsidiaries, including goodwill arising on their acquisition, are translated at the closing exchange rate at the reporting date. This rate is the average of the buying and selling transfer exchange rates quoted by the commercial bank with which the Group regularly conducts transactions, or an exchange rate that approximates such average rate;
- ▶ The parent company's interest in the subsidiary's net assets as at the acquisition date is translated at the exchange rate applied on that date;
- ▶ Post-acquisition retained earnings are translated based on the translated revenue and expense items recognised in the interim consolidated income statement;
- ▶ Dividends paid are translated at the actual exchange rates prevailing on the payment dates;
- ▶ Items in the interim consolidated income statement and the interim consolidated statement of cash flows are translated at the actual exchange rates prevailing on the transaction dates.

As at 30 June 2026, the Group translated the financial statements of subsidiaries whose accounting records were maintained in USD and KHR at the following exchange rates:

- ▶ USD/VND: closing exchange rate of 26,286 (31 December 2025: asset exchange rate of 26,203 and liability exchange rate of 26,377); and
- KHR/VND: closing exchange rate of 6.64 (31 December 2025: asset exchange rate of 6.4 and liability exchange rate of 6.5).

3.18 Share capital*Ordinary shares*

Ordinary shares are recognised at issuance price less incremental costs directly attributable to the issue of shares, net of tax effects. Such costs are recognised as a deduction from share premium.

Share premium

Share premium is the difference between the par value and the issuance price of the shares, minus the actual expenses incurred for the issuance of the shares.

3.19 Appropriation of net profits

Net profit after tax is available for appropriation to shareholders after approval in the annual general meeting, and after making appropriation to reserve funds in accordance with the Company's Charter and Vietnam's regulatory requirements.

As at 30 June 2026 and for the six-month period then ended

3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)3.20 Revenue recognition

Revenue is recognised to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Group and the revenue can be reliably measured. Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable, excluding trade discount, rebate and sales return. The following specific recognition criteria must also be met before revenue is recognised:

Sale of goods

Revenue is recognised when the significant risks and rewards of ownership of the goods have passed to the buyer, usually upon the delivery of the goods.

Construction contracts

Where the outcome of a construction contract can be estimated reliably and certified by customers, revenue and costs are recognised by reference to the stage of completion of the contract activity at the end of the reporting period. Variations in contract work, claims and incentive payments are included to the extent that they have been agreed with the customer.

Where the outcome of a construction contract cannot be estimated reliably, contract revenue is recognised to the extent of contract costs incurred that it is probable to be recoverable. Contract costs are recognised as expenses in the period in which they are incurred.

Rendering of services

Where the contract outcome can be reliably measured, revenue is recognised by reference to the stage of completion is measured by reference to the proportion of work completed.

Interest income

Interest is recognized on an accrual basis based on the time and actual interest rate for each year.

Dividend and profit distribution income

Dividend and profit distribution income are recognized when Company is entitled to receive dividends or when the Company are entitled to receive profits from its capital contributions.

3.21 Selling expenses

Selling expenses reflect actual costs incurred in connection with the sale of goods and the provision of services.

3.22 General and administrative expenses

General and administrative expenses reflect actual costs incurred in the course of the general management of the Group.

3.23 Taxation*Current income tax*

Current income tax assets and liabilities for the current and prior years are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or paid to the taxation authorities. The tax rates and tax laws used to compute the amount are those that are enacted as at the end of the reporting period.

Current income tax is charged or credited to the interim consolidated income statement, except when it relates to items recognised directly to equity, in which case the current income tax is also dealt with in equity.

Current income tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable rights for the Group to offset current tax assets against current tax liabilities and when the Group intends to settle its current tax assets and liabilities on a net basis.

As at 30 June 2026 and for the six-month period then ended

3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)3.23 Taxation (continued)Deferred tax

Deferred tax is provided using the liability method on temporary differences at the end of the reporting period between the tax base of assets and liabilities and their carrying amount for interim consolidated financial statements purposes.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for all taxable temporary differences, except:

- ▶ where the deferred tax liability arises from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction which at the time of the related transaction affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit (or loss); and
- ▶ in respect of taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries and associates where timing of the reversal of the temporary difference can be controlled and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax assets are recognised for all deductible temporary differences, carried forward unused tax credit and unused tax losses, to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which deductible temporary differences, carried forward unused tax credit and unused tax losses can be utilised, except:

- ▶ where the deferred tax asset in respect of deductible temporary difference which arises from the initial recognition of an asset or liability which at the time of the related transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit (or loss); and
- ▶ in respect of deductible temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries and associates, deferred tax assets are recognised only to the extent that it is probable that the temporary differences will reverse in the foreseeable future and taxable profit will be available against which the temporary differences can be utilized.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is audited at each the end of the reporting period and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be utilised. Previously unrecognised deferred tax assets are reassessed at each the end of the reporting period and are recognised to the extent that it has become probable that future taxable profit will allow the deferred tax assets to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the year when the asset is realised, or the liability is settled based on tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted at the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax is charged or credited to the interim consolidated income statement, except when it relates to items recognised directly to equity, in which case the deferred tax is also dealt with in the equity account.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable rights for the Group to offset current tax assets against current tax liabilities and when they relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority on either the same taxable entity or when the Group intends either settle current tax liabilities and assets on a net basis or to realise the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously, in each future year in which significant amounts of deferred tax liabilities or assets are expected to be settled or recovered.

3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)3.24 Related parties

Parties are considered to be related parties of the Group if one party has the ability to control the other party or exercise significant influence over the other party in making financial and operating decisions, or when the Group and other party are under common control or under common significant influence. Related parties above can be enterprises or individuals, including close members of their family.

3.25 Significant estimates

The preparation of the interim consolidated financial statements in accordance with Vietnamese Accounting Standards, the Vietnamese Enterprise Accounting System, and the statutory requirements relevant to the preparation and presentation of the interim consolidated financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities as at the reporting date, as well as the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period.

Such estimates and assumptions are continually evaluated based on past experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable and have a significant impact on the Group's interim consolidated financial statements. Although accounting estimates are made based on management's best knowledge and judgement, actual results may differ from those estimates and assumptions.

3.26 Segment information

A segment is a component determined separately by the Group which is engaged in providing products or related services (business segment) or providing products or services in a particular economic environment (geographical segment), that is subject to risks and returns that are different from those of other segments.

The Group's business segment is derived mainly from sale of products (plantations, trading and services). The management defines the Group's geographical segments to be based on the location of the Group's assets.

29. CORPORATE INCOME TAX

The Company has the obligation to pay corporate income tax ("CIT") at the rate of 20% of taxable profit (2025: 20%).

The subsidiaries located in Laos People's Democratic Republic and the Kingdom of Cambodia have the obligations to pay CIT at the rate of 20% of their taxable profits. They are also entitled to CIT exemptions and reductions in accordance with their respective BRCs, Investment Licenses and applicable tax regulations.

The Company and subsidiaries' tax returns are subject to examination by the tax authorities. Because the application of tax laws and regulations to many types of transactions is susceptible to varying interpretations, the amounts reported in the interim consolidated financial statements could change at a later date upon final determination by the tax authorities.

29.2 Current tax

The current CIT payable is based on taxable profit or tax loss for the current period. The taxable profit or tax loss of the Group for the period differs from the accounting profit or loss before tax in the interim consolidated income statement because it excludes items of income or expense that are taxable or deductible in other period and it further excludes items that are not taxable or deductible. The Group's liability for current tax is calculated using tax rates that have been enacted at the end of the reporting period.

33. SEGMENT INFORMATION

The primary segment reporting format is determined to be business segments as the Group's risks and rates of return are affected predominantly by differences in the products and services provided. Secondary information is reported geographically. The Group's operating businesses are organised and managed separately according to the nature of the products and services provided, with each segment representing a strategic business unit that offers different products and serves different markets.

Transfer prices between business segments are set on an arm's length basis in a manner similar to transactions with third parties. Segment revenue, segment expense and segment results include transactions between business segments. These transactions are eliminated in preparing the interim consolidated financial statements.

The Group's geographical segments are determined based on the locations of its assets. Revenue from external customers disclosed by geographical segment is based on the customers' geographical locations.

33.1 Business segment

For management purposes, the Group is organised into business units based on their products and services and has reportable operating segments as follows:

- ▶ Agricultural: planting, harvesting rubber, fruit and cow breeding; and
- ▶ Trading and services: construction service, purchasing and transport of goods.

Management monitors the operating results of the Group's business units separately for purposes of resource allocation and performance assessment. Segment performance is evaluated based on operating profit or loss which in certain respects, as explained in the table below, is measured differently from operating profit or loss in the interim consolidated financial statements. Finance cost and finance income and income taxes are managed at the Group basis and are not allocated to operating segments.
