The financial statements of the subsidiaries apply accounting policies consistent with those of the Company. Where necessary, the financial statements of the subsidiaries are adjusted to ensure consistency in the accounting policies applied across the Company and its subsidiaries.

4- Financial instruments

Initial recognition

The Company's financial assets comprise cash and cash equivalents, trade and other receivables, loans, and long-term investments. At initial recognition, financial assets are measured at purchase price/issuance cost plus other directly attributable transaction costs related to the purchase or issuance of such financial assets.

The Company's financial liabilities comprise borrowings, trade and other payables, and accrued expenses. At initial recognition, financial liabilities are measured at issuance price plus transaction costs directly attributable to the issuance of such financial liabilities.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For the accounting period from January 01, 2026 to September 30, 2026

Measurement after initial recognition

Currently, there are no specific regulations on the revaluation of financial instruments after initial recognition.

5- Foreign currency transactions

Transactions in foreign currencies during the fiscal year are translated into Vietnamese Dong at the actual exchange rates at the transaction dates. These actual exchange rates are determined based on the following principles:

- When buying or selling foreign currencies: the exchange rate stipulated in the foreign currency purchase and sale contract between the Company and the commercial bank;
- When recognizing receivables: the buying exchange rate of the commercial bank designated by the Company for customer settlement at the transaction date;
- When recognizing payables: the selling exchange rate of the commercial bank where the Company expects to transact at the transaction date.

Actual exchange rates used for revaluing foreign currency monetary items at the date of the Financial Statements are determined based on the following principles:

- For items classified as assets: the foreign currency buying exchange rate of the commercial bank where the Company regularly transacts;
- For foreign currency deposits: the buying exchange rate of the bank where the Company maintains its foreign currency account;

For items classified as liabilities: the foreign currency selling exchange rate of the commercial bank where the Company regularly transacts.

All actual exchange differences arising during the year and differences resulting from the revaluation of year-end balances of foreign currency monetary items at the date of the Financial Statements are recognized in the income statement for the fiscal year. Gains from foreign exchange differences arising from the year-end revaluation of foreign currency monetary items are not used for profit distribution or dividend payments.

6- Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash on hand, bank deposits, cash in transit, and short-term investments with a maturity or recovery period of no more than three months from the acquisition date that are readily convertible into known amounts of cash and subject to an insignificant risk of conversion into cash.

7- Financial investments

Held-to-maturity investments comprise: term bank deposits held to maturity to earn periodic interest and other held-to-maturity investments.

Investments in joint ventures and associates are initially recognized in the accounting records at cost. After initial recognition, the carrying amounts of these investments are measured at cost less allowance for impairment.

Capital investments in other entities comprise: investments in equity instruments of other entities over which the Company does not have control, joint control, or significant influence. The initial carrying amount of these investments is determined at cost. After initial recognition, the carrying amount of these investments is determined at cost less allowance for impairment.

The allowance for impairment of investments is made at the year-end as follows:

- For investments in joint ventures and associates: the allowance for impairment is recognized when the investee incurs losses, based on the Financial Statements of the joint venture or associate at the time of making the allowance.
- For long-term investments (not classified as trading securities) where the Company does not have significant influence over the investee: if the investment is in listed shares or its fair value can be reliably determined, the allowance is based on the market price of the shares; if the fair value of the investment cannot be determined at the reporting date, the allowance is based on the investee's Financial Statements at the time of making the allowance.
- For held-to-maturity investments: allowance for doubtful debts is made based on recoverability in accordance with statutory regulations.

8- Receivables

Receivables are tracked in detail by maturity, debtor, original currency, and other factors according to the management requirements of the Company.

An allowance for doubtful debts is made for: overdue receivables stipulated in economic contracts, loan agreements, contractual commitments, or debt covenants, as well as undue receivables that are unlikely to be recovered. In particular, the allowance for overdue receivables is based on the original repayment term under the initial sales contract, regardless of any debt extension between the parties, and for undue receivables where the debtor has become bankrupt or is undergoing dissolution procedures, is missing, or has absconded.

9- Fixed assets

Tangible fixed assets and intangible fixed assets are initially recognized at cost. During their useful lives, tangible fixed assets and intangible fixed assets are stated at historical cost, accumulated depreciation/amortisation, and carrying amount.

Depreciation of fixed assets is calculated using the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives as follows:

Category of fixed assets

- Buildings and structures

Number of years

06 – 44

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For the accounting period from January 01, 2026 to September 30, 2026

- Machinery and equipment	5
- Vehicles and transmission equipment	05 – 11
- Management tools and equipment	03 – 10
- Land use rights	34 – 50
- Computer software	03-05

10- Investment property

Investment property is initially recognized at cost.

Investment property held for operating lease is stated at historical cost, accumulated depreciation, and carrying amount. Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives as follows:

- Buildings and structures: 05 – 20 years

Investment property is derecognised from the Financial Statements upon disposal or when the investment property is permanently withdrawn from use and no future economic benefits are expected from its disposal. The difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the investment property is recognised in the income statement in the period of disposal. Transfers from owner-occupied property or inventories to investment property are made only when there is a change in use, evidenced by end of owner-occupation and commencement of an operating lease to another party or completion of construction. Transfers from investment property to owner-occupied property or inventories are made only when there is a change in use, evidenced by commencement of owner-occupation or commencement of development with a view to sale. Transfers between investment property, owner-occupied property, and inventories do not change the carrying amount or cost of the property at the date of transfer.

11- Construction in progress

Construction in progress reflects costs directly related to the construction of workshops and installation of machinery and equipment that have not yet been completed. Assets under construction and installation are not depreciated.

12- Operating leases

An operating lease is a lease of fixed assets under which substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of the asset remain with the lessor. Payments made under operating leases are recognised in the income statement on a straight-line basis over the term of the operating lease.

13- Prepayments

Expenses incurred that are related to the business performance of multiple accounting periods are recorded as prepayments and allocated gradually to business performance in subsequent accounting periods.

Prepaid land rental expenses comprise prepaid land rentals, including those related to leased land for which the Company has obtained land use right certificates but which do not qualify for recognition as intangible fixed assets under Circular No. 45/2013/TT-BTC issued by the Ministry of Finance on April 25, 2013 providing guidelines on the management, use, and depreciation of fixed assets, as well as other costs incurred to secure the use of leased land. These expenses are recognised and reported in the income statement on a straight-line basis over the term of the land lease agreement. The calculation and allocation of long-term prepayments into production and business costs for each accounting period are based on the nature and extent of each type of expense to select an appropriate allocation method and criteria; prepayments are amortised gradually into production and business costs using the straight-line method.

14- Liabilities

Liabilities are monitored by due date, creditor, original currency, and other factors according to the Company's management requirements.

15- Borrowings

Borrowings are monitored by lender, loan contract, and maturity of the loans and finance lease liabilities. For borrowings and liabilities in foreign currencies, detailed monitoring is conducted by original currency.

16- Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs are recognised as production and operating expenses in the year they are incurred, except for borrowing costs directly attributable to the construction or production of qualifying assets, which are included in the cost of those assets (capitalised) when meeting the conditions specified in Vietnamese Accounting Standard No. 16 "Borrowing Costs". In addition, for specific borrowings used for the construction of fixed assets and investment properties, borrowing costs are capitalised even when the construction period is less than 12 months.

17- Accrued expenses

Payables for goods and services received from suppliers or provided to buyers during the reporting period but not yet paid, along with other payables, are recognised in production and operating expenses of the reporting period.

The recognition of accrued expenses into production and operating expenses for the year is carried out in accordance with the matching principle between revenue and expenses incurred during the year. Accrued expenses will be settled against actual incurred expenses. Any difference between the accrued amount and the actual expense is reversed.

18- Unearned revenue

Unearned revenue includes revenue received in advance, such as amounts prepaid by customers for one or more accounting periods for property leasing.

19- Owners' equity

Owners' contributed capital is recognised on the basis of the actual capital contributed by the owners.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For the accounting period from January 01, 2026 to September 30, 2026

Undistributed earnings reflect business performance (profit, loss) after corporate income tax and the distribution of profits or settlement of losses of the Company. Dividends and profits paid to owners in excess of undistributed earnings are treated as a reduction in contributed capital. Undistributed earnings may be distributed to investors based on their capital contribution ratio upon approval by the General Meeting of Shareholders and after appropriation to funds in accordance with the Company's Charter and Vietnamese legal regulations.

The Company appropriates the following reserve funds from its net profit after corporate income tax upon proposal by the Board of Directors and approval by shareholders at the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders.

- Investment and development fund: This fund is appropriated to serve the expansion of operations or in-depth investment of the Company.

- Bonus and welfare fund and Managers' bonus fund: These funds are appropriated to provide monetary awards, material incentives, common benefits, and welfare improvements for employees, and are presented as liabilities on the Statement of Financial Position.

Dividends payable to shareholders are recognised as a liability on the Company's Statement of Financial Position upon notification of dividend payment by the Company's Board of Directors and notification of the record date for dividend entitlement by the Vietnam Securities Depository.

20- Revenue

Revenue from the provision of services

Revenue from the provision of services is recognised when all of the following conditions are satisfied:

- The amount of revenue can be measured reliably;
- It is probable that the economic benefits associated with the transaction will flow to the Company;
- The stage of completion of the transaction at the date of the Statement of Financial Position can be measured reliably;
- The costs incurred for the transaction and the costs to complete the transaction can be measured reliably.

Financial income

Revenue arising from interest, royalties, dividends, distributed profits, and other financial income is recognised when both of the following two (2) conditions are satisfied:

- It is probable that economic benefits associated with the transaction will flow to the Company;
- The amount of revenue can be measured reliably.

Dividends and distributed profits are recognised when the Company's right to receive dividend payments or profit distributions from capital contributions is established.

21- Cost of goods sold

Cost of sales during the year is recognized in accordance with revenue arising in the year and ensures compliance with the prudence principle. Losses of supplies and goods exceeding normal limits, costs exceeding normal operating capacity, and inventory losses after deducting the liabilities of related collectives and individuals are fully and promptly recognized in cost of sales during the year.

22- Financial expenses

Expenses recognized in financial expenses comprise:

- Expenses or losses related to financial investment activities;
- Borrowing costs;
- Provision for diminution in value of trading securities, allowance for losses on investments in other entities, losses incurred upon disposal of foreign currencies, foreign exchange losses, etc.

The above items are recognized at total amounts incurred during the year, without offsetting against financial income.

23- Corporate income tax

Current corporate income tax expense is determined based on taxable income for the year and the corporate income tax rate applicable in the current financial year.

The Company is subject to a corporate income tax rate of 20% on production and business activities generating taxable income for the financial year ended September 30, 2026.

24- Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing post-tax profit or loss attributable to ordinary shareholders of the Company (after adjusting for the appropriation to Bonus and Welfare Fund and Executive Board Bonus Fund) by the weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding during the year.

25- Related parties

Parties are considered to be related if one party has the ability to control or exercise significant influence over the other party in making decisions regarding financial and operating policies. The Company's related parties include:

- Enterprises that directly or indirectly through one or more intermediaries control, are controlled by, or are under common control with the Company, including associated companies;
- Individuals directly or indirectly holding voting rights in the Company who have significant influence over the Company, key management personnel of the Company, and close family members of these individuals;
- Enterprises in which the individuals mentioned above hold, directly or indirectly, a significant portion of voting rights or have significant influence over these enterprises.

In considering each relationship of related parties for the preparation and presentation of the financial statements, the Company pays attention to the substance of the relationship rather than merely the legal form.

26- Segment information

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For the accounting period from January 01, 2026 to September 30, 2026

As the Company's principal activities are shipping agency, maritime shipping, and associated services in Vietnam, the Company does not present segment reports by business sector or geographical area.

(1) On April 01, 2014, Vietnam Ocean Shipping Agency Joint Stock Company (VOSA) and Yusen Logistics (Singapore) Pte. Ltd. established Yusen Logistics and Transport (Vietnam) Co., Ltd. with a charter capital of 100,000 USD, in which VOSA's capital contribution ratio was 51%. Under the joint venture contract signed with Yusen Logistics (Singapore) Pte. Ltd. on September 10, 2013, VOSA granted Yusen Logistics (Singapore) Pte. Ltd. the right to manage and control Yusen Logistics and Transport (Vietnam) Co., Ltd.; in return, VOSA receives a fixed annual management fee of 40,000 USD from Yusen Logistics (Singapore) Pte. Ltd. The joint venture's annual profits continue to be distributed according to the capital contribution ratio of both parties.

(2) On March 26, 2014, Vietnam Ocean Shipping Agency Joint Stock Company (VOSA) and Yusen Logistics (Singapore) Pte. Ltd. (YLSG) entered into a capital transfer agreement. Accordingly, VOSA agreed to transfer part of its contributed capital in Yusen Logistics (Vietnam) Co., Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as the "Company") corresponding to 50% of the charter capital (equivalent to 200,000 USD). Under the transfer agreement, VOSA continues to receive profit distributions from the Company's accumulated undistributed post-tax profit as of March 31, 2014 based on the capital contribution ratio prior to the transfer (VOSA's contribution ratio was 51%, and YLSG's was 49%), and this profit is to be distributed to the parties in seven (07) equal annual payments over seven (07) fiscal years following March 31, 2014 (a 7-year phase from 2014 to 2020), with VOSA receiving an amount of 15.5 billion VND each period. After March 31, 2014, when the Company distributes profits from other post-tax profits, VOSA is entitled to a guaranteed dividend of 5,000 USD, and YLSG is entitled to the Company's remaining post-tax profits after deducting guaranteed dividends.

(3) Established in 1991, Lotus Joint Venture Company (LOTUS Port) is the first joint venture in Vietnam in the field of international seaport operations between VIETTRANS, VOSA, and foreign partner BLASCO - Ukraine. In this company, VOSA had an initial capital contribution of 23,705 USD, representing an ownership ratio of 0.27%. Annually, the joint venture distributes joint venture profits and retains part of its earnings for reinvestment. The actual profit VOSA receives annually is negligible due to the low capital contribution

(4) On September 19, 2025, Vietnam Ocean Shipping Agency Joint Stock Company (VOSA) and SINOTRANS CONTAINER LINES CO., LTD. established Sinotrans Container Lines (Vietnam) Co., Ltd. with a charter capital of 7,728,000,000 VND, in which VOSA's capital contribution ratio was 20%, equivalent to 1,545,600,000 VND. The joint venture's annual profits continue to be distributed according to the capital contribution ratio of both parties.
